Raising Boys

Is a growing industry. It's been getting bigger every year since its infancy. New subjects come to light every little while and there seems to be great chance for development along this line. Years ago when a body raised a boy they raised his clothes, too. Now, it's different; it pays best to pay special attention to raising your boy right and then raise a little money and buy his clothes of a house that pays special attention to having Boys' Clothes that are right. We help a good many mothers to raise their boys; we sell Boys' Suits that they don't have to worry about. Our Spring lines of Boys' Long Pant and Short Pant Suits are ready. They're handsome and serviceable, made to wear, with all the threads twisted in for keeps, and dyed in plain, trustworthy colors that will last. Long Pant Suits as low as $3.50 and $5.00; Short Pant Suits $1.50 to $5.00.

Keep the boy dressed rightly; it gives him self-confidence and fires his ambition, and helps him learn his geography lesson.

"One Price and No Monkey Business."
