CITY AND COUNTY.

WEDNESDAY

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at their room in R. C. Wood block Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Bessie Bloose, who has been visiting near Alva, in Iowa, returned for the past week, returned to her home in Red Oak yesterday.

Mr. Robert, who is on the road for the American Biscuit company, of Omaha, was in the city today taking orders for that company.

J. H. Thrasher has secured the agency for the Calcedonia, one of the leading fire insurance companies doing business in the United States.

Geo. Cook, one of the solid farmers residing near Alva, was in town Saturday and made the NEWS a pleasant call, where he is always welcome.

The copy for the court docket was placed in the hands of the printer today. There are forty-six law, 164 equity and eight criminal cases on the docket.

A Halloween party was held at the residence of Mr. Fletcher in South Park on Saturday evening. The young folks were masked, and a jolly time was had, the crowd dispersing at a late hour.

Thrasher's real estate agency is doing a large amount of business these days, almost every day making a real estate transfer of some kind. Mr. Thrasher traded a house and two lots in Platteville for a Saturday for ten acres of land and $100 in money.

Owney McGinn, who has been visiting friends here, returned to his home in Omaha this afternoon. He will shortly go from here to the western part of the state and enter the employ of the B. & M. Owney is a hustler and will do well anywhere you put him.

THURSDAY.

Radiant Home base burner, 15 inch fire pot. $22 at Carter's hardware.

Mrs. John Buckingham of Wheeler, Mo., is in the city on legal business.

The weather bureau says cooler, cloudy weather with rain in Nebraska for this evening.

The election of T. Frank Wiles is practically assured, and he is receiving the congratulations of his friends.

The Welshback gas burner will save half your gas bill and give the best light on earth. Gering & Co., sole agents.

Clayton Barber, who formerly worked in the storehouse here, came down from Lincoln on No. 4 this morning.

Carter's Magazine, with contributions from three prominent Plattsburgh ladies, at Lehigh's, 10 cents per copy.

Billy Woodard, the genial chef at the Hotel Riley, took in the sights of Omaha last evening, returning home this morning.

J. E. Britton is justly proud of the arrival of a boy and girl at his house a few days ago. Dr. Cook reports all as getting along nicely.

Mrs. Nehemiah Livingston of Louisville, at the advanced age of eighty-three years, died last week and was buried at the Glendale cemetery.

Andy Hawley, the two-hand man, has a queer pet in the shape of a large pole cat, which appears as time as a kitten. It's sent big has been removed, and it is consequently harmless and inoffensive.

Mrs. C. M. Holmes and son, Iven, came down from Havelock this morning for a visit with friends. It is a Burlington fireman, and had a leg broken a few weeks ago, but is almost recovered now, and is able to get around with a cane.

HAVELOCK ITEMS

From the Lincoln News.

Hammond Martin went to work yesterday.

Frank Ackerman spent Sunday in Plattsburgh.

George Boyerson got back from his visit to Plattsburgh yesterday.

E. B. Ackerman got his hand hurt yesterday, but nothing at all serious.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ackerman returned Saturday from their short visit in Denver.

The little child of Den is McGuire is in the doctor's care, as is the little child of Mr. Forbes.

Ray McNu Inn of Havelock has gone to a. v. in Cass county, to visit with a brother who is engaged in the farming industry near that place.

Bert Holmes, who has been firing on the road, is in Havelock in company with his wife visiting with Mr. Holmes' mother, Mrs. M. L. Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mumm of Sheridan, Wyo., who have been visiting Mrs. Mumm's mother, Mrs. Tom Bibby, leave tomorrow for their home in the Black Hills.

A half-dozen wagon loads of Indians bound for St. Louis passed through Havelock yesterday. Details are wanting excepting that one wagon contained a bear.

Dan McCallan served his connection with the Burlington at Havelock today, and left for his home in Plattsburgh this afternoon. Dissatisfaction with piece work is said to be the cause of Mr. McCallan's move.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Hemple left last Friday evening for Burlington, Iowa, where Mr. Hemple expects to spend a couple of weeks visiting her father and mother. Mr. Hemple stayed over until Sunday morning, returning on No. 3. Mrs. Hemple will go from Burlington to Chicago for a short stay with her brother.

The farewell reception tendered in the form of a surprise party last Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Sabersbagen was an enjoyable occasion.

Some important changes are to be made in the form of the shops at Havelock, commencing Monday. R. S. Subersbagen, who has been in the Burlington at Plattsburgh first, then to Havelock when these shops were opened, will be transferred to Sheridan, Wyo., to be general foreman of the shops there to take the place of James Ritchie, who was killed at Plattsburgh last week. Mr. Subersbagen has been in the employ of the machine shops for several years past and has proven himself thoroughly competent for the promotion that comes purely out of merit and efficiency of service. Fred Fuller will succeed Mr. Subersbagen as foreman of the machine shops. Mr. Fuller has been in the service of the Burlington for ten years. First at Galesburg for five years, then at Omaha and later at Havelock. Friends of both these gentlemen will be pleased to learn of their making one more step in their working.

