CITY BREVITIES.

SATURDAY. Joe Ford an old time Plattsmouthian now residing at Caspar, Wyo., is in town today. H. J. Straight and wife went over to Red Oak this morning on a visit with relatives and friends. The Woodman of the World issues accident insurance policy. For particulars enquire of Oswald Guthmann. Miss Henrietta Hansen came home this morning to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hansen, for a few days. Byron Golding leaves today for St. Louis from which point he will start out on a commercial tour of three months. Mrs. Joseph Broega and children departed today for Edgemont to visit a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Casper Reuther. The Misses Margaret and Rose Roddy, daughter of Hon. Pat Roddy, of Nebraska City, are guests of their cousin, Mrs. C. E. Winthorn. Mrs. Henry Herold returned home last evening from an extended visit with relatives at Cedar Falls, Ia., Chicago and other eastern points. The Metropolitan Comedy company got lost in the shuffle last evening and failed to put in an appearance at White's opera house according to program. Miss Gene Marshall and Miss Lizzie Eiknbary returned from Nebraska City this morning where they had been in attendance at the Epworth league convention for three days. Hoyt Pottinger, after an absence of two years in Cuba where he worked as telegraph operator, is now located in Omaha. He visited relatives overnight in this city and returned to Omaha this morning. Dr. Britz was down from Omaha today looking greatly improved in health. The various ailments of the metropolis seems to have been beneficial, though he was improving rapidly when he left here. George and Ed Mann, who have been camping out at Spring Lake for a week returned last evening. Ed hooked a four pound carp which he brought in, and they caught quite a number of smaller fish which furnished the main diet while in camp. Edwin Davis, J. F. Doud, Thos. Mitchell, W. H. Shafer and Ezra Simpson were sitting together upon Eosck's corner this afternoon chatting when a bystander thought it rather odd and elderly crowd and on adding up their ages the sum of 389 years was the result. Leonhardt Klutinger, the German consul at Bologna, Italy, came in last evening to visit his sister, Mrs. Paul Gering. At the conclusion of his visit Mrs. Gering expects to go to Germany with him for a visit of several months with relatives and friends of early days. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Billance entertained a very pleasant company of friends last evening in honor of their niece, Miss Hattie Billance, of Denver, who departed for home today. Cards, dancing, refreshments and a pleasant social time was enjoyed by all present. T. H. Pollock, who is a member of the Spring Lake outing party, caught a black bass yesterday that was so large it broke the hook and escaped. Bert is of the opinion that it weighed about ten pounds but he has failed to file an affidavit to that effect at this office as required by law. MONDAY. A. Carlson and wife departed today for a week's visit with friends at Avila, Ind. S. A. Davis spent Sunday at York with Grandma Winslow and other relatives. Mrs. J. N. Wise leaves tomorrow for an extended visit with her daughter in Denver. Miss Edna Adams went out to Lincoln this morning to visit friends for a few days. A Mr. Davis of Seward accompanied by his wife and family spent Sunday here with the family of S. A. Davis. Mrs. Nieman was no better today and her condition is very alarming to her many friends. Miss Maud Rennie returned to her stenographic studies in Omaha today. She will finish a course in another month. Five coach loads of soldiers were brought in on the B. & M. for Fort Crook yesterday, which will soon be a busy place. Miss Ada Ball one of the High school teachers at Newton, Ia., is here visiting her sister, Mrs. O. C. Smith and family. Miss Terry gives a musical recital in Omaha this evening in which Miss Ella Clark and Miss Dora Swearingen take a prominent part. Mrs. T. J. Hennessey and son, and Miss Minnie Lagie of Missouri Valley, Ia., are in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Schulze. J. C. Eikenberry of this city has been appointed as one of the marshals at

A Gay Picnic Party.

Miss McClelland, who will soon depart for her new home at Mt. Pleasant, Ia., took her Sunday school class down to Iv. White's fish pond, south of Rock B.uffs, for an outing, and a delightful time is reported. The entire party was taken in W. D. Jones' commodious carryall, which was drawn by a four-horse team driven by Col. Jones in person. Boating, fishing and partaking of a picnic dinner occupied a good share of the time which was voted highly enjoyable. Those present were Miss McClelland and the Misses Louise White, Matilda Valery, Mabel Swearingen, Miss Swearingen, Clara Green, Rose Hyers, Grace Stoutenborough, Ella Eiknbary, Florence White, Mabel Unruh, Jessie Oldham and Messrs Frank A. White, Henry Weidman, Myron Elson, Herman Martin, Henry Snyder, James Newell and Roy Dodge.

AN $800 BLAZE.

R. W. Hyers' Barn Fired By an Incendiary and Burned to the Ground. At midnight Saturday the persistent ringing of the fire bell awakened the entire town and the bright light shining up from the hill on South Seventh street showed a fire raging which called an immense crowd out. It proved to be the large frame barn of R. W. Hyers and before the water could be turned on it was a mass of ruins, burning like a box of matches. Some harness, a sleigh and a lot of tools were destroyed, all amounting to fully $800. The loss is total as there was no insurance.
