THE NEWS-HERALD, Established Nov. 5, 1891.
THE HERALD, Established April 19, 1864. Consolidated Jan. 1, 1895.

PLATTSMOUTH, NEB., NOVEMBER 6, 1897.

VOL. V. NO. 117.

THE REPUBLICANS ARE VICTORIOUS

Only Lose One Man on the Entire County Ticket.

By Resorting to Disreputable Methods the Fusionists Succeeded in Electing Wheeler for Sheriff by a Very Small Majority—Falter Re-Elected as Commissioner in the First District.

The unofficial returns of yesterday's election are about all in, and indicate that with two exceptions the entire republican ticket has been elected. The bitter fight made on Sheriff Holloway, together with the large sums of money used, secured his defeat by a small majority. Samuel Richardson, the candidate for commissioner, suffered defeat, principally owing to the fact that he had not lived in the city long enough to become thoroughly acquainted, although a resident of the county for many years.

With these exceptions the rest of county ticket has been elected by good majorities. The vote of the county, as far as has been reported, shows that Holloway made gains in every precinct where an open and above-board fight was made, but ran behind where money was freely used.

In Plattsmouth precinct, where Wheeler's majority was 115 two years ago, this year it was only 88, while in this city, which Mat Gering claimed would go 100 for Wheeler, Holloway lost by only twenty-five.

Following is the total vote of the county as far as returned to the clerk:

age and encouragement of the public. They are the benefactors of our children, and often their task seems but a thankless one.

I cannot believe that this class of conscientious workers in our schools, realizing the inroads that these irregularities make upon the solid work of the class room CAN favor their continuance; but if they, or our honorable school board have reasons for still doing so, it is but due to other interested parties that they give their reasons for so doing.

I am too skeptical to believe it possible that any student can do justice to the work in hand and still have time for so much outside the course. But if that should be the case, would it not avert some of the opposition to the policy that our school board have of employing graduates as teachers, if some lessons in the latest and most approved methods of teaching were introduced, especially for those who expect to pursue this vocation.

Some hints like the following might be so impressed upon their minds that great benefit would accrue to the children who happily came under their instruction the following year: "Much easy reading tends to ease, accuracy and fluency. The attempt to read what is difficult tends to halting and stumbling. The eagerness to read in an 'advanced reader' often results in fixing these faults, when an abundance of easy reading would give the necessary skill."

To complete our grievances—why should our graduates present themselves like "brides adorned for their husbands" at graduation?

May the fates decree an auspicious time for that, when each in turn may appropriately outshine all others in a galaxy of art and beauty; but for this occasion greater simplicity in dress would be in far better taste in the judgment of, at least, some of the well-wishing friends of the graduates, besides, with perfectly developed characters the heart-culture keeps pace with intellectual growth, and certainly well-to-do students would exhibit a commendable spirit of consideration towards the graduates from our worthy poor families by appearing in costumes within the means of all.

Suppose, dear girls, as you prepare to make your farewell bow from the topmost round of our "ladder of learning" you have less solicitude for the richness of the outward apparel and give us some gems of thought, from the stored treasures of your minds; I pledge you my word it will be more acceptable than a display of finery, and be more in keeping with the progress of an institution, whose aim is the highest standard of education, and whose path is free for a steady, even march toward the goal, or at least, thusly it is thought by one interested observer.

INFORMATION AND OPINION.

The president may be pardoned for referring to the return of prosperity in penning his Thanksgiving proclamation. The president was widely heeded and joyfully chosen as his advance agent and no one has better right to exult in its arrival and be thankful for the result.

It now appears that Mark Hanna has not been turned down in Ohio, after all. There is every probability that he will succeed himself as United States senator from that state.

The newspaper men of Nebraska are obtaining recognition. Ross Hammond has been appointed postmaster at Fremont, and Edgar Howard has been re-elected county judge of Sarpy county.

Attorney J. E. Douglas was last week appointed by Judge Ramsey receiver for the property adjoining town on the east which belonged to the Home of the Friendless of the state. The property consists of 90 acres of land on which is located the Reed quarries. This is the land on which the managers of the home talk of locating the institution, Weeping Water Republican.

The government steamer, Hugo, arrived in the city yesterday from Leavenworth with the commissary boat and the work of building a large dyke on the other side of the river will be commenced at once.—Nebraska City Press.

William Harris of Havelock had two packages in his pockets. One was common soda which he was in the habit of taking for heartburn, and the other was sugar of lead, which he was using for poison ivy. By mistake he took the sugar of lead internally for heartburn, but prompt action by the doctors saved his life.

Take Off the Horns.

The undersigned is now ready with a good portable chute and tools, to remove the weapons of horned cattle at 10 cents per head for a herd of cattle, 25 cents for a single animal. It never gets cold to dehorn cattle. Any time after April-time, until the first week in April is the right time. After that it is too late. If those who wish to have such work done will address me at Rock Pluffs, Neb., they will be promptly answered.
