Connor was returned to the jail yesterday afternoon, and when he arrived there was a large basket of delicacies awaiting him, sent by his newly found sister.

"Sister," scornfully echoed Connor. "That's not my sister. I wish she was. She thinks she is, though, and say, don't give the soap away. She'll keep me in grub here all the time I'm in jail, and this is too good a graft to lose. See?"
