IT IS SENATOR ALLEN.

The Populists With the Aid of Democrats Elect a Senator.

THE AGONY IS NOW OVER.

A Short Biography of the Successful Candidate—The Independents Hold a Jollification at Lincoln.

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 7.—The independents Tuesday by the aid of the democrats elected Judge Allen to the United States senate.

The totals of the vote were handed to the presiding officer by the clerk. He leaned over a little as if eager to get the paper, then he rapped the desk loudly with the gavel and said: "Gentlemen of the joint convention the chair will announce your vote. 131 votes were cast divided as follows: Allen seventy, Paddock fifty-nine, Crouse one, Vandervoort one. Judge Allen having received the majority of the votes cast I now declare him duly elected United States senator.

The following that is an exemption of the dark horse idea and the faithful proverb that an Ohio man is always the chosen one of the chosen few.

Paddock—Brockman, Brown, Burns, Correll, Cain, Carpenter, Colton, Cooley, Cane, Cross, Davies, Dew, Eggleton, Everett, Ellis, Graham, Gifford, Goldsmith, Goss of Douglas, Goss of Wayne, Griffith Hahn, Haller, Hinds, Howe, James, Perkins, Jensen, Johnson of York, Kaup, Keckley Kessler, Kayes, Kloke, Lockner, Lobeek, Lowly, McDonald, McKesson, Miller, Merrick, Moore, Nelson, Oakley, Pope, Rhea, Robinson, Schappell, Scott of Richardson, Sisson, Smith of Johnson, Spencer, Sutton, Tefft, Van Duhn, Wardlaw, Watson, Wilson—59.

W. V. Allen—Barry, Beal, Campbell, Casper, Darner, Dickerson, Dimmick, Dobson, Eickhoff, Elder, Farnsworth, Felton, Ford, Gray, Gesdes, Grammar, Harris, Harmon, Henry, Higgins, Horst, Irwin, Johnson, Krick, Lingenfelter, Lynch, McCutchen, McCarty, McVey, Mullin, Newberry, Olsen, Packwood, Porter, Rhodes, Riley, Ruggles, Sanders, Schelp, Scott, Sheridan, Smith of Buffalo, Smith of Holt, Smith of Richardson, Soderman, Sutter, Vaa Houson, Woods, Young, Gaffin, Ames, Babcock, North, Thompson, Withnell, Dale, Fulton, Stewart, Hale, Leidigh Luikhart, Mattes, Sinclair, Dysart, Stevens, Kruse, Johnson of Hall, Schlotfeldt, Nelson—70.

Paul Vandervoort—Kyner—1.
Lorenzo Crouse—Rickets—1.
William Vincent Allen was born at Midway, Madison county, O., on the 28th day of January, 1847. This fact accounts in an indirect way for his success in the great battle, now a thing of the past as it is generally accepted theory that a man who takes the trouble to go to Ohio to be born is pretty sure to be giving something in the gift of the people.

In 1855 he moved to Iowa where he enlisted, at the age of fifteen years, with company G, Thirty-second Iowa regiment. He served his country three years in this capacity and then commenced the study of law at West Union, Ia. He has lived in Nebraska nine years. He is now a district judge in the Ninth judicial district. He was senior vice commander of the Grand Army of Nebraska during the year 1888 and consequently near to the hearts of the brave boys.

Mr. Allen's conversion to the populists ranks is of recent date. He was a delegate to the republican state convention that nominated L. D. Richards for governor. It will be remembered that Allen played a prominent part in the convention. When another ballot was imminent Judge Allen's tall form was visible on the floor, accompanied by the following remarks:

"Mr. Chairman, on behalf of Mr. Richards I desire to say that he is willing that another ballot be taken though he has clearly been nominated already; however he does not want to take any under advantage or to have it said that the nomination did not come to him fairly and honestly, I therefore move that this convention proceed to take another ballot for governor." The motion was carried and on the fourth ballot Richards got all but thirteen of the nearly 300 votes of the convention.

Judge Allen is an attorney of well known ability in Nebraska was one of the attorneys in the Boyd-Powers contest case and it is said that he drank the drink that made him a populist while thus engaged. In appearance the judge is a giant! He is large, well proportioned and has a full, round smooth-shaved face that beams with intelligence. In conversation he is pleasant and talkative, but generally very conservative in what he says.

