A couple of farmers from the vicinity of Rock Bluffs led Sheriff Holloway a nice little chase yesterday afternoon out to the Jean school house south of town. They accumulated a pretty good jag while in town and upon departing for home gave vent to their feelings by letting out a few howls and singing a few selections on Main street. Charged With Highway Robbery. James Price, who resides down below the bridge on the land known as "Tobacco Island," gave a watermelon picnic yesterday to which all of his friends were invited. However, there were several in attendance whom Mr. Price did not claim as his friends. George Bailey and J. C. McIntire visited the Island, having gone down in a boat. The latter had been drinking considerable and soon raised a disturbance and was ejected from the scene of the picnic. Soon after his companion showed up and related how he had been robbed of a pocket book containing a $5 bill and some valuable papers. He gave a description of the man whom he charged with perpetrating the deed. McIntire proved to be the man. The pocket book and papers were found in the boat, but the $5 bill was missing. McIntire came into the city with some men last evening who related the circumstances to Sheriff Holloway, and, as a consequence, he was arrested and placed in jail. He will have a hearing tomorrow. It is claimed that McIntire served a term in the penitentiary for assault with intent to kill. A Grand Opportunity. Mr. James Royland, of this village, states that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good.
