THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
of any Cass County Paper.

THE passing of Hainer, is the sorrowful manner in which the "Juvenile Boss" is referred to, up in his district since he fell down while trying to "tote" the Manderson boom into the camp of the republican state central committee recently.

THE soldiers' home scandal refuses to down and Holcomb is now making a personal investigation. If he will just dismiss his former appointees and make new ones he will respond to a universal verdict and do both himself and the home great service.

BOSTON is to have a horse show, with prizes amounting to $12,000. Unfortunately, horse shows are only another indication that the horseless age is coming. Their purpose is fashionable display, an exposition of millinery, with a pretense that horses are in it. —Ex.

CUBA is only seventy miles from our shores, but, all the same, the action of congress is called by the English papers a departure from our traditional policy of not interfering in European affairs. If denouncing the atrocities of Weyler is an offense, it leans a long way to virtue's side. —Ex.

MRS. LOTTIE COX of Blue Springs, Neb., received $150 recently from John Wetherburn company, patent solicitors at Washington, for having invented the simplest and most useful article during the month of January. It was a work table, but no description of it has so far been printed. The new woman seems to be getting to the front at a Maad S. gait.

THE Allison boomers have overlooked something in Kansas. If they had pushed Mary Leese as a "favorite son" with a watchword "stand up for Kansas" printed on their banners, they might have taken that state from the McKinley column. It is too late now, and the sunflower commonwealth can be counted as solid for one Ohio statesman.

GENERAL MANDERSON'S appearance in Lincoln yesterday seems to have been the formal introduction of the scrap that is now on in Nebraska, between the followers of McKinley and the Allison-Manderson combine. It may be bitter, and result in some unpleasantness, but the people, on a ratio of at least ten to one, favor McKinley, and the will of the majority must be obeyed.

at the scurvy trick resorted to, to thwart the will of the majority, and Mr. Davis is now hustling to save his scalp. There never was a more surreptitious or cowardly attempt to cheat the people out of their choice than is now being engaged in, by a lot of political hucksters to defeat W. J. McKinley for the presidential nomination. Every man engaged in it should be remembered, and never again trusted in the councils of his party.

THE truth is, the issue between the two parties was made up when the democratic tariff policy went into effect, which was before the Wilson bill was so much as framed. Nothing can divert the popular attention and purpose. The American people are fully resolved that the tariff issue must be met and settled. All else secondary. Of course, the platform will touch on many things, but however much the democrats and a few republicans may attempt to subordinate the great question it will remain paramount. The time has now come when the American people propose to give such emphatic endorsement to the American doctrine of protection that it would be political madness for the democratic party to persist in its animosity to the industrial and business interest of the country. —Chicago Inter-Ocean.

THE president has a large foot, but it is generally conceded that he got it in his mouth very easily last week when he made his address before the Home Missions society. He said there was more crime in new communities, and with a very patronizing air he intimated that the Home Mission society was doing great work in the wild and woolly west. The Montana congressmen got after his excellency in the house a few days later, and showed by the records that the percent of crime was higher right in the city of New York than it was in Montana and that the percent of illiteracy was far greater in New York, while the per capita of wealth was larger in Montana than in the Tammany governed metropolis. In his roast, Tillman turned green with envy, while the New Yorkers winced at the unfavorable comparison which the president had called out. The time spent in duck hunting could evidently have been more profitably employed in getting acquainted with the country and learning of the resources of the larger half, which Cleveland had never seen and seems only to have indistinctly heard of.

THE Journal's political "mares nest" discovered with relation to the delegate to the St. Louis convention from this county, lacked a great deal of containing any correct information. In the first place Byron Clark is not a candidate in any sense of the word, and so far as we have been able to learn, neither is Mr. Windham. The fact that the county is almost unanimous, so far as the republican party is concerned, for McKinley, would pretty thoroughly preclude Mr. Windham's candidacy, as he is one of the very few men who are outspoken for Gen'l Manderson. At the present time H. N. Dovey, who is an ardent McKinley man, seems to have the field practically to himself. He deserves the solid support of those favoring the Ohio statesman, and we believe he will get it.

A RAILROAD scheme to obstruct the free navigation of the Detroit river by the erection of piers for a bridge across that great commercial waterway is before congress and all purchasable influence obtainable has been arrayed on the side of the railroad. Statistics show that the cost of carrying freight on the Michigan Central railway, a competitor of the Detroit river, is 6 and 87-100 mills per ton per mile, while on the river the cost for transportation is only 87-100 of a mill per ton per mile. The whole western country is vitally interested in cheap freight rates to the sea board, and it is to be hoped that the Nebraska delegation will not neglect to put in some good work for the Detroit river.

THE splendid McKinley tidal wave continues to gather force as it rolls. The enthusiasm in Ohio which sends an instructed delegation has been caught up in Kansas, and her four state delegates elected yesterday are pledged to the gallant champion of protection. Senator Culom's candidacy is tipped by a killing frost, his own congressional district instructing its delegates for McKinley, while the two districts in Buffalo and Erie county, New York, give evidence of joining the victorious column. Everything points to Nebraska sending a solid delegation, led by its greatest son, Jno. M. Thurston, for the people's champion, whose nomination seems more certain each day.

