GONE TO HIS REWARD.

John J. Roberts Died Monday in This City.

INTERRED AT ASHLAND.

The Doings of the Week as Chronicled by the Herald's Pencil Pusher—A Queer Ekolos—in on the M. P.

Death of an Old Citizen.
John J. Roberts, venerable father of Deputy Register of Deeds Joseph M. Roberts, died Monday afternoon at the latter's residence on North Fifth street. The disease was seventy years of age and has been in failing health for some time, although his death was unexpected. He was a sufferer from a complication of diseases. Mr. Roberts was a pioneer in Cass county and enjoyed a large acquaintance. He came here from Illinois more than thirty years ago. He was the father of twelve children, of whom survive him. The funeral services were held yesterday morning and the body was taken to Ashland and buried near his old home.

A Whist Party.
Miss Janet Livingston and her sister, Mrs. Anna Franklin, at their home on North Sixth street, last Thursday evening entertained a number of their friends at whist. Miss Ella Clark captured the lady's prize—a souvenir spoon—and Chas. Vallery the gentleman's—a chas. broom and holder. After enjoying an elegant supper the guests indulged in music and other social pleasures. Those present were the Misses Ella Clark, Edith White, Barbara Clark, Vera Leonard, Minnie Moore, Mamie Shepherd, Kitty Cummins, Maud Vivian, May Patterson, and May Dutton and Messrs Will Clement, Frank Cummins, Emil Wurl, Will Stadelman, Chas. Vallery, Chas. Ritchey, Chas. Sherman, Harry Phelps' Logan Brown, Henry Gering, Stuart Livingston and Arch Coleman.

A Novel Explosion.
A novel explosion took place in an M. P. passenger coach as the south bound express which arrives in the city at 3:10 p. m., was entering the station at Wyoming, six miles north of this city. It would seem that the steam apparatus for heating the coaches had been pushed to its uttermost capacity, owing to the intensity of the cold, and the boiler in the forward coach could not stand the pressure. It burst as the train entered Wyoming blowing out the end of the car and tearing away the side of the car in many places. The concussion of the air within the car as a result of an explosion broke nearly every window glass in the coach; but fortunately no one was hurt, although the car was well filled with people. At this city the injured car was cut out of the train and left on the side track.—Nebraska City Press.

PEOPLE AND AFFAIRS.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Pollock entertained a large number of their friends last Thursday evening.

All the departments of the B. & M. shops are crowded to their full capacity, and it is a sight for one to go through and see the number of men that are employed in the different departments.

Arch Adams one day last week while at work in the B. & M. shops caught his hand between the tool and a pipe he was cutting which resulted in his losing the end of one of his fingers.

Mr. John Davis whom we mentioned last week as going to Maywood, Neb., met with a serious accident at Exeter, Neb., last Thursday. It seems that Mr. Davis who was accompanying his goods on the freight train, in company with two stock men, were standing on the main track of the B. & M. when they were struck by an east bound passenger engine. The two men were severely bruised and battered up, but no bones broken. Mr. Davis did not fare so well, as a broken leg and severe internal injuries were included in his list of mishaps.

P. J. Hansen received last week a handsome fire proof safe that is a beauty and an ornament to his store.

Hattie Pittman, Mary Baier and Ivan Reynolds each enjoyed a birthday last Wednesday and in the evening a small party of friends met with them at the residence of Andrew Pittman to celebrate the occasion.—Register.

The board of trade depot committee visited Omaha last Saturday and had a long talk with General Manager Holdredge about the new B. & M. depot. Mr. Holdredge informed the committee that he would do all in his power to get a depot and that it would be granted more than likely if the city would grant the railroad certain street crossings privileges which should be granted by all means.

The B. & M. are putting in more machinery in the shops at this city and the officers say that they will employ more men than ever before and that they cannot get enough men for the present demand.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herold an eight pound boy last Monday morning.

Lewis Cole, a farmer who resides south west of this city was kicked on the thigh by a horse last Thursday which laid him up for three or four days.

J. A. Connor of Omaha was in the city last Saturday and disposed of his stock in the Citizens' bank to Henry Eikenbary and Miles Morgan.

Prof. Waterhouse of Weeping Water was in the city over Sunday the guest of Supt. Noble.

Grace, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Ramsey died at two o'clock Saturday morning, of acute bronchitis and the funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at the residence on high school hill.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. George Mittelmeir last Saturday night a pair of twin babies. They are both girls.

We hope everyone who owns a horse will read the advertisement of the Elkhart Carriage and Harness Manufacturing Company, of Elkhart, Indiana, appearing in this paper.

Murphy and Ryan the two men who robbed the Goos hotel some time ago were brought in from Lincoln the first of the week and lodged in jail.

The Board of Trade met Tuesday evening and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: R. B. Windham, president, F. Herrmann and Julius Pepperburg vice-presidents, G. F. S. Burton Secretary, Sam Waugh treasurer, and R. W. Hyers chairman Board of Directors, and the directors are as follows: Frank Morgan, George E. Dovey, C. L. Root, Henry Boeck, Jesse L. Root, C. D. Cummins, J. W. Hendee and Henry Gering.

A new building and loan association was organized in Omaha the other day which will be noticed in its scope. It is capitalized at $10,000.00, and our fellow townsman Jesse L. Root is one of its incorporators.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Kuhlman of Nebraska City narrowly escaped a horrible death a short time ago. While Mrs. Kuhlman was out of the room the little one began to play with the stove, and on returning the mother found the child's clothes on fire. She succeeded in taking the child's dress off before the fire had burned her much.

The way to stand up for Nebraska and the city of Plattsmouth is to patronize home industries and buy only Nebraska products and manufactures as near as possible. Paste this in your hat for future reference.

It is Senator Allen now.

At the annual meeting of the Cass county agricultural society last Saturday R. B. Windham was elected president, and Dave Miller secretary, and as no definite conclusion as to removal was arrived at, and the officers will proceed to hold a fair as usual.

Will Straight is still quite sick and is reported as being little if any better than when he was first attacked with the bleeding of the lungs.

Mr. and Mrs. Wellington entertained a number of friends at the home of Station Agent Latham last Tuesday evening at progressive high five and an enjoyable time is reported by all who were present.

Train No. 5, going west on the B. & M. yesterday morning was five hours late caused by a freight wreck over in Iowa.

Messrs. Polk & Root of this city having struck a four foot vein of coal at Rock Bluffs have made applications to the state for the bonny of $4,000 offered to the parties discovering coal in paying quantities in this state.

Hold it to the Light.
The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the preparation of this medicine for coughs and colds no expense is spread to combine only the best and purest ingredients. Hold a bottle of Kemp's Balsam to the light and look through it notice the bright, clear look; then compare with other remedies. Large bottles at all druggists, 50c and $1.

Burned With Lye.
John Keegan, an employee at Cudahy's and residing at Twenty-third and P streets, was badly burned about the face last Saturday evening with lye. Keegan was carrying two buckets of lye, and his feet suddenly slipped from under him and the contents of one of the buckets dashed in his face. He was removed to his home and physicians summoned. At first it was thought that he would lose his eye sight, but as he was able to see out of both eyes Monday, the physicians hope to save them. His face was also badly burned.
