Revival meetings at the Congregational church conducted by Evangelist Buck are still in progress. Mr. Buck is a man of varied and wide experience, and although naturally of a high temper he speaks with considerable force. The visible results so far have not been very large, but it is hoped that great good will be done within the church. You are personally invited to come to these meetings.

INFORMATION AND OPINIONS.

C. S. Paine of Omaha is doing some preliminary work, looking to the compilation of a complete history of Nebraska in two volumes. J. Sterling Morton is editor in chief with an able corps of assistants, and the Jacob North Co. of Lincoln will get the book out. It will cost $25 for the two volumes which will be elegantly bound in morocco. The work will be invaluable to everyone interested in the growth and progress of the state.

Charles Barrows, a farmer who resides near Union, reported to the police that some one had stolen two brood sows from his stable yard on last Friday night. He gave a very good description of the men suspected, who stopped with him the night before.—Nebraska City News.

March, true to her reputation as being fair and fickle, greeted us this morning with a cutting wind from the north, bright sunshine, clouds, skurries of snow, then more sunshine, all followed in quick succession.

Probate Notice.

In the county court of Cass county, Nebraska.
In the matter of the guardianship of Miles R.
Smith, an incompetent person. To whom it may concern: Notice is hereby given to the said Miles R. Smith, incompetent, to Eli M. Smith, guardian, and to all other persons interested that George W. Grimes died herein Feb. 14, 1898, a petition alleging and that he is deceased and that he is on the bond of the said Eli M. Smith; that neither the said Eli M. Smith nor any of his predecessors, as guardian of said incompetent, has ever made a settlement with the court of probate; that by reason of all the foregoing premises there is danger of liability to the ward on said bond.
Petitioner prays that Eli M. Smith may be cited to appear in county court and render a full account in said premises: That petitioner be discharged from liability on said bond. That the said Eli M. Smith be required to furnish a new bond, or, in default thereof that said Smith be removed from his position as guardian and another be appointed in his place; that the accounts on file be settled and proper relief in the premises. You are hereby notified that a hearing will be had on said petition on March 22nd, at 10 o'clock p. m., and that if you fail to appear upon said date and contest said petition, the court may grant the prayer of said petition and make such other and further orders, allowances and decrees as to this court may seem proper and just in the premises. Witness my hand and the seal of said court, at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this, the 1st day of March, A. D. 1898.

GEORGE M. STURLOCK,
County Judge.

Chattel Mortgage Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a chattel mortgage, dated on the 2nd day of June, 1887, and duly filed in the office of the county clerk of Cass county, Nebraska, on the 3rd day of June, 1887, and executed by J. S. Gooden, T. V.
Davis, to secure the payment of seventy-five dollars, with interest thereon from the 1st day of June, 1887, at the rate of ten per cent per annum from said day, and upon which there is now this 2nd day of February, 1898, due the sum of $80.00.
Default having been made in the payment of said sum, and no suit or other proceeding at law having been instituted to recover said debt, or any part thereof, therefore, I will sell the property therein described to wit: three-fifths interest in twenty-five acres of corn on the west half of the northwest quarter of section 19 in town 11, range 18, Cass county, Nebraska, which corn is divided, picked and cribbed on the southwest quarter of section 18, in town 11, range 18, Cass county, Nebraska, and amounts to about 425 bushels, at the crib and in the crib at said place in Rock Bluffs prairie, to the south of the 21st day of February, 1898, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m., to satisfy said debt, with the costs of advertising, caring for and selling said property. T. V. DAVIS.

Probate Notice.

In county court, Cass county, Nebraska.
In the matter of the estate of John Frederick Stull, deceased. Agatha Stull, John Jacob Stull, John Frederick Stull, Christian Lawrence Stull, Anna Amelia Monroe, nee Stull, Henry Stull, Maria Agatha Stull and all other persons interested in said matter, are hereby notified that on the 21st day of February A. D. 1898, Agatha Stull, Henry Stull and C. Lawrence Stull filed a petition in said county court, alleging among other things that John Frederick Stull died on the 1st day of January 1898, leaving no last will and testament, and possessed of real and personal estate, and that the above named constitute all the persons interested in the estate of said deceased, and praying for administration thereof. You are hereby notified that if you fail to appear at said court on the 21st day of March A. D. 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m., and contest said petition, the court will appoint C. Lawrence Stull or some other suitable person administrator, and proceed to a settlement of said estate. Witness my hand and the seal of said county court at Plattsmouth, Nebraska, this 28th day of February A. D. 1898.

GEORGE M. STURLOCK,
County Judge.

Notice of Indebtedness.

UNSOLICITED TESTIMONIAL SAYS.

LINCOLN, NEB., Dec. 28, 1897.—MESSRS. SMITH & PARMELE, Plattsmouth, Neb.—Dear Sirs: Find enclosed $1 for which please send two boxes of Dr. Black's RHEUMATIC CURE. This is a case of long standing. The cure is proving very satisfactory. I think two more boxes will establish a cure. I could sell a number of boxes in this city.
Yours Truly,
CHARLES DEAN.

The above came to us unsolicited and goes to prove that DR.
BLACK'S RHEUMATIC CURE is still at the head of the procession.
We are preparing it in pill form, which makes it more pleasant to take than as formerly made in liquid form.
