D. Lewis and Ross Little started out to paint the town a deep red last Sunday evening, and of course the first thing to do was to procure a jag. This they succeeded in getting and started forthwith for Jones' out in the southern part of town. Little had overestimated his staying qualities and was side-tracked in an old shanty, thereby missing all the subsequent fun. Lewis, however succeeded in reaching his destination but Jones, sr., dampened his ardor somewhat by meeting him in the yard and demanding what he was after. Lewis told him he wanted to see his daughter. Jones, sr., realizing that when murder is committed it should be done on the spur of the moment, rushed into the house procured a gun and proceeded to let the gas out of Lewis; but Lewis dodged and the old man missed his aim; thereupon Ely Jones, jr., got an axe and chopped Lewis' head open. He was then carried to jail where his head was sewed up. Monday morning Judge Archer gave him some good advice and charged him therefore $10 and costs. Ross Little was also corralled but not being able to pay his fine, Chris Spech went his bond and he was turned loose. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Ely Jones, but as he is just recovering from a bed of sickness he may not be gathered in for a day or two.

Brown & Barrett lead them all in Paints, oils and wallpaper.

DIED—Howard Young son of Mr and Mrs. F. M. Young, sr., just south of the city. The deceased was a bright, promising young man of twenty-four years, and leaves a large circle of mourning friends and relatives. The interment took place at Young's cemetery, and funeral services were held at Rock Creek church.

Watch the Paper.
 We will have some special bargains to offer from week to week.

We have a very meager report of a shooting affair that took place at Eagle Monday. Andrew Hess, a highly respected farmer, living about four miles south of Eagle was shot and probably fatally wounded by Edward Carr of the same place. The only reason for the shooting that we can learn is, that they were both driving along the road south from Eagle, when Hess, wanting to drive faster than they were then going, pulled out of the road and attempted to pass Carr. This threw Carr into a passion and driving ahead reached his home first and when Hess came along, he came out of the house with a shot gun, leveled it at Hess and fired. Mr. Hess was accompanied by his family but no report of the affair state that anyone else was hurt. A telephone message from Lincoln apprised the county attorney here that Hess could not recover and asked that the sheriff be sent at once for Carr. He is now in the county jail. Carr is the son-in-law of J. Q. Adams the banker at Eagle.

DIED—March 23, at 11:45 a. m. Ad-die, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hisky age three years. The funeral took place at 2:30 Monday afternoon from the South Park Baptist church. Many friends sympathize with the bereaved parents.

WANTED—A good girl to do general house work. Mrs. A. B. KNOTT, South Park.

Sunday night one of the "demi monde" of Plattsouth, Ann Luce, was found with a cargo of alcohol aboard. She was dancing on air at the time, but Monday morning she danced to the tune of $10 and costs, she also lost a bottle of alcohol in the shuffle.

Attention Farmers.

Mr. Chas. Campbell of Blair is in the city a guest of Mr. F. M. Young.

Mrs. E. J. Etheridge of Greenwood is in the city visiting Mrs. McEl-wain.

The police of New York City are inclined to think that they have the notorious "Jack the Ripper" in their clutches. A woman was found Sunday night with her side ripped up and a knife sticking in the wound. The knife was traced to one Frank Castellano an Italian barber, whose record has been under a police search-light. It has been discovered that until recently, he has been a fireman aboard one of the transatlantic steamers.

There are circumstances connect-with the case that incline the police to believe Castellano is none other than the mysterious man who kept London in terror for two years. Some go so far as to say the prisoner will be found identical with the man who accompanied "Old Shakespeare" to the East River Hotel on the night of her murder, for whose death "Frenchy," the Greek, is now serving a term in state prison. Captain Doherty, of the Fifth Street squad, is elated over the capture, and says he will make every effort to secure a complete account of Castellano's travels and operations during the last few years.

Miss Nina Tucker has gone to Minden where she will remain for several days. She is in the employ of an eastern wholesale house and is there trimming hats for one of their customers.

MURDOCK.

Mrs. Bishoff has now a class of 22 pupils who are taking lessons in music in and around Murdock.

