Miss Lena Shrader went over to Creston this morning for a visit with Mrs. Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Haugh.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds, croup and whooping cough. It is pleasant, safe and reliable.

The Misses Ella, Marilla and Anna Maxwell, daughters of the ex-chief justice, have been visiting at Capt. Wiles' since Saturday.

The best place to buy flour is where you can get it the cheapest, and that is at S. L. Greeson's Flour and Feed store on South Sixth street.

Mrs. Keefer, who chaperoned a party of jolly young people up at Spring lake returned with the crowd yesterday. They report a first-class time.

The finest of tobacco carefully selected is used in the manufacture of the Cabinet cigar. If you want something extra good for five cents call for a Cabinet.

"Wake up, Jacob, day is breaking!" so said DeWitt's Little Early Risers to the man who had taken them to arouse his sluggish liver.

Pass the good word along the line. Piles can be quickly cured without an operation by simply applying De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve.

The ladies of St. John's church will give a lawn social at the home of Mrs. Chas. McEntee, on Ninth and Poar streets, Wednesday evening, July 29. All are invited.

Persons who have a coughing spell every night, on account of a tickling sensation in the throat, may overcome it at once by a dose of One Minute Cough Cure.

Small in size, but great in results. DeWitt's Little Early Risers act gently but thoroughly, curing indigestion, dyspepsia and constipation.

When we consider that the intestines are about five times as long as the body, we can realize the intense suffering experienced when they become inflamed.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds.

It would be hard to convince a man suffering from bilious colic that his agony is due to a microbe with an unpronounceable name.

The Nebraska City Canning Co. will not put up so many goods this year as they did several years ago. They will put up the corn from 125 acres and the tomatoes from twelve acres.

H. C. McMaken and family and a few invited guests went out to his lakes near Cedar Creek today for an outing. They will eat a picnic dinner in the woods and angle for black bass in the lakes, and no doubt will enjoy the change from the coiric atmosphere which holds full sway down here.

Mrs. Louis Dose entertained over a hundred guests Sunday at a picnic party, her friends having called in honor of her forty-second birthday anniversary.

The city council met in regular session last evening. All members were present, his honor, Mayor Gutsche, presiding.

London's Public Houses.

The public houses explain a great many of the miseries of the miserable locality. There may be some teetotalers, but there are not many, and there are almost as few drinkers who are always moderate in their libations.

Women drink at the bars as unconcernedly as men do, and barmaids serve them. The barroom is the gossip place, and babes and small children are carried to it and kept in it by careful mothers, who gather there for the day's necessary talk.

At What Age Is Man Strongest?

The muscles, in common with all the organs of the body, have their stages of development and decline. Our physical strength increases up to a certain age and then decreases.

The "lifting power" of a youth of 17 years is 280 pounds; in his twentieth year this increases to 320 pounds, and in the thirtieth and thirty-first years it reaches its height, 356 pounds.

After the fortieth year it has decreased eight pounds, and this decline continues at a slightly increasing rate until the fiftieth year is reached, when the figure is 330 pounds.

One of the marine curiosities recently fished from the bottom of the Indian ocean by a dredging vessel in the employ of the Calcutta Society of Natural History was a mammoth sea crab which continually emitted a bright white light similar to that seen in the spasmodic flashes of phosphorescent luminosity kindled by our common fireflies.

When I was a very little boy, writes Sir William Gregory in his autobiography, my grandfather, who was then under secretary for Ireland, took me to the chief secretary's room in Dublin castle and formally introduced me to Lord Melbourne.

Speaking of libraries reminds me of a story I heard of a certain rich man who did build himself a new mansion, and wishing to set up a bookroom there he simply went to a real library, put down the names of the volumes and had them painted on boards that assimilated a library.

"Oh, it doesn't matter," he said. "You see, folks will never read 'em, and they look just as well." The man who told me this story pointed to a couple of meaningless married folks.

"They are just like Mr. — and Mrs. —," he said. "And they were — New York Recorder."

"Maw," said the little boy, "Johnny is such a Mugwump that I don't want to sleep with him any more." "A Mugwump?" "Yes, mamma. Didn't you tell me that a Mugwump was some one who would not take either side? And that's the way with Johnny. He always wants to sleep in the middle of the bed."

Grandma—At the glad news, I suppose? Freddie—No, at papa's language.—Detroit Free Press.

Mr. Bryan's Intentions.

Hon. W. J. Bryan expects to receive the formal notification of his nomination for the presidency not later than August 12th. The notification, as is well known, will occur in Madison square garden, New York, instead of Lincoln, Neb., and promises to be a stupendous spectacular affair.