The independents ratified last night. In other words they borrowed the earth for the time being and practiced the sound system through their hats. Representative hall was a structure that contained a happy mass and Mayor Weir presided. The fact that the new party had elected the first senator that ever went from Nebraska, that was not a republican inflated them so that it was impossible to keep their gaseous verbosity pent up. The meeting was open to members of all parties and attracted many of the downcast and defeated to the state house.

Judge Allen was the hero of the evening and addressed his admirers. Several other prominent men made short addresses.

THREE BILLS.

The Following Bills Have Been Recommended for Passage.

The house went into committee of the whole last Thursday, for the consideration of bills on general file with Barry in the chair.

House Roll No. 12, by Higgins was the first to come up. This bill provides that when twenty or more persons resident in any county of this state shall organize themselves into a society for the improvement of agriculture within said county, and when the said society shall have raised and paid into the treasury any sum of money, in each year not less than $50.00 and whenever the president of such society shall certify to the county clerk the amount thus paid, the county board may, if they deem it advisable, order a warrant drawn on the general fund of said county in favor of the president of said society for a sum equal to three cents upon each inhabitant of said county upon a basis of the last vote for members of congress, allowing five inhabitants for each vote thus cast, and it shall be the duty of the county board to include this three cents per capita in their annual estimate, and it shall be the duty of the treasurer of the county to pay the same out of the general fund, provided that if any existing county agricultural society fails or has failed for two years or more to hold an annual fair at least three days such society shall not be entitled to any funds from the county; provided that where more than one society has complied with all the provisions of this section each society shall be entitled to a proportionate share of the county funds.

The bill was recommended to pass.

House Roll, No. 74, by Suter, provides that all railroads touching the same point in the state, at which point such railroads receive and deliver freight shall build and maintain transfer switches for common use in transferring freight from one road to another, and receive and forward all such freight according to the provisions of this act." Also providing a penalty of $100 for each day the company shall neglect or refuse to maintain such switches.

House Roll No. 62 by Schelp. "That where children of school age are living over one and one-half miles from the school house where they belong and they shall be a half mile or more nearer to another school they shall be granted the privilege of attending said near school, and the said district shall for their compensation collect from the said home district the state apportionment of said pupil, and shall be collectable as soon as the county superintendent shall make public the said apportionment."

The bill was recommended to pass.

G. H. JACKSON PROMOTED

The President Appoints a Democrat to the Bench.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.

Catholics and Protestants Collide in Madrid—Mountain Customs—About the Kansas Robbers—Other News.

LAMAR SUCCESSOR.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The president today appointed Circuit Judge Howell Edmunds Jackson to succeed Justice Lamar on the supreme bench. Judge Jackson is a democratic ex-senator and is at present judge of the United States court at the district embracing Tennessee. Inquiry about the capital shows the appointment, considered from a judicial and non-political view, is a splendid one. The appointment was a great surprise to the Tennessee delegation in the house. The two republican members felt sore over the selection of a democrat and state's right men, but, when asked as to the judge's personal fitness, conceded that his character and abilities were all that could be desired. The selection politically is no more pleasing to some of the democratic representatives, who recall the fact that Judge Jackson who was a leader of the "up school democrats of Tennessee." These men said, however, that the new judge is strong, clean and able.

Stenger's Story.

HERMOSA, S. D. Feb. 6.—Edward Stenger, of Stenger & Humphrey, beef contractors, just came in from the camp on Pass creek with his ears and fingers frozen. He says the bodies of Emanuel Bennet and Rodney Royce will arrive at 9 o'clock tonight and will be buried here. James Bacon and William Kelly, boys 16 years old and guests at the ranch over night, were taken in charge by their father and brother and removed to their home some ten miles southwest of Pine Ridge.

Two Strikes and others were fed the night of the 2d by Rodney Royce, the camp cook. It is supposed the Indians had side arms concealed on their persons, and after partaking of the hospitality of the camp, murdered the whites in cold blood.

Bennet, Bacon and Kelly were shot in their bunks and horribly mutilated. Their faces showed powder marks. Royce was shot in the neck and hand and appears to have crawled under his bunk and died there.

One of the Nebraska boys was shot in the neck near the jugular vein, the ball coming out near the eye. He lived nearly twelve hours, suffering terrible agony.

The report that the men were having a drunken frolic is most emphatically denied by Mr. Stenger. No whiskey was allowed or used in the camp, and the party of whites had only one gun and two cartridges, none of which had been used. The Indians stole four saddles, six-torn horses and killed a span of work horses.

