Trying to Oust Stahliut. NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Feb. 17.—There was a large attendance last evening at the council chamber when the city council was convened as a court of inquiry into the charges against Mayor C. W. Stahliut. Clerk Hoge read the defendant's answer to the charges and Attorney Warren, for the plaintiff, moved to strike out all of the answer after the eleventh line. The motion was argued by Messrs. Watson and Warren and sustained by the council and the taking of evidence in the case begun. Clerk Hoge was the first witness and testified to portions of the records of the council. After a time Councilman Johnson suggested that the whole matter be left to an arbitration committee of interested parties. This did not meet with favor and the council adjourned to 8 o'clock this evening.

A GOOD LETTER. From the Clerk of the Circuit Court. FERNANDINA, Fla., Feb. 28, 1896.—[Mr. J. George Sauer, Druggist, City.]—Dear George: Please send me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I would not feel easy if I knew there was none of this valuable Remedy in the house. I have given it a fair test and consider it one of the very best remedies for croup that I have ever found. One dose has always been sufficient, although I use it freely. Any cold my children contract yields very readily to this medicine. I can conscientiously recommend it for croup and colds in children. Yours respectfully, GEO. E. WOLFF.
