Relief Fund For the Cubans Growing Nicely.

INTERESTING PUBLIC MEETING

Men and Women Ready and Willing to Work for the Suffering Insurgents. Committee Appointed-List of Contributions.

The meeting last night at the court house to raise funds for the relief of the Cubans, though not largely attended was marked with enthusiasm and deep interest.

Mr. Morgan on being elected to preside stated that the parties in charge of the relief work did not ask money. They wanted provisions-bacon, lard, corn meal, flour, oat meal, rice, etc.

P. E. White made a short speech in which he stated that other cities throughout the state had donated liberally to the cause of suffering humanity and that Plattsmouth, the third city in the state should do her whole duty.

It was decided to appoint a committee for each ward to solicit aid and to push the work as rapidly as possible.

First ward-Mrs. S. Waugh, Mrs. Houseworth, R. B. Windham, Mrs. C. W. Sherman, Misses Clark and Leonard.

Second ward-E. E. White, Mrs. F. Lehnhoff, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Misses Katie Neville and Harriet McMaken.

Third ward-Mrs. H. D. Travis, Miss Rosa Hyers, Miss Nettie Morgan, Mrs. Johns and Mrs. S. Davis.

Fourth ward-Mrs. M. A. Dickson, Mrs. D. B. Smith, Mayor Gutsche and wife, and Mrs. Tartsch.

Fifth ward-Mrs. Wm. Suter, Mrs. Jno. Lutz, Mrs. Ed Johnson and Mrs. M. M. Bond.

Since last night's meeting a number of ladies and gentlemen have been added to the committees whose names we could not ascertain.

Mr. Heisel offered to grind one day free all corn brought to his mill as donations to the cause.

Chas. Grimes was appointed as a committee of one to visit livery stables and secure teams to go out into the country and solicit funds.

An executive committee consisting of the chairman and F. E. White and Jas. Patterson, jr., was elected to take care of all contributions and make report to the public through the papers of all work done.

The ward committees are expected to meet tonight at 7:30 at the First National bank to complete arrangements for the work.

A number of policy holders of the Covenant Mutual Life Association, of Galesburg, Ill., who were members of the association prior to 1890, held a meeting recently and decided to protect the raising of the rates of their assessments to such a point as to make the maintaining the same impossible.

Wm. Bischof was selected as chairman and J. J. Hochstetler, secretary. It was decided to join with the other policy holders through out the country and if possible force the company to continue to do business in the future as in the past.

The company was first organized solely for the purpose of insuring members of the Odd Fellows order, but afterwards admitted outsiders, and now endeavors to crowd the old members out by excessive assessments.

Calvin Chapman visited Omaha yesterday to secure the co-operation of the members there in securing the services of an able attorney to take the matter into the courts for adjustment-Neb. City News.

Miss Grace Liddicott and Ernest Foreman had a most narrow and thrilling escape from death at Beatrice yesterday morning. While the latter was driving Miss Liddicott to her school in South Beatrice, the horses became frightened at a train and as he was driven onto the viaduct over the Burlington track near G. P. Marvin's place, sided to one side and breaking the railing, was precipitated to the bottom, a distance of thirty feet.

The occupants of the spring wagon fell beneath the rig at the bottom of the cut but managed to effect their escape with scarcely a scratch. The rear car of the passenger train, as it whizzed by, struck the horse, inflicting injuries which necessitated the killing of the animal later in the day. The damage to the vehicle was also nearly complete.

Miss Liddicott luckily continued her way to school and although very nervous, declined to quit the school. Plattsmouth Turn Verein. The following are the hours of instruction of the Plattsmouth Turn Verein classes:
