THE LARGEST CIRCULATION Of any Cass County Paper.

OH GUTHMAN? Oh my! THE country is not lost. We saved Oswald. THE slump from Holloway to Wheeler in Nehawka precinct alone was sufficient to account for Mr. Wheeler's majority.

A THOUSAND thanks to the honest democrats who held official honesty and capability above party, and assisted in the election of the republican ticket.

Who is Jake Eikenberry?—Plattsmouth Journal. The editors of that paper are now fully informed respecting Mr. Eikenberry's identity.

WE WONDER what the popocratic candidates think now, since the election is over, and the workings of the democratic machine are opened up for inspection.

IT WAS a great victory to elect almost the entire republican ticket against the combined opposition of all the political parties and sore-head republicans, and shows conclusively where old Cass stands.

J. C. COVALT defeated M. M. Beal for assessor in the Fifth ward, H. Ofe had one majority over Wurtenberger in the Fourth, C. S. Twiss was elected in the Third, Ruffner had 23 majority over Weber in the Second and Guthmann 36 over Smith in the First ward.

HARVEY HOLLOWAY and his friends scored a big victory in this city. In the face of all that malevolence and hate could do, he cut down a fusion majority of nearly 100 to 25, and the democratic ward, where he and Mat Gering reside, gave Mr. Holloway a majority of 30. If the fusionists had made the same sort of campaign out in the county that was made here Holloway's majority would have been several hundred.

In looking over the wreck of the campaign, we find that the populists were done to a turn, just as we expected. They were used to elect a democratic sheriff, and in return they got the marble heart. "Fusion," said a prominent populist from out in the county to THE NEWS today, "his dead so far as Cass county is concerned. We will either vote our own ticket or disband our organization. We have been fleeced, and it won't happen again."

THE Journal, which has abused Holloway scandalously for weeks, now discovers that he was a good sheriff. It also discovers that the efficient officers in the court house whom it assured the public were under the complete domination of the editor of this paper, were all elected again except the sheriff, who was defeated by a deal at Nehawka. Neither the sheriff nor any other officer, were ever approached or had a favor asked of them by us, and like the other political clap-trap in the Journal, every such statement was without a scintilla of truth to back it.

TUESDAY'S ELECTION. The election in Cass county, Tuesday was one of the most hotly contested local elections ever held here, and the result in the whole must be gratifying to those who favored clean politics and recognition of honest officials. The most venal unscrupulous methods to encompass the defeat of the republican ticket were resorted to; no lie was too foul, no deceit too shameless for the coterie of democratic manipulators, headed by Sam Chapman, Mat Gering, R. W. Hyers and John Davies to resort to. Their chief ambition was to defeat Spurlock for county judge, because a more piteable man was wanted for that position and because the sterling integrity of Judge Spurlock was distasteful to them. Harvey Holloway's defeat was desired for similar reasons by the unscrupulous gang of self hunters, and its accomplishment reflects no discredit on the best sheriff Cass county ever had, whose every official act was marked by a high manly sense of honor and fidelity.

THE democratic managers, as the vote shows, sacrificed their entire ticket in an effort to elect Mr. Wheeler, and if the game is worth the price they are welcome to it. The republicans of Cass county having lost but one of the five principal candidates on their ticket, presents a solid front for future battles and the elements of disorganization will be overthrown.

"HONESTY will prevail, and lies must fall, as we can prove by the records."—Oswald Guthman.

INFORMATION AND OPINIONS.

Printing office language is peculiar, says an exchange. The editor said to the foreman: "Billy, put George Washington on the galley, and finish the murder you commenced yesterday. Set the ruins of Hercules and distribute small pox. Lock up Jeff Davis; slide Ben Butler into the hell box and leave the pie alone until after dinner. Put the ladies' form to press and tell the devil to go to work on Deacon Fogg's article on eternal punishment."

J. J. Mullen and F. E. Kennedy, of Sheridan, went to Plattsmouth Wednesday night to attend the funeral of James Ritchie.—McCook Democrat.

