VOL. IV. NO. 53.

ONLY A FEW OF THEM LEFT.

Plattsmouth Has a Pensioner of the War of 1812.

It may not be generally known, but it is a fact that Plattsmouth has a pensioner of the war of 1812, there being but few of them left from the ravages of time, which is no respecter of the brave or the great, except in memory. Doubtless the only pensioner residing in the state of the last war with England is Mrs. Mary B., widow of Selden P. Harrison.

Mrs. Harrison is a well preserved lady in appearance, being about seventy years of age, and resides with her daughter, Mrs. T. T. Wilkinson. She was thirty years younger than her husband who has been dead forty-one years. Her husband was a resident of old Virginia when war was declared and was one of the first to join a company to do battle for the flag, which he followed to the close of the war, receiving as pay for his services land warrants which were good for 160 acres of public land wherever he might choose to select it.

Mrs. Harrison receives a pension of $12 per month from the government, which shows a worthy spirit of liberality in its treatment of those who have defended the nation's interests in an hour of peril.

We also have two pensioners of the Mexican war in the persons of Henry Watson and H. G. Spencer, both of whom saw service on the cactus plains of Old Mexico.

Funeral of Mrs. Vivian.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vivian, mention of whose death was made in last evening's NEWS, was born in the state of New York sixty years ago. She came west early and was one of the pioneers in this county, having settled in Plattsmouth when the town was but a group of houses on the river bank. Deceased was the mother of Willie and Mamie Gibson, the latter now the wife of W. S. Scott, of Lincoln. Having after the death of her first husband married Mr. Vivian, she raised four children—Maud, Lester, Lloyd and Emmons Vivian, who also survive her. The body of the deceased was brought to this city from Lincoln on the noon train today, and at 10 o'clock tomorrow (Thursday) morning the funeral will take place from the Episcopal church, where the deceased worshipped for nearly a quarter of a century. Rev. H. B. Burgess will officiate.

The friends of the family here deeply sympathize with them in their sudden affliction, Mrs. V. having been dangerously ill but a few hours before her death, which was occasioned by heart trouble.

Bound Over to Court.

Eli Jones secured the services of an attorney this morning, and made a fight for his liberty before Justice Archer. The county attorney, C. S. Polk, had looked up the testimony so carefully that Mr. Jones soon found himself foundering in deep water. Defendant's attorney also made a vigorous fight for a $100 bond, but it was no go. Jones was held to appear at the next term of district court in the sum of $500, and, not being able to give the bond, he was sent back to jail. His crime, it will be remembered, was the assault on Mrs. Lulu Rinze with a wagon standard, which came very near costing the young woman her life.

Escaped From the Asylum.

Mrs. Hart in some manner escaped from the asylum at Lincoln Monday and came here. She remained all night with Mr. Sackett's folks and then came to town to take the morning train to Omaha. Her condition seems in no wise improved. As soon as her husband, Dr. Hart, heard of her wanderings he came here in search of her, but at last accounts no one seemed to know where she had gone, as it was found she did not take the early train for Omaha.

Painful Accident at Louisville.

The rear brakeman on the local Missouri Pacific freight train going south at Louisville this morning got his right hand caught while he was coupling cars and it was pinched off diagonally below the joints of the three last fingers. Dr. Hasemeier dressed the painful wound and the man was taken to Nebraska City. We were unable to learn the name of the unfortunate, but he belonged to the regular crew.

War in the Fire Department.

The resignation of Chief Schmidtman, of the fire department, Charles Grimes as president, Assistant Chief Kidow and foreman of the companies, rather unsettled the fire laddies last night. E. W. Pitt was elected president, F. G. Egenberger, chief, and Harry Barthold assistant chief, and the other officers to be elected at the next meeting.

On the Track of Harness Thieves.

The thieves who stole the Chris Houck harness were found to have crossed the river on the ferry here the next morning, carrying the harness in gunny sacks. A good description of them is in the hands of the officers, who may yet be able to effect their capture.

A syndicate near Fremont has contracted to grow seventy-five acres of sugar beets this year, a safe indication that the Oxwards have not entirely killed the industry, as some would have us believe.

Ladies' Fine Shoes
JUST EXACTLY 1-2 PRICE

The people have so appreciated our enterprise in giving them a high-grade, first quality hand turned Shoe, that we have placed another 365 pairs on the tables, which makes an even thousand pairs from which you have had a chance to select. To those who have not had an opportunity to take advantage of this rare chance, we have decided to leave them on our tables until all are sold, but don't delay—come at once, before the sizes and widths are broken. You can fool part of the people part of the time, but you can't fool all the people all the time by shoving shoddy goods on them and it is being proven by the eye openers which are on our tables that the people realize they are snaps, for some take as many as two and three pairs. There are about 50 pairs of small sizes, from No. 2 to 3 1-2 on "A A" to "E" which are better values for the money.

All of these generally retail for $4, but now they all go for $2. See our line of "Wear Well" school shoes.

STOOD OFF OFFICIALS WITH GUNS

Wave Allen, Residing Near Ashland, Gives the Officials Grief.

The following from the Lincoln News will be of interest to Plattsmouth people, W. T. Allen, the man referred to, being pretty well known hereabouts. He is known as Wave Allen. The News says:

"W. T. Allen, the farmer living near Ashland, who for a long time stood off the sheriff and his deputies and prevented them, by the use of shot guns and revolvers, from forcing on his farm, has at last been compelled to surrender. A couple of detectives from Omaha, H. Plyburn and W. R. Adams did the work. They recovered four shot guns and one pistol.

"Allen fought the foreclosure in the courts for three years. After the sale a writ of possession was issued and put in the hands of Sheriff Buck of Saunders county to serve, but he and Deputy Jones have never been able to get possession. Some insist that they were afraid of Allen's guns, while others say it was sympathy for his large and dependent family. The Omaha detectives found two of Allen's sons in town yesterday afternoon. Taking one with them to the fort they got inside before Allen knew of it and called upon him to surrender, and after parleying awhile he did so. They brought him with the captured guns to town last night, where two doctors attended him. His wife and family followed. Today the officers secured a dwelling house and the family will occupy it. All the household effects and farm implements were moved into the public road and possession given to agents of the new landlord.

"The officers are of the opinion that Allen's mind is affected and think he should be placed in the asylum where he cannot do himself or family harm. Officer Plyburn started this evening for Wahoo with W. T. Allen, his wife and two sons, where they are to appear before Judge Gardner, charged with resisting an officer. On two occasions they resisted Officer Jones of Wahoo."

WERE UNITED IN MARRIAGE.

Pleasant Wedding at the Country Home of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gapin.

F. R. Dean, son of the superintendent of the poor farm, R. F. Dean, was married this afternoon at 2 o'clock to Miss Anna Gapin, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Gapin, at the elegant country home of the bride's parents, three miles southwest of this city. Rev. Buswell, of the United Brethren church, officiating.

A large number of guests were present, and the wedding dinner was an elaborate affair. Tomorrow they will be formally welcomed to the home of the groom's parents, west of town, after which they will to their future residence, five miles southeast of Elmwood.

The groom is a most exemplary young man in every way deserving of the handsome and agreeable life partner he has chosen. THE NEWS takes pleasure in extending to them its heartiest best wishes for happiness and prosperity.

Plattsmouth again has her hopes trifled with by the report that a new B. & M. depot will be erected there this summer, and the Echo trusts that these may not find the waste basket with the former blasted anticipations. A new depot is much needed at Plattsmouth.—Elmwood Echo.
