

IT'S ALL IN THE..

"LOOK"
AND THE "FEEL."

THERE is a sense of satisfaction in being well dressed, in knowing that you are wearing the correct thing in fabrics, as well as in the cut of your suit. It requires a good Tailor to make a Suit of Clothes properly. It also takes brains and skill to create style and to design pleasing patterns.

Why should you wear "hand-me-down," or eastern so-called "custom-made" (in sweat-shops), when you can get clothes made by a TAILOR at home, who employs no one but

..First-Class Tailors..

For nearly the same money? We try on all coats before they are finished, and we guarantee a fit and first-class work only. If you once have your clothes made by a Tailor (I say TAILOR), you'll never wear anything else, because it won't LOOK and FEEL right to you.

HE STORMED THE FORT.

Sampson Reduces San Juan With His Big Guns.

PORTO RICO IS AT OUR MERCY.

The Iowa and the Indiana Get in Their Work—The Spanish Fleet Scouring San Juan—A Sea Battle Soon to be Fought—A Great Conflict

WASHINGTON, May 13.—[Special to the NEWS]—San Juan was completely reduced. One man was killed on the Indiana and three were wounded on the Iowa. No other casualties are reported. The gun boats are resting in the bay and the war ships are cruising near by. Sampson has reported that the Cape Verde fleet is to the south of him probably en route to San Juan and he will meet it soon when the greatest naval conflict in the world's history will ensue.

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, May 12.—The American fleet, under Rear Admiral Sampson, bombarded San Juan de Porto Rico today. The following are the details of the bombardment thus far received: The bombardment began this morning. Rear Admiral Sampson, with nine war ships, arrived before San Juan just before sunrise. At a signal, the battleship Iowa fired the first shot, which took effect. Then the battleship Indiana opened fire. In a few minutes Morro fort was reduced to a heap of ruins. The fort made little effort to respond and was silenced almost immediately.

The Spanish gunboat Rita was captured by the auxiliary cruiser Yale, which took its crew on board. Thousands of the population and the foreign consuls sought refuge in the interior of the island.

SPAIN'S FLEET NOT FAR AWAY.
London, May 12.—The Daily Mail's Madrid special says: Admiral Bermejo, minister of marine, admitted tonight that the Spanish squadron, recently at Cape Verde islands, is now at Fort de France, Martinique, in the West Indies.

The Daily Mail's Funchal dispatch says: The torpedo boats arrived at Las Palmas Saturday. The Spanish training ship Nautilus has just arrived here.

St. Vincent, Cape Verde Islands, May 12.—The Spanish fleet, which left here nearly three-weeks ago, has not returned, and none of the ships have since been seen in this vicinity. The whereabouts of the fleet is not known here.

Madrid, May 13.—A dispatch from Marique to El Heroldo confirms the rival of the Cape Verde squadron, under Admiral Cervera, at Fort de France.

London May 13.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The government has received information that Admiral Cervera's voyage to Martinique was uneventful. The route to be taken to Porto Rico has not been known here, but it was embodied in Admiral Cervera's instructions. He was instructed to coal at a neutral port and probably selected Fort de France for that purpose."

London May 13.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily News, telegraphing says:

There are signs of manifest anxiety at the government offices. One high personage is convinced that the hostile squadrons are in sight of each other and that an encounter is probable in a few hours.

A Gay Party Captured.
A quartet of very festive people was taken in by Sheriff Wheeler and Chief Fitzpatrick last evening. They were two very sporty young men and two women of polka dot character. The sheriff received a telephone message from the chief of police at South Omaha last evening that two young men were wanted there for robbing a boarding house, giving a description of the men and saying they would doubtless be in the company of two women. The officers watched the evening trains and at 8:25 a quartet got off the B. & M. train answering the description of the parties wanted. The officers captured the party at the court house corner after following them from the depot, and lodged them in jail. The men were Fred Johnson and Ed Cherrington and the women Grace Corsey and Eva Waters.

At about 11 o'clock last night the women were liberated but the men held until Chief Brennan arrived here this morning from South Omaha and took the men to that city to answer to the charge of robbing a boarding house. There was no charge against the women, hence they were not held. One of the women is a notorious character here, known as Lulu Range. Judge Archer has a fine of $50 standing against her, assessed some months ago, but which she has been able to avoid paying up to this time, for some unexplained reason.

The men, when searched, were divested of a new revolver each, a new pocket book and the party had in cash $17.27. They all had new clothes and new shoes which was evidence that the boys had made a good haul and had been "blowing" themselves pretty freely upon the girls. One of the boys has just completed a term in the reform school and is doubtless now enroute to the penitentiary.

Banquet at The Riley.
Fifteen of the young men about town enjoyed a sumptuous banquet at the Hotel Riley last evening. The occasion was suggested by the fact that Henry Snyder would soon desert the ranks by getting married, and the boys wanted to show him a merry time before he deserted them.

The table was set diagonally across the dining room and a handsomer display of silver and china, fruits and flowers were never seen in this city. Landlord Opelt fairly out ranked his previous efforts in the setting out of a gorgeous table. The cost to the boys was $2 per plate and they all felt they had received the full worth of their money by the time the clock in the court house tower tolled the hour of midnight.

The menu was good and the service was better. The menu was as follows:

Sweet Pickles	Oyster Stew	Olives
	Radishes.
Pickled Tongue	Sugar Cured Ham
Spring Chicken on Toast
Chicken Salad	Shrimp Salad
Mixed Ham Sandwiches
Whipped Potatoes	New Peas

The traps were set for a swift throw of the clay pigeons, which accounts for the low score. The club shoots every week on the bottoms near the B. & M. depot.

An Elegant Banner.

Evergreen Camp, Woodmen of the World, No. 70, has received one of the handsomest banners ever seen in this city. It is bright crimson in color, resplendent in a border of gold lace, with gilt lettering. It is beautifully mounted, and the top of the staff is surmounted with a golden eagle. The boys will have it on Decoration day.
