THE LARGEST CIRCULATION of any Cass County Paper.

BRYAN is evidently feeling better. He said in an interview yesterday that "the United States would not go out of business under any administration, our progress can not be blocked."

CARTER HARRISON, son of the ex-mayor, bearing the same name, was nominated by the democrats of Chicago for mayor yesterday.

It is said Billy Bryan is going to trample on Mark Hanna's ground again. He has promised to canvass Ohio next year in the interest of John R. McLean for United States senator.

SECRETARY MORTON was tendered a splendid farewell reception in Washington yesterday, and it would be merited recognition of his fidelity to Nebraska and his ability as a public officer.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has appointed Wm. Sinclair steward of the White house, he being the one who enjoyed that position under the last administration.

THE whole northwest will have a surplus of water when spring opens. Floods are looked for on all the big rivers, and the lakes will be filled to overflowing.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY has already shown a degree of statesmanship and political fairness that the Major portion of his party will applaud.

THE Pawnee Republican has been delving in the coconuts and has discovered the milk therein. It says: "The reason Bartley is so slow in turning over the cash, and the lack of rapid motion on the part of legislators to hasten the 'pass-over' is said to be owing to the fact that Gov. Holcomb is very much interested in at least one bank that owes the state considerable money, and that if the cash were demanded instantly the governor's bank, along with the 'black bear pig' and the cow called 'Spec' would go to the wall."

GENERAL THAYER is out gunning for another office, as has been his diurnal custom for half a century. If the public owns the general anything more, we are in favor of his reducing his bill to writing—then we can raise the desired amount, pay him off in cash and get him to subside.

THE plan of a crowd of so-called republicans at Lincoln to interfere with the count of the amendment ballots is a piece of small business that the party itself should not be charged with. If the amendments carried, the public is entitled to know it, and if the two popular judges are elected by only a majority of one vote we hope to see them seated on the supreme bench.

Old fashioned oak tanned leather (that lasts twice as long as the chemical quick tanned leather) is what August Gorder uses, and the result is if a man buys his harness once he will have no other.

THE NEED OF AN EXTRA SESSION. The Inter-Oceanic... following reasons why an extra session of congress is imperative: "During operation of the McKinley tariff 75 per cent of all the wool grown in the United States was spun and woven in American mills and converted into clothing for American people."

INFORMATION AND OPINIONS.

General Thayer, who is down at Washington looking for an office, was taken quite ill with grip yesterday.

The agent for Barnum & Bailey's show has closed a contract with Miss Ella Ewing, the Missouri girl, whereby she is to exhibit with said show for the term of twenty-six weeks, commencing April 1, at $120 per week, with her own and her mother's expenses paid; also her father's expenses for six visits to her at whatever point they may be at the time he may desire to visit her.

It is said that up in Cass county since a certain young man was fined $1 for hugging a girl the young men fear even to embrace an opportunity and the other girls have boycotted the girl who brought the suit for damages against the fellow who hugged her.

Governor Leedy of Kansas has paraded the "reform" forces everywhere by vetoing a bill regulating the rail roads of that state. And this is the same Governor Leedy who was elected on a platform which promised to "blow blood into the ears of corporations." It must be the corporations have been whispering in his ear.

Hard work is the easiest way of killing time. Any man able to eat pie need not worry about his health.

More national problems are settled in shoe shops than in congress. A good many men think it is no sin to drink whisky in a drug store.

Unprecedented Offer To The Sick. To all who desire medical services I will furnish medicines for two months treatment for only $1.50; for three to four months treatment, $2.50. To those who are not able to pay anything for medicines and will bring me a line from their pastor stating the same, I will furnish them medicines free of charge.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and scalds are soothed at once and promptly healed by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles.

Transferring Pictures. Prints or lithographs may be transferred to glass by a very simple process. The glass is cleaned with alcohol and a polisher, then coated with fine dammar varnish, laid on very evenly.

A Hindoo Made of Rubber. A scholar named Bava Luchman Dass is attracting the interested attention of the London medical profession.

Early English Bindings. During the reign of Elizabeth the fashion in binding underwent a considerable change, the greater the size of the early work, with its rather severe and restrained ornament, giving place to a heavy, overdecorated style.

Treacherous Cape Cod. Nobody knows how many vessels have been wrecked on Cape Cod since the black December day when the Mayflower rounded Race point and sought shelter in what is now the harbor of Provincetown.

English as a Cursing Medium. A pleasing testimonial to the resources of the English language was given at Manchester. An inquiry was being held as to a house reputed to be used for gambling.

Hairpin Motor. A fuse burned out in one of the Wetherfield cars, and the car at once came to a standstill.

Marvelous Mechanism of the Human Body. The human body is an epitome in nature of all mechanics, all hydraulics, all architecture, all machinery of every kind.

The Pandects of Justinian. The pandects of Justinian, the most complete body of Roman laws ever collected, were supposed to be lost, but in 1137, when Amalfi was taken and plundered by the Pisans, a private soldier found a copy which he sold to an officer for a few pence.

Skilled Nursing. Skilled nursing is now regarded as of quite as much significance as expert medical attendance. Those whose means will permit it generally employ trained nurses, and between the professional assistant of the physician in the home and hospital treatment for various ailments the old conditions of the sickroom have almost passed away.

"Our Boys" and the Library. The people of Plattsmouth now have an excellent opportunity of aiding the public library, which is in great need of new books.

Whose Was It? A scholar traveling in the east says that he was once in camp with his friend Ramsay, a man of kindred tastes, in a wretched Phrygian village far from the track of travelers.

His Sweet Voice. The best of men are at times liable to make very serious mistakes. A man in a Leicestershire village woke in the night and heard what he supposed to be the harsh grating of a saw on a hard board.

English as a Cursing Medium. A pleasing testimonial to the resources of the English language was given at Manchester. An inquiry was being held as to a house reputed to be used for gambling.

Hairpin Motor. A fuse burned out in one of the Wetherfield cars, and the car at once came to a standstill. After a moment the motor again started, but this time it rattling in his head, inquired, "Can any lady lend me a hairpin?"

Sympathy. Captain (to stowaway) — So, you young rascal, you ran away from home, did you? You ought to be thrashed for leaving home and thrashed again for getting aboard a ship without permission.

Poor Consolation. The Friend — Didn't the parson's visit console you? The Widower — He's a poor hand at consolation.

Replaced. Mistress — Why, Bridget, what on earth are you doing with all the broken dishes on the shelf? Bridget — Sure, mum, yez told me Oi wur to replace every one Oi broke — London Answers.

Coughs Are Warnings of something amiss in the throat or lungs. Don't mind the cough, mind the cause. Use the remedy that cures the cough by curing the cause.

From Cripple Creek. After the big fire in Cripple Creek, I took a very severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled.
