isked that a day be set for a vote. Mr.

Chapman's Last Act as a Judge. As a fitting climax to Judge Chapman's odorous record as district judge he made some rank orders in the case of the Citizens' bank receivership that has been brought to light by the filing of a petition to set them aside by Attorney D. O. Dwyer, representing Henry Eikenbary and other depositors.

One of the rankest orders was made in the Morrisseycase, where he ordered the bank to take a farm sold to Chapman's brother-in-law, on which the bank held a mortgage, and released a mortgage on another farm which was held as further security for the balfull is as follows:

ance due and beside this he required the receiver to pay to Morrissey nearly $3,000 in cash. Mr. Parmele nor Mr. Morgan cannot be blamed for taking care of their own interests, but the court was in a different situation altogether, and his actions are being condemned very bitterly by those who have the bills to pay. On presentation of D. O. Dwyer's petition yesterday the receiver was promptly ordered to stop payment on these matters until a full hearing could be had except as to attorney