Two Sticks and two of his band are dead, shot by the police, and friendly Sioux. Two Sticks band comprised two families of outlaws, which had been run out of several camps and seemed to belong to no regular tribe, and lived by themselves.

Mr. Stenger says the Indians generally are on friendly terms when he arrived at camp he found that their stock was being taken care of by the Indians, and that they had returned to them the horses captured from the outlaws.

DELIBERATELY PLANNED.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. D. Feb. 6.—It is now definitely settled that only two of the four white men murdered belonging to Humphrey camp. They were Rodney Royce of Wisconsin and Emanuel Bennett of Breckdridge, Mo. The two strangers live eight miles south of this agency, and were looking for three stray horses. One was a son of Clark Bacon, named James Bacon, the other a step-son of Humphrey Bay, named William Kelly, aged 13 and 16 years respectively. They were poor, hard-working and industrious boys. The report that they were drunk is an injustice.

Every particular obtainable now, which is also corroborated by the statement of Policeman Bear-Runain-the-woods points to a premeditated murder. Bear reported to the agent, Captain Brown, today that he talked to the murders after they came out of the "sweet lodge," and in his presence they arranged what they should do to the camp. Each one was to select his man after they had retired, and to make sure that each killed his man. They should empty their revolvers in their victims.

This is borne out from the manner in which remains were found, one was found dead in bed, shot through the head in two places, and the chest. Each of the other unfortunates were powder burnt and had from two to three mortal wounds.

Young-Man Afraid of His Horse and He Dog, son-in-law, of Red Cloud, came to the agency today and asked for authority to arrest the two escaped murderers and bring Two Sticks, who is mortally wounded, to the agency. He Dog is a fighter and stakes his reputation and pronounces that he will arrest and bring every one to the agency who participated in the murder. The agent will not give his consent to this arrangement until he sees that the police are unable to make the arrest.

A MYSTERY NO MORE

Lifeless Body of Charles Cameron Found in an Orchard Saturday.

Was Probable Frozen to Death.

HASTINGS, Neb.—Charles Cameron, the missing merchant, has been found. Just before noon today Mrs. Gray, living on South Lincoln avenue, had occasion to pass near the peach orchard back of the house in which she lived, and within one hundred yards of the house she was horrified at finding the prostrate form of a man lying alongside of the orchard. The body was immediately recognized as that of Cameron, and taken to the rooms in Cameron block, in charge of the coroner. As the body was viewed in the room to which he was taken it was noticed that his ears and whiskers were filled with snow and ice. The legs were somewhat drawn up, which indicates that he had laid out in the cold and storm since his disappearance last Monday night. The body was lying upon its back, with the left hand laid upon the breast, and in general appearance was that of a man fallen into slumber. The body bore no marks of violence and the face showed no signs of pain or distress, but was composed as though in natural sleep.

The jury, after examining the witnesses, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Gray, rendered a verdict to the effect that Charles Cameron came to his death from exposure and freezing between the night of January 30 and the morning of the 31st.

BAD ECZEMA ON BABY

Head one Solid Sore. Itching Awful. Had to Tie His Hands to Cradle. Cured by Cuticura.

Our little boy broke out on his head with a bad form of eczema, when he was four months old. We tried three doctors, but they did not help him. We then used your three CUTICURA REMEDIES, and after using them eleven weeks exactly according to directions, he began to steadily improve, and after the use of them for seven months his head was entirely well. When we began using it his head was a solid sore from the crown to his eyebrows. It was also all over his ears, most of his face, and small places on different parts of his body. There were sixteen weeks that we had to keep his hands tied to the cradle and hold them when he was taken up; and had to keep mittens tied on his hands to keep his fingers out of the sores, as he would scratch if he could in any way get his hands loose. We know your CUTICURA REMEDIES cured him. We feel safe in recommending them to others.

Dr. SYDNEY RINGER, Professor of Medicine at University College, London, Author of the Standard "Handbook of Therapeutics," actually writes as follows: "From the careful analyses of Prof. ATTFELD and others, I am satisfied that

VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA is in no way injurious to health, and that it is decidedly more nutritious than other Cocoas—it is certainly "Pure" and highly digestible.—The quotations in certain advertisements (from Trade rivals) from my book on Therapeutics are quite misleading, and cannot possibly apply to VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA. The false reflection on VAN HOUTEN'S COCOA is thus effectually repelled, and the very authority cited to injure it, is thereby prompted to give it a very handsome testimonial. It
