Quite a crowd of people went to Omaha this morning to spend their money and a larger one will go on Monday. Since Plattsmouth merchants have awakened to their own interests by carrying large assortments and advertising, trade with Omaha has largely fallen off.

H. R. Gering returned today from a trip of 850 miles over the state, and he is jubilant about the immense crops he saw everywhere. At Willsonville, near Beaver City, he says 5,000 cattle are being fed, and that one farmer cleared $2,500 on 141 head of cattle in six months, and had the cash to show for it.

D. Lynn, the Union hardware merchant, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Jessie, returned this morning from Fairmont, where he had been building cribs on his farm to take care of a big corn crop. Mr. Lynn says fall wheat is looking nice out that way notwithstanding the dry weather, and that the corn crops immense.

A Pleasant Entertainment.
It seems that the program gotten up by the Knights and Ladies of Security to be rendered at Waterman hall on Tuesday of next week, is to be something out of the ordinary. From information gleaned by THE NEWS, a greater variety and more of Plattsmouth's talent will render selections than have ever appeared on one program in the city before. Miss Mamie Sullivan, Miss Edith Patterson and Miss Swearingen will sing solos, which alone is a guarantee of a good entertainment. Mrs. J. G. Richey will recite an original poem. Mr. Eigenbroad will render one of his finest selections on the cornet. Miss Lillian Kauble will delight the audience with a violin solo. A male quartette composed of B. A. McElwain, Hilt Wescott, A. Tolliff, and R. B. Windham will render a selection.

Miss Lillian Kauble and Miss Hajeck will play a violin duet. Miss Waybright, who always delights an audience, will give a recitation. The Mandolin club, whose playing cannot be excelled, will entertain the audience with one or two pieces, and there are other features of the program which we have been unable to get, but which will be printed Monday. Miss Kossor will be the accompanist and R. B. Windham director of the program. The solo to be sung by Miss Swearingen, both words and music, is a product of one of Plattsmouth's talented ladies, Mrs. G. F. S. Burton.

Pleasantly Surprised.
The ladies of the German Presbyterian Frauenverein called in a body on Mrs. George Hildt at her home in the Second ward this afternoon and helped her enjoy her birthday anniversary in a very pleasant manner. Nice refreshments which the ladies brought with them were served, and as a token of their friendship, Mrs. Hildt was presented with some nice chinaware. The afternoon was delightfully spent in conversation, and in the hospitality of the hostess, Mrs. Hildt.

The Ladies are Grateful.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church wish to express their sincere thanks and appreciation for all the assistance they have received in getting out this issue of THE NEWS, to the management of the paper for the use of their office; to the printers for their careful faithful work that has made the paper possible and added so much to its appearance, and to all who have contributed articles for the woman's issue.

Hand-Made Cigars.
Otto Wurl, manufacturer of fine cigars and dealer in tobacco and smokers' supplies.
Consumers of tobacco invariably become attached to some kind of a cigar, and to continue in its use it is necessary that the goods are uniform. This has been a decidedly hard year to get good, uniform tobacco, even more so than ordinary years. It is a well-known fact that the elements have an important part to play in the uniformity of the weed. Those who deal in imported tobacco have experienced not only the gradual advance in prices, but the absolute scarcity of Havana and Sumatra.
Mr. Wurl is one of those far-sighted men and he took the precaution to buy heavily, thus insuring uniformity in his cigars. He employs only the best of workmen and his "Gut Heil" and "Wurl Bros" are two brands of the best 5-cent cigars on the market. "Porto Rico" is a 10-cent cigar that has a fine reputation.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price, 50 cents and $1 per bottle at F. G. Fricke's drug store. 5

What do the Children Drink?
Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about 1/4 as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c

"AUF WIEDERSEHN."

This poem was written by Mrs. D. C. McKillop of Seaward and read at the close of the program of the Federation of Woman's clubs, that met at Beatrice this week.
My friends, there's fallen to my lot,
Whether deservedly or not,
The last words of this federation,
For where a thing's so bright and clever
I'd like to have it last forever.
But in our homes, warm hearts are beating
And childish voices oft repeating,
This glad refrain since morning light:
Mamma's coming home tonight,
And other hearts, perhaps, will glow
With pleasure, though no one will know,
Because it would not sound just right,
But to himself, with real delight,
He whispers what he does not say:
I'm glad she's coming home today,
And while it is delightful
With friendships, newly formed, but dear,
Our heart-strings pull us homeward so:
Though loath to leave, we're glad to go,
But this convention, so immense—
This Klondyke of intelligence,
Deserves congratulations,
Because its officers throughout
Are chosen well, and will, no doubt,
Fulfill all expectations;
Also because its lines are cast
In pleasant places these days past.
In Beatrice:
Are fraught with memories bright and clear:
They'll linger with us year by year,
And never cease.
We've heard what other states can do—
Talked household Economics, too,
And mixed clubs to relieve it,
I come think it would increase our joys
To have the presence of our boys,
While others don't believe it;
The truth is, we have come in touch
With other minds, and earnestness—
We scarcely can contain it,
But when we reach our homes again—
And meet our clubs once more, why then
Just think how we'll explain it.
This lovely city on the Blue,
Our royal entertainers, too,
The pleasures they have kindly given
Will make life's pathway up to heaven
An Eden's bank.
We thank our guests, who were invited
From our borders—we're delighted
To have them here,
Long we'll remember one another—
We've had a helpful time together,
And bonnie cheer,
Like driftwood on the billowy main,
I'll meet and touch, then part again,
O'er life's restless sea we drift away—
Perchance we'll touch again some day.
May the happiness that each would know,
Attend us everywhere we go.
Good-bye are words too sad to say,
And so we'll just say adieu.

Fond of Their Work.
The ladies in charge of the Woman's edition of THE EVENING NEWS, which was printed yesterday can well afford to feel proud of their work as no other paper ever printed in this county ever contained as much original matter or was of as much general interest, covering as it did, the entire field.
The paper was a worthy souvenir edition, containing much matter in relation to the early history of the churches and schools which had never been printed and which will now be preserved. Copies of the paper may be obtained at Lehnhoff Bros.

Greeted by a Large Audience.
The attraction at White's opera house last evening, "A Tramp's Dream," was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. The many funny situations of the tramp character were very amusing and kept the audience in good humor during the entire performance. It may be said that the play was good in every detail and greatly enjoyed by the large number of theatre goers.

Cash For Warrants.
While out in the state recently H. R. Gering arranged with some Nebraska capitalists to take up teacher's warrants at par so that hereafter the teachers will not have to discount their warrants in order to get their money. This ought to make Henry solid with the school ma'ams.

Miss Sadie Raymond.
This charming little lady has created the greatest furor among theatre-goers since Lotia was in her prime, and is today acknowledged to be the most clever subrette on the American stage. Full of vivacity, pretty and winsome, with a knowledge of dramatic art seldom seen in a subrette. She has a highly cultivated voice for singing and is a most artistic dancer. In her new play, "Daisy, the Missouri Girl," she has ample opportunities to display her talents and fully captivates her audience with her winning ways. Unlike a great many subrettes she never resorts to vulgarity, all her work being neat, refined, near, refined and artistic. At White's opera house Thursday evening, October 14.
