

WAS A SPLENDID CONVENTION.

The Republicans in Council at Louisville.

They Rattly With Zeal the Ticket Nominated by the People Months Ago, and Start the Campaign in Harmony and Union—The Most Universally Popular Ticket Ever Named in the County.

The convention of republican delegates from every ward and precinct in the county met at Louisville yesterday at 1:30, and in two hours time accomplished the nomination of a ticket which any party might be proud of. Jesse L. Root, of this city, was unanimously chosen as chairman of the convention, and to his clear-headed, decisive manner much credit is due for the smooth sailing and orderly work of the convention.

Prof. Morrison and A. U. Mayfield were chosen as secretaries. The convention was called to order first by Dr. Hall, chairman of the county central committee, when the call was read by Secretary D. K. Barr. Mr. Barr had expedited business materially by gathering up the credentials and making a list which, when read, was adopted without appointing a committee on credentials.

Nominations being in order, Chas. Graves of Liberty precinct, in a neat speech, placed the name of A. R. Eikenberry before the convention for treasurer. It was seconded by Ben Horning of the precinct, Ericson of Greenwood precinct and others, and on motion of R. B. Windham, Mr. Eikenberry was nominated by acclamation. Harvey Holloway, for sheriff, was placed in nomination in a strong speech by Windham, seconded, on behalf of Eight Mile Grove, by Tom Williams, and made by acclamation on motion of Teagarden of Weeping Water.

James Robertson was placed in nomination by H. S. Evans of Louisville, seconded by Toland of Greenwood, D. K. Barr of Plattsmouth and made by acclamation on motion of C. S. Polk. George Hay for recorder was placed in nomination by H. R. Neitzel of Elmwood precinct, seconded by Greenwood precinct and by F. H. Steinkor of Plattsmouth and others, and made by acclamation on motion of C. S. Polk.

For county judge George Sparlock was placed in nomination by Charles Noyes in a neat speech which was seconded by C. S. Polk and made by acclamation on motion of E. M. Pollard.

The only contest of the day really requiring a ballot was over the office of county superintendent, A. H. Bushnell, one of the most successful teachers in the county, was a candidate against Prof. Farley's renomination. Mr. Bushnell was named in a short speech by T. T. Young of South Bend, and Prof. Farley by Teagarden of Weeping Water, seconded by several precincts.

A ballot was taken which resulted in 1614 for Farley to 381 votes for Bushnell. The vote was not a fair gauge of Mr. Bushnell's popularity, however, as Mr. Farley's nomination was conceded from the start.

E. E. Hilton was named in a good speech by Frank H. Wilson for surveyor and on motion of Pollard he was nominated by acclamation. Henry Boeck was placed in nomination for coroner by S. S. English of Tipton in a humorous speech and the usual honor of a nomination by acclamation was given. Henry brought down the house in his speech of acknowledgement. All the candidates were called for and they responded in graceful speeches.

J. L. Root had been agreed upon by a majority of the delegates as chairman of the county central committee, but when he found one of the candidates was not friendly to the plan he peremptorily refused to allow his name used or act if made unanimous, and George Sheldon, a sterling active young republican of Nebraska was almost unanimously agreed upon and was elected.

Plattsmouth city, out of compliment to Dr. Hall, gave him most of her votes, purely as a compliment to him, Mr. Sheldon being satisfactory to every delegate present except Mr. Sheldon himself, who did not crave the burdensome position. Gil Beardsley of Stove Creek was elected secretary, and on motion of Frank H. Wilson W. H. Newell was recommended for state central committee.

The commissioner's district was organized by selecting Wash Smith for chairman and F. H. Wilson for secretary. An informal ballot was taken which showed Samuel Richardson a little in the lead with F. A. Murphy next and E. A. Oliver following with the solid support of the Second ward. It was understood that neither Murphy nor Oliver cared specially for the nomination, and on the next ballot Richardson received a majority and was duly declared the nominee for commissioner.

Delegates to state convention were selected as printed in yesterday's paper, and central committee selected after which the convention adjourned.

It was by all odds one of the best natured, most harmonious conventions ever held in the county. Victory seemed to be in the air, and everyone was impressed with the splendid personnel of the ticket which is now formally before the people for endorsement at the polls in November, and no one well posted on the temper of the county doubts the overwhelming victory which will be recorded in favor of such splendid officers as have been named without a single exception. The convention closed with three rousing cheers for the ticket, McKinley and prosperity.

The "Porto Rico" is our best 10-cent cigar. Remember—Ohio Wurl, Manufacturer. A Pointer for Our Farmers Some dozen or more of the leading fruit growers in this portion of the county have adopted a new plan, so far as this section is concerned, for disposing of their fruit. They will have a diagram of their orchard made and placed on exhibition with an estimate of the number of bushels of apples, and then on some date to be agreed upon the entire crop will be disposed of at auction. The date will be thoroughly advertised so that all fruit growers in this section of the county will be here, and then they will be driven to an orchard, and after inspection the fruit will be sold to the highest and best bidder. This seems to be an excellent plan for the farmer, as it relieves him of all responsibility and trouble, he not having the care of picking and sorting and running all over town to sell his crop. In Iowa the small fruit crop has frequently been disposed of in this manner. The first sale will take place early in September.—Nebaska City News.

McIntire, the man who stole a pocket-book down near the ferry landing from Mr. Bailey, was arraigned to day and entered a plea of not guilty. He did not give himself up, as was stated in the Journal last evening, but was arrested by Sheriff Holloway, who was in search of him and found him in a saloon. The sheriff did not delay a moment after he was notified of the crime. McIntire will have a hearing Monday.

Miss Helena Radford has been selected by the board to take charge of the room vacated by Miss Mathews. She is a prepossessing lady in appearance and is highly recommended. Being a graduate of the state university, her qualifications are above question. Miss Gene Marshall has hired to take charge of the Mercertown school, a selection that we believe was a wise one. The schools will open September 20 under auspices more favorable than ever with abundant prospects of a most successful year's work.

A Real Bombardment. The cannonading lead this afternoon was for the purpose of preparing the citizens for the heavy bombardment that will take place at Garfield park tomorrow night when the beautiful and realistic war drama, "A Prisoner of War" will be given by home talent for the P. E. O. society.

Certainly you don't want to suffer with dyspepsia, constipation, sick headache, sallow skin and loss of appetite. You have never tried De Witt's Little Early Risers for these complaints, or you would have been cured. They are small pills but great regulators. F. G. Fricke & Co. $3.00 Per Week. I will pay $3 per week for a good girl to do general housework.