WISCONSIN is in a fair way to abate the tramp nuisance in that state by putting in a system of county work houses where all vagrants will be housed and fed and where they will be made to perform manual labor. If every state had such a law it would stop no end of thievery and other misdemeanors and crimes. Nothing so completely upsets a tramp as the thought that he must earn his bread according to the scriptural injunction by the sweat of his brow.

OUR esteemed namesake at Nebraska City classes us among the "jingos." To be ultra American in sentiment has for some time been denominated as "jingoism" by a muggump element that is discreditable to this, the best country on earth. We plead guilty to the charge, and have no apologies to make for harboring a pride in our institutions and a desire to make the power of the United States paramount all over the globe.

REPUBLICAN state conventions were held in Mississippi and Florida Wednesday and in both states McKinley delegates were chosen but no instructions were given. The southern delegates, mostly colored brethren, always like to go to the national convention in a frame of mind open to conviction. —Fremont Tribune.

GEORGE MEREDITH is often ambiguous in his novels, but nobody can fail to understand the following sentence in one of his recent letters: "Since the benignant conclusion of the greatest of civil wars, I have looked upon the American people as the leaders of our civilization." —Ex.

"WHAT'S the matter with Hanna(h)?" has long been a puzzling question. It is now authentically settled by the answer: Nothing. It may be proper to remark that Mark A. Hanna is W. J. McKinley's political manager.

INFORMATION AND OPINION.

The excitement in the Pleasant Dale gold fields shows no signs of abatement. W. A. Buck, who recently returned from California, where he had been studying the development of the gold mines, arrived at Pleasant Dale last night with a $500 gold washing machine and will now take in washing. —Lincoln News.

SAME WAY HERE.
Major McKinley would have felt proud to see his supporters walking up to the desk last evening and contributing $5 each to defray the expenses of the McKinley primary of Friday night. Capt. Billingsley led, and Capt. Paine, Frank Collins, Bonman Davies, Mr. Rogers, John Knight and others, and we might say there are still others who seemed to enjoy the privilege of serving the McKinley cause at any cost. —Lincoln Call.

Judge W. H. Newell, mayor of Plattsmouth and chairman of the republican central committee, was a pleasant caller last Saturday. When we asked the judge what he thought of the scheme to boom Manderson for the presidency, he said, "Well, I am a McKinley man and ninety-nine out of every hundred republicans in the state are McKinley men and nothing can turn them from their convictions." —Weeping Water Republican.

Too many young men are growing up with an ambition to figure in politics, instead of in a cornfield. Of every five who enter politics, three will be complete failures; there are too many politicians, and not enough farmers; there are too many people worrying over the future of the country, and not enough hauling fertilizer; there are too many making stump speeches, and not enough uprooting stumps. Once in a while a man is born with a genius for political leadership; and 10,000 are born with a capacity for political mediocrity.

General Colby and Senator Pope are actively in the field as candidates in opposition to Congressman Hainer. The gentlemen have evidently concluded that Mr. Hainer's favorite son scheme cannot be carried too far, and they will not take the stump against it in either Gage or Saline. General Colby carries everywhere with him the aroma of battle, and we rather opine that the attention of the Hon. Eugene will be too largely devoted to repair work upon his own frail fences to be able to whack up a few for Manderson. —Lincoln News.

A Hastings boy of fifteen writes to the editor of the Republican that he wishes the curfew ordinance would include women; that he has to stay at home while his mother attends club meetings and it makes him very lonesome. He closes by intimating that what is good for the goslings ought to be good for the geese.

The county seat war now going on between Alliance and Box Butte has resulted in a libel suit brought by H. C. Draver, of Alliance, against the Hemingford Herald. Eminent attorneys have been employed on both sides to absorb the cash of litigants. Editor O'Keefe hinted that Draver burnt his flourishing mill for the insurance.

ABOUT WOMEN.

According to a musical journal there are in London 244,000 women and girls who are learning music.

Miss Helen Gould has given $8000 to Vassar college to found a scholarship in memory of her mother.

Women in Holland are employed as watchmen at the railway crossings, and no accident has ever occurred through a woman's carelessness.

Miss Virginia Pope is head window-dresser for a large dry goods establishment in Buffalo, and receives next to the largest salary paid in the establishment.

An enterprising woman in a large city has made a study of entertaining children, and has turned her acquirements in this line to practical account. She assists at children's parties, arranging beforehand an entertainment suitable to the age and tastes of the company.

The familiar song, "I'll Hang My Harp on a Willow Tree," has attached to it a bit of royal romance. It was written by a young nobleman, who became enamored of Queen Victoria a year or so before she ascended the British throne, which event destroyed his hopes of winning her hand. The words first appeared in an English magazine set to music by Wellington Guernsey.