These who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham of Gas, Wis., La., has to say on the subject. "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." This medicine can always be depended upon for relief, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent size for sale by all druggists.

Neel Fish, a large ranchman, lost 250 head of sheep during the storm. No other losses have yet been reported.

Matrimonial. Capt. W. W. Hull, a prominent and well known resident of this city, was married Monday evening, November 1, to Mrs. Maria Ellis, widow of the late Thomas Ellis, who resided here for several years. ENJOYABLE HALLOWEEN PARTY.

P. E. O. Society Holds a Successful Party At the Home of Geo. Dovey.

At a meeting of the P. E. O. society on Saturday, October 16, at the home of M. H. N. Dovey, it was decided to give a Halloween party for ladies only. A committee of six young ladies—Misses Shepherd, Richey, Morgan, Hel'et, Hayes and Oldham—were selected to make all necessary arrangements for the affair. The married ladies were not to know anything of the arrangements being perfected, where the party was to be held, etc., and so thoroughly and well did the committee perform their duties that Mrs. Dovey herself knew nothing in regard to where the party would be given.

Saturday evening being the time fixed for holding the affair, the married ladies met at the reading room. Miss Jones having provided a carriage and carriage, all started out on a merry hunt to find the location of the intended Halloween party. After calling at the homes of several P. E. O.'s, they finally came to the home of Mrs. Houseworth, and from there they went to George Dovey's residence, where it was found the party was to be. After this secret was found out, to the surprise of all, they were equally surprised and delighted when a large number of gentlemen put in an appearance, and quite a number of the ladies were unable to comprehend how their husbands could have kept a secret so long, while others how well their husbands could "do."

The chandeliers were decorated in yellow tissue paper to resemble a pumpkin, and there was one large pumpkin with "P. E. O." in large letters cut out, and a candle inside; several others with faces—black cats were seen everywhere. The library was given up to fortune-telling and Halloween tricks of all kinds. Each of the gentlemen were presented with a favor bachelorette buttons; other favors, such as bottles of love cure, thimbles of salt, fortunes in walnut shells, prizes in fortune cake, etc.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Houseworth, Hendee, Unruh, Helps, Parmele, J. Patterson, B. Pollock, Dwyer, G. E. Dovey, H. N. Dovey, Gass, Messrs. Windham, F. Cummins, Burdick, Morgan, Hayes, F. Richey, H. Goring, H. Snyder, Farley, Mesdames Wagner, Hasser, Misses Burgess, Jones, Gering, Searle, Waterman, Herold, Swearingen, Morgan, Heisel, Oldham, Hayes, Shepherd, Mason (Omaha).

Frozen in the Snow. SIDNEY, Neb., Oct. 30.—The eight-year-old son of Herman Brauer, living twelve miles southeast of here, lost his life during the storm on Tuesday. The boy left the house at 10 o'clock in the morning, presumably to go to the stable a short distance away, but as he failed to return within a reasonable time, a search was instituted, but no trace of him could be found until Wednesday noon, when his frozen body was discovered by the searchers only half a mile away from his home. He had undoubtedly become confused and lost his bearings in the storm and was unable to return to the house, and probably wandered around until overcome by exhaustion and cold. He had taken off his coat and his head was lying upon it.

Neel Fish, a large ranchman, lost 250 head of sheep during the storm. No other losses have yet been reported.

LETTER FROM ALASKA.

Will Sampson Tells of His Hardships and Adventures in the Gold Fields.

LAKE BENNET, Oct. 2.—We arrived here a week ago with our outfit, and, having our boat built, are waiting for a favorable wind to sail down the lake. The trip from Dyea to this point is something terrible—words fail to describe it—but we were more fortunate than a great many others. Thousands of men who have worked weeks and months, and who failed in their efforts, have turned back and they are glad to get out of the country alive. Thousands of tons of provisions are started along the trail between Dyea, Skagway and the lakes. The main trouble was that no one knew what they had to encounter in going over this trail. It costs 40 cents per pound to get the stuff packed from Dyea to Lake Linderman, and you see what it would cost to get an outfit in. The trail was so bad that a good horse would only last a short time. Horses were worth from $150 to $200. Even our mules gave out, and we had to buy more.

After reaching the foot of the summit, we came to the real "dog war," and were compelled to pick our belongings to the top of the mountain on our backs. I packed 1,500 pounds over the summit—a distance of three-fourths of a mile. We reached the lakes all right, and I am well and strong; never felt better in my life, but don't weigh 210 pounds as I did when I left Tacoma—think I have lost forty pounds. It would be much better to make this trip in the spring or in the summer, before the rains set in and the trail gets so muddy. We found the mud all the way from two to six feet deep. Our party consists of six—we have a captain, a treasurer and I have the honor of being the cook; it is the best "snip" in the outfit. This is a great country to make money in. A man can get $15 a day and board at any kind of work, and carpenters get $25 a day. We made $75 a day packing with our horses, otherwise we couldn't have gotten in, as none of us took money enough, and we all thought that we had more than we would need.

