Talk About Diamonds

Their brilliant glitter scarce outrivals the polish you can put on a Murzloff shoe. Good leather, well-tanned leather—that's the reason. It does more than shine—it wears. It fits, it "feels good" whether you walk across the street or across the continent. It's a shiner, a stayer, a soother. Costs money? Of course—not as much as you'd think, though. Put one on and give its tongue a chance to talk. You'll do the talking after you've worn a pair and we'll sell a lot more.

Joseph Fetzer,
North Side Main Street.

INTERESTING UNION NOTES

A NUMBER OF HER CITIZENS ON THE SICK LIST THIS WEEK.

An Interesting Feature to Be Added to the Old Settlers' Reunion—An Oratorical Contest.

UNION, Neb., Jan. 20.—We have a considerable amount of sickness in this vicinity, the unfortunate being G. F. McNamee, Dr. Walker, Mrs. H. R. Willis and Mrs. Dave Larus. The genial Ed Patrick of Lincoln—he of cigar and tobacco fame—was among our business men today. The new firm of Petring & Schubert, of Nebraska City, will soon commence business at the old Rose & Co. stand. Fred Young and Dave LaRue had business in Plattsmouth on Wednesday.

The local Modern Woodmen held a lively meeting Wednesday evening, at which time three young men "went through the mill." Union boasts of the second largest camp of Woodmen in Cass county, being exceeded only by Plattsmouth in point of membership.

Our latest report from A. R. Eikeubary is to the effect that he is getting along nicely.

Rev. H. P. Mann, who many Cass county people will remember as a resident of Rock Bluffs years ago, arrived here last Saturday and occupied the pulpit at the M. E. church on Sunday.

Washing-machine agents were exhibiting near Hotel Smith this morning, and our competent, J. C. Frank, became so interested that it required considerable effort to prevent him climbing into the machine.

A committee of the Old Settlers' association held a meeting a few days ago and arranged for a new feature in connection with our reunion. For the 1895 reunion an oratorical contest will be held, the contestants to be between the ages of sixteen and twenty-one, and to be residents of Cass and Otoe counties. The prize will be $25 cash or medal.

Hon. C. A. Atkinson of Lincoln was here last Wednesday to officiate at the Modern Woodman public installation and delivered a splendid lecture on "Woodcraft."

Fred Clark is carrying his neck in a sling, the result of too frequent amputation of whiskers.

Attorney Travis of Plattsmouth had legal business in our city Wednesday. Hiram DuBois was a Plattsmouth visitor Wednesday.

John C. Roidy, the wealthy Otoe county farmer, was among our people on Tuesday.

R. M. Weimer returned last week from a sojourn of several months in southern Texas.

SUCCESS IN "STRIKING" TITLES.

A Correspondent's Idea of a Good Title to an Article or Story.

The value of a striking title to an article or story is understood by no American periodical so well as the Ladies' Home Journal, writes a New York correspondent. It has made its titles famous by their uniqueness. Its "Side-Talks With Girls," "Heart to Heart Talks" and "Unknown Wives of Well-Known Men" have been ridiculed and paraphrased from one end of the country to the other. But it has all been grist for the Philadelphia periodical. Just now the title of "The Inner Experiences of a Cabinet Member's Wife" is attracting attention. "The Man Under Thirty-five" made the reputation of Lillian Bell in this magazine. "My Literary Passions," under which Mr. Howells wrote in the Journal, served at once to attract attention. Yet each title adopted by this clever magazine fits the story and is really the best caption for it. "A Minister of the World" started that story on its success. "Mr. Beecher as I Knew Him" was an inimitable title of Mrs. Beecher's memories of her husband. Talk about cleverness in titles, what magazine is such a pastmaster in the art as the Ladies' Home Journal? And a newspaper man knows how difficult this art of title-making is. But nothing is so valuable in attracting the eye of the public.

Correct. No state fair will be held this year as it would conflict with the Transmississippi exposition. The people of the state would not care if never another state fair were held.—Nebraska City News.

