Wm. Neville has concluded to not take out a saloon license and will run a temperance billiard hall and keep tobacco and cigars. This will leave but four saloons, as Hans Goos has also quit the business.

Miss Bell Kimball, of Omaha, is in the city making arrangements for the play to be presented on May 10 by Frank Laa Short. They have been rehearsing for some time, and expect to give Plattsmouth people a rare treat.

Rev. Frank Campbell, of the M. E. church, has gone to Corning, Ia., to spend Sunday, and Rev. John Dale will occupy the M. E. pulpit here on that morning service, and the German Methodist minister will preach in the evening.

J. C. Elkenberry and son, Elmer, returned today from an extended visit to the Black Hills country, where they found a promising outlook for business as soon as the snow melts and summer weather sets in in the mining districts.

Perry Walker returned home the first of the week from his long over-land trip down into the mountains of New Mexico. He is in much better health than when he went away, though very much worn out from the fatigue of his long trip.

MONDAY.

Rev. Fred Warren has resigned as pastor of the M. E. church to accept a larger charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Blose returned to their home at Red Oak Sunday evening, after a pleasant visit with their uncle, Alton Besson, and family.

THE NEWS man enjoyed a drive yesterday behind Dr. Humphrey's handsome Hambletonian horse. The animal is a fine one, with the speed of a racer.

Messrs. Mathew Gering and Charles Gimes departed yesterday for St. Paul, where Mr. Gering will argue the water company case before the U. S. court of appeals.

Washington dispatches claim that ex-Congressman Andrews is likely to be appointed to the position of assistant auditor of the treasury, with a $3,000 salary and a four year term of office. Nebraska certainly has no kick coming, as far as the administration is concerned.

The recent high water did not affect Posey Messersmith's farming operations as he is used to water. Posey claims to have been in the Ark where he got a little mixed up in getting out but he is all right, and no one can guess within a mile of his age from his appearance.

King Wise, who was born and raised here, has got to be a religious enthusiast out on the Pacific coast, and is reported to be able to preach as good a sermon as one would wish to hear. H. C. McMaken met a man on the train a day or two since who had recently seen King, at Santa Cruz, Cal. King is at the head of the Rescue Home, a large charitable institution at that place.

The little child of Mr. and Mrs. Rutz is very near death's door from diphtheria. Dr. Humphrey, the attending physician, hasn't much faith in the new remedy, anti-toxin, but as a last resort he secured some today and is using it. At last accounts the little girl had shown no signs of improvement. Other cases of the disease are said to exist in the city, and the high school has been closed for the balance of the week to prevent a spread of the malady in that manner.

Volunteer Meetings.

The Volunteer hall was crowded last night and listened very attentively while Captain Chase told of the ups and downs of life, using part of his past life to show that whatsoever a man sowed, that should he reap. Captain Chase will open up Glenwood Tuesday night as an outpost for Plattsmouth. Some new recruits are expected soon to help in this work. Don't forget Red Eagle and wife assisted by Staff Captain Rogers this week, Wednesday and Thursday.

 Mr. James Rowland, of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. A Merry Life.
 Oh, the farmer's life is a happy one. No master's slave is he! Each day is but a round of fun, Filled with his honest glee! He always is upon "the go"; He trots a merry pace. And, therefore, every week or so He mortgages his place.

Naming a Burmese Baby.
 A Burmese baby when a fortnight old is named. On the auspicious day, which the astrologer has selected, there is a feast to which relatives and friends have been invited. The baby's head is washed for the first time, and his name is chosen. An English lady residing in Burma describes the process of selecting the name:

The limits of the choice are determined by the day of the week upon which he was born. Burmese custom divides the letters of the alphabet among the days of the week, and a child born on Monday must receive a name initialized by one of the letters belonging to that day.

Ka, kha, ga, pha, nga, Taninla Sa, lisa, za, zha, nya, Angina, hsa, dha, tha, Sa, Saung.

is the beginning of a jingle which every Burmese child learns, as you and I learned, "Thirty days hath September, April, June and November."

A child born on Taninla (Monday) must have a name beginning with "k," "g" or "n," and when he is old enough to go to the school the nature of the offering he carries, or rather its shape, is determined by the day of his birth.

Each day of the week is under the protection or subject to the fury of some animal. The tiger rules Monday, and a Burman born on Monday will offer to Gautama a candle shaped like a tiger and fashioned of scarlet or of yellow wax. Tuesday belongs to the king of beasts, Wednesday is the tusked elephant's, Thursday is sacred to the rat and Friday to the guinea pig. The dragon dominates Saturday, and Sunday is dedicated to another fabulous creature, half bird, half beast.—Youth's Companion.

Wanted a Meal.
 "Several days ago," says the Ohio State Journal, "Congressman Watson sent several large sacks of flour and garden seeds home for distribution among his constituents. The papers announced this fact, and for three days past there has been a constant stream of persons coming to the congressman's law office in Columbus. On Saturday a man came up and asked for beans. He was given two packages. He demurred to this and reached over into the sack and began to fill his pockets. When called down by the attendant, the lover of beans said: 'I haven't got enough for a mess yet. It takes more than a quart of beans to make a mess for my family.'"

From the Postoffice.
 The Visitor—My man, what are you in the penitentiary?
 The Gentleman in Stripes—Collectin' stamps.
 The Visitor—Collectin' stamps? Why, what is wrong in that?
 The Gentleman in Stripes—Nothing; but dey said I ought to have took the canceled ones only.—Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

Wine bottles are best cleaned with charcoal, broken in small pieces, and a little powdered charcoal left in bottles for a day or two will effectually remove any unpleasant odor.
