CITY AND COUNTY.

SAURDAY. If you don't see what you want, read the advertising columns of THE NEWS and find it.

Quite a crowd of farmers are in town today and trade with the merchants has been quite good.

F. G. Fricke has the nicest line of choice box confectionery for the holiday trade to be found in the city.

Judge Ramsey is home from Nebraska City. He returns Monday and will finish up the Otoe county term next week.

George Freer, after a few days lay-off on account of sickness, resumed his run this morning as express messenger on the B. & M.

Miss Hattie McMan returned home the first of the week from a pleasant visit with friends in the Black Hills and Alliance.

Dr. S. C. Marshall came up from Kansas City today, where he is attending Dental college, for a visit over the holidays with his brother, Dr. C. A. Marshall, and family.

Sheriff Holloway made four sales of real estate on foreclosure today which brought low figures. The continued low price of farm products is having a bad effect on land values.

The Turners Hall opening will occur next Saturday evening when a ball will be given and on Sunday an entertainment will be given so that there will be an opportunity for all to go.

Miss Maud Dearing accompanied her mother to Lincoln this afternoon, where she will sing tonight at the state university oratorical contest. Miss Mabel Swearingen went along and will act as accompanist.

George Little, brother of the young man that was the victim of the unfortunate shooting accident at the jail Thursday night, says he was not under the influence of liquor as he had been with him all evening and that he only went to jail on request of party confined there, who wanted to speak with him. He is not so well today and the ball has not been located.

MONDAY.

Miss Ella Clark was in the metropolis this afternoon.

Mrs. J. N. Summers was visiting in Omaha today.

E. H. Wooley of Lincoln is in the city on business today.

Mrs. Wolcott of Weeping Water came in Saturday evening.

The railroads of New York were blocked with snow yesterday.

Mr. Mittauer, of the Anheuser-Bush Co., Omaha, was in town today.

D. S. Draper had business which called him to Council Bluffs today.

John Cagney, the genial clerk at the Hotel Riley, is visiting in Omaha today.

Carl Kuntzman went to Omaha today to lay in a stock of game for Christmas.

Geo. Dearing came in yesterday for a visit with his brother, Cass county's new senator.

John O'Sullivan and Miss Anna Bell Hunter, of Superior, took out a permit today to wed.

Sam Parker was attending to business in company with H. C. McMaken at Omaha today.

Mrs. Spurlock of York came in this morning for a visit with her son, Judge Spurlock.

Herbert Robino of Chicago came in last evening and expects to depart today for Detroit, Michigan.

W. D. Evans and wife of Malvern were over and spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. O. H. Snyder.

Ben Cowdry, the State Building and Loan examiner, was in town today looking up the Plattsmouth companies.

Ex-United States Marshal Bill Dalley, who is now doing duty as an oil inspector, was in the city today on official business.

Miss Bessie Geiger of Peru came up Saturday for a visit with her cousin, Judge Spurlock, and other friends in this city.

Charles Carl Worth and Miss Elsie Stanley were candidates for matrimony before Judge Spurlock today who were accommodated with a license.

Chairman Briggs will call the free silver county convention on December 30 to select delegates to the state convention, which meets in Lincoln on January 16.

Patrons of the City Steam Laundry are requested to send their work early this week, as there will be no Saturday delivery on account of Christmas coming on Friday.

Lew Genung, the Iowa democratic wheel horse, was in the city today from Hastings on legal business. He was accompanied by his son, C. C., who is visiting Dr. Dearing.

Miss Mary Kaufman, a graduate of the Fremont Normal school, is quite an artist with the pen, having executed several drawings of real merit. Anyone desiring fancy pen work of any kind would do well to call on her at her home in this city, or write to her what you want and she will call.

Sheriff Holloway, whose name has gone abroad as one of the best and most energetic officers in the state, in addition to a big criminal business has made over seventy foreclosure sales during the past year. Many of these sales were foreclosures of tax liens, though a majority were of mortgages.

M. E. Bushnell, one of South Bend precinct's best young farmers, made a pleasant call at THE NEWS office today. Marve used to be a newspaper man and he was a good one too, but he seems to be at home on the farm, as he brought down some samples of corn that he raised which made eighty-five bushels to the acre. We doubt if any farmer in the county can beat it.

The commissioners are in session now buying up all the city property for taxes that is delinquent. If you want to save your home and will see the board and act at once you may be able to arrange the matter. The board in the interest of the whole county is forced to take this course as much property has been allowed to run until it is not worth the tax that stands against it, thus making the burdens of those who do pay much heavier if allowed to run longer.

The Ladies' Home Journal for 1897. An even excellence makes the good things which the Ladies' Home Journal promises unusually interesting and strong. The list is long and sturdy. One series of papers alone would sell the magazine; that is, the three White House articles which express President Harrison to write. No man has ever done what General Harrison will do in these articles; show us "A Day With the President at His Desk" means in one article; in another tell of "The Social Life of the President," and in a third article describe "Upstairs Life in the White House." Each of the articles will be profusely illustrated. Another series equally fascinating is the one called "Great Personal Events," in which some of the greatest enthusiasms which have occurred in America will be revived; those wonderful times when Louis Kossuth rode up Broadway; when Jenny Lind sang in Castle Garden; when Henry Ward Beecher electrified his congregation by selling slaves in his pulpit; when Grant went round the world; when Henry Clay bid farewell to the senate; when John Wesley preached in Georgia, of which so few know. All these memorable events and others will be vividly recalled; told more graphically than ever before, and illustrated with pictures which have occupied twelve artists for over a year. A third series is unique and valuable from the fact that it will give women scores of ideas for their homes. It will reveal what there is "Inside a Hundred American Homes" completely-furnished homes in homes in this country—from Maine to California—where taste has gone farther than money. Two new department writers have also been exclusively engaged by the Journal—Mrs. S. T. Rorer, who will hereafter have entire charge of the domestic department and give a series of cooking lessons, and Dwight L. Moody, the famous evangelist, who is to put the result of his life study of the bible in a department entitled "Mr. Moody's Bible Class." The artist, Charles Dana Gibson, who created the Gibson girl, will present six full-page pictures showing "The People of Dickens,"
