

YOUNG LAWYER ARRESTED

B. CECIL JACK CHARGED WITH AN INFRACTION OF THE STATUTES.

Practiced the Old Dodge of Evading the Nebraska Exemption Law—President Perkins' Visit.

This morning, H. Batton, a married man who works in the B. & M. shops, swore to a complaint, wherein B. Cecil Jack was charged with an infraction of the criminal statutes by advising Dr. Schildknecht and others to sell their claims to a non-resident of the state of Nebraska. D. O. Dwyer appeared as attorney for the complainant.

It seems to be the old dodge of trying to evade the Nebraska exemption statute. Jack heard a warrant was out for him and he reported at once to the sheriff's office where it was served on him. He then went up the street and got Charles Parmele to sign a bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at trial of the case, set for next week.

A NEWS reporter enquired of Jack what he expected to do, and he replied that he had counseled with able lawyers and had no doubt of being discharged when the case was heard.

President Perkins in the City.
A NEWS reporter waited on President Perkins of the "Q" this morning, who was here in his private coach No. 50. Mr. Perkins was agreeable and pleasant as he always is to newspaper men, and seemed in excellent spirits over the outlook for excellent times.

He looked over the shops and was well pleased with what he saw and with the condition of the property. He thought there would be very little railroad work done this year, as it would take the country some time to grow up to the present trackage.

THE favorable mention of Judge Hays and his attitude made in the press, especially in the case of the strike of a popular crowd. Judge Hays would make an ideal chief executive and that is why his name would be a power of strength for the party. As head of the ticket next fall, Nebraska could be redeemed from the Kansas column and set forward to the quickened step of McKinley prosperity.

THE Omaha Bee seeks in vain for another republican newspaper that endorses its course in opposing the annexation of Hawaii. The only favorable criticism it finds comes from the democratic press which has not contained any patriotic sentiments since Fort Sumpter was fired on by democracy in 1861. If the editor of the Bee cares about being in line with the best and greatest leaders in the republican party he will remove his distorted glasses and see the Hawaiian matter in another light.

THE city council of Plattsmouth have by their vote in rejecting an ordinance in reference to the cleaning of the snow from their sidewalks after each storm, decided that they are opposed to these citizens laboring for the good of the general public. After some one falls on a snow or ice covered walk, breaks a limb and sues that city for $10,000 or $20,000 damages, that council, if they are property owners and tax payers, will pass an ordinance making it a death penalty to have uncleaned sidewalks.—Nebraska City News.

THE zeal which some of our popocratic friends exhibited to hurt England and stand up for America a year ago can be given a crucial test just now, as it has been officially stated by the authorities in Leeds and Birmingham that the Dingley bill has stopped all improvements and a permanent loss of trade is already fore-shadowed. If these silver statesmen were in earnest about standing up for America and opposed the domination of England, they must endorse the Dingley tariff bill of the McKinley administration or stand publicly admitted as hypocrites who profess one thing and believe another.

THE eastern democrats insist they want no more populism, the southern populists aver that they have had too much democracy, and all over the west a spirit of unrest is brooding in the joint camps of demagoguism which never meant anything but a sacrifice of pretended principle in order to capture the emoluments of public office. The day of hunger for political pap being the only requisite to party success has happily passed and the party whose principles are found to subservient to the people's best interests is the one that will survive.

THE citizens of York county, Nebraska, have asked the managers of the Transmississippi Exposition "in alloting space to them for an exhibit to provide walls which they can paper with cancelled mortgages for 1897," says the New York Sun. A spirit of consideration for a revered young resident of Lincoln should induce the managers to refuse the request. There may be no way of preventing the citizens of York county from being prosperous, but they should not be permitted to flaunt the evidences of their prosperity in the eyes of Bryan and other cataminitous visitors to the show. Or, if the request is granted, walls should be allotted to the Lincoln patriot, and he should have ample room and verge enough to display thereon in letters of the largest size his celebrated demonstration of the close and necessary connection between the price of silver and the price of wheat.