Household Gods. The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's. Regular size 50c and $1.

Fancy Bread, Cakes, Etc. Ho loways are headquarters for fine bread, cakes and everything usually kept in a first-class bakery. Also candies, nuts, etc. Give them a call—Fitzgerald block, at Salil's old stand.

Oysters and Lunch. Oysters in every style, and nice lunch at Hollaways, in Fitzgerald block—Salil's old stand.

For fire insurance see Thrasher.

MARKS-VALLEY.

Promptly at high noon on Wednesday, January 19, 1895, Mr. Edgar Marks and Miss Myrtle Valley were united in marriage by Judge Spuriook.

The bride is the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad H. Valley, who resides southwest of this city, and on the occasion was dressed in an exquisite costume of fawn-colored silk trimmed in lace and ribbon.

Mr. Marks is the popular son of Mrs. Marks, who resides near Nehawka, and is well liked by all who know him. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple returned to the home of the brides parents, where an elegant and sumptuous dinner was served to a select company of friends and relatives. In the evening they gave a grand ball at Nehawka which was largely attended and highly enjoyed by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Marks received many handsome and useful presents, and their many friends wish them a bright, happy and prosperous life.

Was a Ferocious Calfing.

Walt Mason in the Lincoln Journal, says: "J. Sterling Morton, in a very happy address, recalled the stern days when there were but few editors in Nebraska, and they wrote with a gun on the desk and a knife in easy reach. Mr. Morton believes the lot of the modern editor is a couch of roses.

Many a time, when he was writing editorials in the brave old days, Indians would come to the windows and shoot him full of poison arrows, and upon one occasion they scalped his foreman just as they were going to press, delaying the publication of the paper nearly an hour. Steam was out of the question in those days, and Mr. Morton rigged up a sort of tread mill and kept the buffalo bull in it for two years. This bull operated his establishment at a very low cost. Many of his subscribers were bad men who were always spilling for a fight, and every paragraph on the local page was sure to make somebody mad, and on the day after the publication of each issue of his valuable paper, Mr. Morton and his foreman held a reception in the counting room, armed with shot guns and smaller firearms, and the undertaker used to come along at 5:37 in the evening, with the only dray in the town, to haul away the corpses. Alas, such things have passed away. Editorial work is tame enough now. The aggrieved subscriber does not call to have a playful exchange of bullets, but hires a cheap lawyer who is seeking notoriety, and brings a suit for libel. Every newspaper has its assortment of pending libel suits, but where is the able editor who has his private graveyard in the lot back of the office? The old times were the best times."

Library Entertainment.

The library entertainment, to be given in about two weeks, will consist of a good farce as a curtain-raiser called "That Rascal Pat," followed by comedy replete with fun, entitled "The Two Puddifoots." The cast includes the best of local talent, which assures a successful presentation.

The leading parts will be taken by the Misses Rose Myers, Lulu Liest, Phyllis Pettis, Anna Sullivan and Messrs. Atwood, Dammie Hiatt and Van Horn.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is the senior partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, Ohio, and state of Ohio, and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every copy of the certificate that cannot be caused by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure.

Sworn to before me this 22nd day of December, A. D. 1895, at Toledo, Ohio.

FRANK J. CHENEY, Notary Public.

Try Grain-O!

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of Grain-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. Grain-O has that rich brown seal of Mocha and Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-half the price of coffee; 15 and 25c per package. Sold by all grocers.

We haven't been doing a thing but making a hole in our pants stock the past fortnight. It's all right. That's what we want to do, because our "Duchess Elephant" will be here soon and we've got to find a place to put him. You don't know what that is, do you? Well, it's the biggest line of pants for spring that ever struck Plattsmouth—a whole circus and menagerie, all in one! You see, we've got to make room for the big show, and that's why we're selling odds and ends at less than wholesale. That's plausible, isn't it? You get the benefit if you come now. We can't charge them. Wescott & Son.
