

A Successful House.

Hamilton Carhart & Co. started in a small way to manufacture overalls and clothing in Detroit a few years ago, and by attention to business and manufacture of superior goods, their business has grown until it is one of the big houses in the manufacturing city.

Klein & Co. have the exclusive agency in this county for this firm, and the first of the week they received an elegant picture advertising the overalls that is worth seeing. The picture is 7x9 feet in size, and while the famous engine 999 of the New York Central is shown coming from the round house, the engineer standing six feet high with oil can in hand, wearing a suit of the famous overalls, makes a striking picture wonderfully true to life.

The suffragist fight in Iowa has reached the acute stage before the legislature, says the Fremont Tribune. A peculiar feature of it is the appearance of women on the scene in opposition to the proposed measure, as well as in favor of it. Both sides have had an inning before the Solons and have given some keen thrusts. As a mere matter of interest, rather than of argument, the following sample of a pro-suffrage speech of Mrs. Coggeshall of Des Moines is submitted:

"They tell us, women have all the rights they need, and that men give them freely; but it took a fight of eleven years in Massachusetts for a wife to secure the right to be buried in her husband's cemetery. If it is true that woman started the clothing business when Eve arrayed herself and Adam in fig leaves, it would seem that after 6,000 years woman ought to own her own clothing, yet when a Connecticut man burned all his wife's clothing it was held that he could not be punished because they were his property, not his wife's. They taunt the suffragists with trying to wear men's clothes; but, in fact, we have been wearing men's clothes since we left the Garden of Eden."

Fred Tulip, a late arrival in the city, who claims to be a genuine "sleuth" from Boston, went into the house of Mattie Beebe at 904 Capitol avenue and told the inmates that he needed their assistance in "piping a clew," and that they must put on their best clothes and jewelry and accompany him at once or he would have them arrested for refusing to assist an officer, says the Omaha Bee. It chanced that the Beebe woman had a number of diamonds on her person which had not escaped the eagle eye of the eastern man, and thinking that Tulip had designs upon them the woman called an officer and had him arrested. He was charged at the station with impersonating an officer and with being a suspicious character.

We are anxious to do a little good in this world and can think of no pleasanter or better way to do it than by recommending One Minute Cough Cure as a preventive of pneumonia, consumption and other serious lung troubles that follow neglected colds. F. G. Fricke & Co.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Nancy H. Gilmore, wife of John Gilmore, deceased, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Davis, February 1, 1898. She was the daughter of Joseph and Helen Massie. Born in Highland county, Ohio, May 28, 1830, making her age at death, sixty-seven years, eight months and twenty-four days.

She was the mother of eight children, all of whom are living except one, which died in infancy. She joined the Methodist Episcopal church at fifteen years of age, and has been a silent worker ever since. During her last illness, she was as ever, the loving, patient mother, conscious until the last, she called her children and friends about her and asked them to prepare to meet her in Heaven.—Weeping Water Republican.

DR. BLACK'S RHEUMATIC CURE.

..READ WHAT.. THE UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL SAYS.

LINCOLN, NEB., Dec. 28, 1897.—MESSRS. SMITH & PARMELE, Plattsmouth, Neb.—Dear Sirs: Find enclosed $1 for which please send two boxes of Dr. Black's RHEUMATIC CURE. This is a case of long standing. The cure is proving very satisfactory. I think two more boxes will establish a cure. I could sell a number of boxes in this city. Yours Truly, CHARLES DEAN.

The above came to us unsolicited and goes to prove that DR. BLACK'S RHEUMATIC CURE is still at the head of the procession. We are preparing it in pill form, which makes it more pleasant to take than as formerly made in liquid form.