Miss Elizabeth Patterson was married to Jerome Bonaparte, the youngest brother of Napoleon I. She was born in Baltimore, Md., February 6, 1785. Her marriage to Jerome was in 1803, and the name of her son was Jerome Napoleon, who was born in Camberwell, England, July 17, 1870. He left two sons, Jerome Napoleon and Charles Joseph. The marriage of Elizabeth Patterson to Jerome Bonaparte was, by command of Napoleon, dissolved by the Imperial Council of State of France, after Pope Pius VII. had refused to grant a divorce.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

There have been about twenty certificates of scholarship issued by the superintendent and school board to the seniors and others who have taken examinations in the last few weeks.

The school year will close May 29. So far the ground covered is fully up to all years previous and in some departments ahead of the general rule.

The school board has decided to have no spring vacation. Some of the teachers were in hopes of securing leave for the week of the institute at Weeping Water, but are now compelled to do otherwise.

The senior class have recently selected their class pin, which, by the way, is very neat. The same being an owl of the wisest type, perched upon a limb of an oak tree. Upon the perch is neatly engraved the date, 1896.

Fish Will Climb.

J. S. Kirkpatrick, president of the state fish commission, announces that the commission has commenced a campaign to secure the construction of fish ladders in every dam in the state where such a thing does not exist. The supreme court recently handed down a decision upholding the constitutionality of the statute requiring owners of dams to put in ladders so that the fish can pass up stream in the proper season. Acting under this decision the commission has written to county attorneys in all the counties urging them to ask owners to comply with the law, and if the work is not done within a reasonable length of time, to commence prosecutions.

J. W. Pierce, Republic, Ia., says: "I have used One Minute Cough Cure in my family and for myself, with results so entirely satisfactory that I can hardly find words to express myself as to its merit. I will never fail to recommend it to others, on every occasion that presents itself. F. G. Fricke & Co.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

Bring Your Friends to Nebraska.

The Chicago, Burlington & Quincy R. R. publish a sixteen-page monthly illustrated newspaper called the "Corn Belt" which gives in an interesting way information about western farm lands, particularly those in Nebraska. The regular subscription price is twenty-five cents per year, but if you want it sent to any of your friends living east of the Mississippi river; sent ten cents in stamps for each person, giving name and full address and the paper will be sent for one year. The B. & M. R. agent will show you a sample copy of the paper on request. Help your state and induce your friends to immigrate. Address the Corn Belt, 209 Adams street, Chicago, Ill.

All last winter Mr. Geo. A. Mills, of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with rheumatism. At times it was so severe that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he says, "until about six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since. For sale by all druggists.

Don't invite disappointment by experimenting. Depend upon One Minute Cough Cure and you have immediate relief. It cures croup. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. F. G. Fricke & Co.

On account of hard times, and in order to encourage orchard planting, I will furnish to responsible parties on three years time, good first-class apple trees. Plant now; do not wait; two years after trees are paid for they will very probably pay for themselves. Enquire of, or address,

A Good Thing.
J. W. Campbell of Glenwood has an arrangement for sharpening the discs on disc cultivators and harrows that is very simple yet quite ingenious. Every farmer ought to have one. Apply to agents or at J. W. Hendee's hardware store in Plattsmouth. Mr. Pollard down near Nehawka used one of these sharpened disc cultivators last spring on some raw prairie which was thoroughly pulverized without use of plow and was put in corn, raising a splendid crop. Get a sharper and it will quickly pay for itself.

Scrofula

Infests the blood of humanity. It appears in varied forms, but is forced to yield to Hood's Sarsaparilla, which purifies and vitalizes the blood and cures all such diseases. Read this: "In September, 1894, I made a misstep and injured my ankle. Very soon afterwards, two inches across formed and in walking to favor it I sprained my ankle. The sore became worse; I could not put my foot on and I thought I should have to give up at every step. I could not get any relief and had to stop work. I read of a cure of a similar case by Hood's Sarsaparilla and concluded to try it. Before I had taken all of two bottles the sore had healed and the swelling had gone down. My is now well and I have been greatly benefited otherwise. I have increased in weight and am in better health. I cannot say enough in praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. H. BLAKE, So. Berwick, Me. This and other similar cures prove that

A Sore

How They Do In Lincoln.

William Hendricks is the name of a young man who calls Humboldt, Ia., his native heath, and to judge by an occurrence this morning he is as void of understanding as the young man whom Solomon saw as he looked out of his window and through his casement some years ago. When Hendricks came in on the Union Pacific this morning he encountered a tall man of pleasing address who immediately recognized him as a son of a man he was well acquainted with in Iowa. The son took in the bait with the avidity of a lake sturgeon and he readily agreed to accompany his father's friend to his alleged room in the City block at Eleventh and N streets, while he got his baggage, as he was going back to Humboldt himself. The man went up in the block, leaving the young man standing below. He returned presently and stated that there was $10 due on his room which he would have to pay, and asking whether Hendricks would not advance the dough until he could get a draft cashed. Of course, Mr. Hendricks would be tickled to death, and he advanced the $10. The man with room rent due went up in the block, strolled out by the rear stairs, and Mr. Hendricks is wondering why some people are so dishonest.—Lincoln News.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know

Batemans' Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proved to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper.