A person could get rich running a restaurant here, as meals are $1.50 apiece—50 cents for a cup of coffee. I slept in my sleeping-bag last night for the first time. I tell you it is a dandy; it was cold and snowing like blazes, and I crawled in and was as warm as toast. I wouldn't take $200 for it, and I have been offered that much. There are a great many different kinds on the trail, but none that I like as well as mine. I have no doubt but that I will keep warm in the coldest of weather. There is lots of game here, such as ducks, geese, moose and bear, and I am going out and see if I can't get some fresh meat. I expect to stay here three weeks.

Got Five Dollars and Costs. Chas. Yelke felt so good about the election that he and a few companions, including a gentleman from Nebraska, celebrated through the medium of a few cans of beer, which they disposed of in the alley south of Main street. After this they visited the house of the Range woman, and drank a few cans of beer there. After they started down town, Yelke announced his intention of carrying the gentleman from Nebraska into small pieces, whereupon the latter started to run, with Yelke after him. Yelke was headed off and arrested before he had accomplished his laudable ambition, and taken before Judge Archer. The judge gave him five dollars and costs, which he paid, and was released. The gentleman from Nebraska was ordered to leave town by Officer Fitzpatrick.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day. A few weeks ago the editor was taken with a very severe cold that caused him to be in a most miserable condition. It was undoubtedly a bad case of La Grippe, and recognizing it as dangerous he took immediate steps to bring about a speedy cure. From the advertisement of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the many good recommendations included therein, we concluded to make a first trial of the medicine. To say that it was satisfactory in its results, is put very mildly, indeed. It acted like magic and the result was a speedy and permanent cure. We have no hesitation in recommending this excellent Cough Remedy to anyone afflicted with a cough or cold in any form. The Banner of Liberty, Libertytown, Maryland. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

Mountain GLEN, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afforded almost instant relief.—F. A. THORNTON. This celebrated remedy is for sale by all druggists.

"My-Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in one to three days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits, 75 cents sold by F. G. Fricke & Co., druggists.

You can't afford to risk your life by allowing a cold to develop into pneumonia or consumption. Instant relief and a certain cure are afforded by One Minute Cough Cure. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Proposals for Fresh Beef and Mutton.—Headquarters Department of the Platte, Office Chief Commissary of Subsistence, Omaha, Neb., October 11, 1897. Sealed proposals in triplicate, accompanied by written guarantee bonds, in duplicate, will be received at this office, until 11 o'clock a. m., central standard time, November 11, 1897, at which time and place they will be opened in presence of bidders, for furnishing such quantities of fresh beef and mutton for issues as may be required by the Subsistence Department, U. S. Army, at Omaha, Nebraska, Forts Crook, Robinson and Niobrara, Nebraska, and Forts D. A. Russell, Washakie and Camp Pilot Butte, Wyoming, and Fort Meade, S. D., during the period commencing January 1, 1898, and ending June 30, 1898. Proposals will also be received until 10 o'clock a. m. mountain standard time, and opened at the posts of Forts Niobrara, Robinson, D. A. Russell, Washakie, Meade and Camp Pilot Butte, by the respective post commissaries of such posts, each commissary receiving proposals for his own post only. Proposals will also be received stating the price at which the bidder will deliver fresh beef or mutton of the character stated in the specifications and to be delivered of temperature not greater than 50 degrees Fahrenheit. Full information furnished on application here or to commissary at any post authorized to open proposals. Government reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, or any part of and proposal. Envelopes containing proposals should be marked "Proposals for Fresh Beef and Mutton," and addressed to undersigned or commissary at post authorized to receive proposals. FRANK E. NYE, Major and C. S.

Londonale Shortlows at Auction. At the home farm, seven miles northeast of Auburn and five miles northwest of Brownville, Nemaha county, Nebraska, on Monday, November 8, 1897, will be sold without reserve forty Bays and Scotch Top, ped Shortlows cattle, consisting of thirty cows and heifers, and ten bulls; ten cows with calves at foot; the property of John Bath. Lunch at noon. Sale to commence at 1 o'clock sharp. Parties coming by train will be conveyed from Talmage house, Auburn, and from the farm free, also to and from B. & M. train, Brownville.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism. (From the Fairbank, N. Y. Register.) Mr. James Rowland, of this village, writes that for twenty-five years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says that no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by all druggists.

A pain in the chest is nature's warning that pneumonia is threatened. Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind over the seat of pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, and prompt relief will follow. Sold by all druggists.

Working Up the Chicory Crop. FREMONT, Neb., Oct. 28.—The American Chicory company started its kilns in this city last night on this year's crop. There are about 5,000 tons of chicory in the bins, which will require a run of about eighty days. The crop was not as good this year as usual, owing to the bad weather last spring. Considerable improvement was made on the plant during the summer which greatly facilitates the work of drying and cutting.
