Every Citizen Invited to Be Present at the Court House at 7:30-The Rock Island Case-L O O F Entertainment

Frank J. Morgan who is the head of the local Cuban relief work, after consulting the business men of this city and those interested in the cause of the oppressed and suffering Cubans, has deemed it best to call a meeting today. of citizens for tomorrow, Thursday night, at the county court room to determine as to the best and most here today. expeditious means of raising funds for the laudable work of feeding and clothing the needy. Every citizen is earnestly requested to be present and if possible come prepared to say what they can and will do in the way of substantial food, clothing, cash or anything that will be of service to suffering humanity will be gladly received. No citizen with a drop of the milk of human kindnes in his make up, and who is blessed with peace and plenty for the temporal man should disregard this urgent 7:30 tomorrow night-and let there be a large attendance.