Little Walter Theil, son of Mrs. Theil, a sister of Mrs. C. S. Sherman, died Monday morning at 3 o'clock. He had been sick several weeks and nothing serious was expected at first. The funeral services were held at the house Tuesday afternoon and the remains were taken to Iowa to find a last resting place. Walter was a bright and promising boy and to have one such taken away is truly a great bereavement.—Cretan Democrat.

The Oxwards have made a proposition to erect a sugar factory at Hueneme, Cal., and the people of that place are rustling to comply with the conditions.

The Burlington's gross earnings for the month of October is the largest in the history of the road, being something over four millions, or an increase of six-hundred thousand dollars over the same month last year.

Passengers from the north end west, who have been interviewed, report the storm very severe out about Valentine the snow being piled up in sloughs and draws to the depth of six or eight feet. Some stock being trailed east is reported to have stamped and the weaker ones perished, although the loss is said to be comparatively light.

Old Woman Attacked by a Deer. A pet deer belonging to a citizen who lives in the outskirts of York, got loose recently and viciously attacked Mrs. M. Greer. She attempted to coax the deer and the animal made a lunge at her. She clung to the antlers and was thus saved from being gored, but sustained severe injuries from the deer's hoofs. Mrs. Greer is quite aged and for that reason the injuries may prove more serious than they otherwise would.

TRAMP MAKES A GOOD HAUL.

Breaks into a Farm House and Steals $300 in Cash. EAGLE, Neb., Nov. 2.—[Special to THE NEWS]—Yesterday afternoon a tramp entered the house of A. Herman, living four miles west of town, while the family were all out in an adjoining field digging potatoes. A window was pried open on the opposite side from the field in which the family were at work and thus he was unobserved. After getting away with a good sized meal, he made a detour of the premises, succeeding in locating $300 which Mr. Herman had saved to pay his rent for this season. Neighbors noticed a medium-sized man, about thirty years of age, wearing a dark overcoat, coming from towards the Herman place about 3 o'clock, and it is thought that this was the thief.

OSWALD GUTHMAN'S VICTORY.

Oswald Guthman is assessor. And he'll serve his term, you bet, sir. He'll treat rich and poor alike. Though it be to your dislike: He is strictly out-of-sight. Matthew Gering. And, if I am not deceived, Hurt yourself, as you perceive. Matthew Gering. I'll bet that you feel blue. Matthew Gering. For having bet a time or two, Matthew Gering. And, as usually is the case, T'other man got the place. And you take it with bad grace. Matthew Gering. Pardon me if I rejoice. Matthew Gering. For "old Oswald" was my choice. Matthew Gering. You'd better disinfest with lime. While Oswald shows you a merry time, And with this I'll close my rhyme Until next election time, Matthew Gering.

Makes Three Attempts to Hang.

William Cook, a prisoner in the city jail, made three attempts to strangle himself within an hour yesterday and all without avail. He had been arrested by Sergeant Chamberlain in the afternoon for selecting the alley back of 1514 Farnam street for a drunken sleep. He was searched and placed in a cell and shortly afterward was observed hanging from a crossbar with his suspenders tied about his throat. The turnkey at once appropriated the suspenders and Cook was obliged to fall back on his necktie. This was also taken from him and he was later seen to be making good progress with strips torn from his shirt. So he had to give up this garment also and was obliged to sit uncovered in the wintry bleakness of the police station. He had not been able to do himself much injury as the crossbar was so low that his feet dragged upon the ground.

When he had become partially sober Cook was questioned regarding his conduct. He stated that he was a book agent and besides this discouraging fact had been plying his trade in Lincoln. He engaged rooms at Twenty-sixth and Cuming streets a few days ago and returning home yesterday noon found his room closed and unheated. His wife, he was informed, had gone on a visit to Plattsmouth. He says that his burden then became too heavy and that he had proceeded to drown it.

J. C. Berry, one of the best known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that he cured himself of the worst kind of piles by using a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve.