Mr. F. Wolf is getting the material on the ground to erect a butcher shop and dwelling combined.

Our "sports" have been shooting many holes in the air, but the ducks and geese have not been harmed thereby. They seem to have a bullet proof coat on this year.

We will have a dressmaker here in a week. Mrs. Elder, sister of Mrs. G. W. Meeker, will do sewing of all kinds.

Wolf & Tool are re-arranging their lumber yard in order to get more room for their immense stock coming in now.

Rev. G. Streicher and W. H. Alt-house attended their annual conference last week.

The Lutheran congregation will hold their quarterly communion next Friday.

Mr. A. Zabel had business in Lincoln last Monday.

Our butcher, Mr. Hoffman, Sundayed in South Omaha this week.

Rev. A. Fisher of Stanton, Neb., will succeed Rev. Streicher here as pastor, and the latter will go to Stanton.

The stone-masons and carpenters commenced work on the new meat market of Mr. Wolf's.

A birthday party was given Miss Emma Pickwell last Monday by her schoolmates and young friends, to the number of fifty. A very lively and delightful time was had by all. A good number of presents both useful and ornamental, were bestowed upon her.

SOUTH BEND.

The village of South Bend was unusually excited yesterday evening. Emil Sturzenegger, postmaster and general merchant was capering around town as though it was too small to hold him, why it would not surprise us if you don't see him in Plattsouth pretty soon to buy a carriage for the "boys." They are twins. Boys and mother doing well, "cigars are free."

What is the matter with Geo O'Brien of Omaha that he should forget that we live here and report such an outlandish yarn about the Clark Bridge at this place. He must have been troubled with a very strong impediment in his veracity. Clark's Bridge has not been impassible for even one day during the past year, perhaps he emies are quietude here.

Notice.

Having sold my stock of jewelry and business to M. S. Briggs and C. H. Jequette, I desire to extend to my patrons my thank's for their past favors and assure them that they will receive the best of treatment from the new firm, and cordially invite them to continue their patronage. I am preparing to handle the largest stock of pianos and organs ever brought to Plattsouth, and will make my headquarters with the firm of Briggs & Jaquette where I may be found of them that diligently seek me to settle their accounts.

Respectfully
 GEO. VASS,
 Ex-Jewelry and Music Dealer.

Mr. C. C. Parmele and Jas Pol-lock started Saturday on a brief trip through the mining regions of the Black Hills. Mr. Parmele is extensively interested in the mining interests of that locality.

The Board of Trade.

The board of trade met in the G. A. R. hall Tuesday night. Hon. R. B. Windham, called the meeting to order, which was well attended by the members and an interesting discussion of the canal scheme taken up. The board unanimously agreed to push the matter to a finish and committees were appointed to go ahead and secure additional funds, and to secure an engineer at once to commence work. The following is the list of permanent committees as reported and adopted:

Board of Appeal—J. W. Johnson chairman, Byron Clark, W. J. White, C. E. Wescott, Dr. W. A. Humphrey.
 Live Stock—E. A. Oliver, chairman; W. D. Jones, J. C. Petersen.

Items From the Institute.

The teachers institute opened Tuesday morning under very favorable circumstances. The enrollment is the largest ever known in the state being 102 the first day. The members has now increased to 120. One good feature of the institute is the interest which the teachers take in the work. They seem to realize the importance of the work and the instructors say they receive better attention than ever before.

Last Tuesday evening Prof. Batey of the Cotner university of Lincoln gave to the teachers a very interesting and instructive lecture upon the subject "The need of Mental Culture in Teachers." Friday evening the roll was called at the close of the session and the teachers answered by naming the state in which they were born. The report was as follows: Nebraska 50, Iowa 24, Illinois 9, Missouri 4, Kansas 2, Indiana 4, New York, 5, Pennsylvania, 4, New Hampshire, 1, Michigan 2, Ohio 5, Virginia 1, Wisconsin 2, Montana 4, Massachusetts 1, England 1, and Canada 1.

State Superintendent Goudy visited us this afternoon and gave us a very spirited and well directed talk.
