THE CLASS OF '98.

Interesting Commencement Exercises of the Plattsmouth School.

The splendid audience room of the Presbyterian church which is rarely filled, was crowded last evening by one of the most cultured audiences that ever convened in this city, to listen to and show their interest and appreciation for the members of the graduating class of the city schools which were about to receive their diplomas.

The platform was nicely decorated with an alcove having been formed and flags and bunting were plentifully used, while palms and potted plants graced the front of the stage making a very pretty scene when set off by a background of fourteen elegantly attired handsome young ladies and the frank faces of the three boys who formed the graduating class.

The first number on the program was an organ voluntary by Miss Kessler, which was very good indeed. Then followed the invocation by Dr. Baird after which one of the graduates, Miss May, read and Ethel Dutton sang a pleasing duet which was well received. Miss Bertha White, the valedictorian, came next and looked charming in a white gown. Her subject was "Light," and it was discussed most interestingly and in an easy and graceful manner.

The "Promises of Life" was sung by Miss Claire Drummond in a sweet soprano voice of much power, that pleased the audience.

Hon. R. B. Windham in an address very appropriate to the occasion presented the diplomas.

Dr. Butler then delivered his address which was one of those bright, hopeful, uplifting talks that everyone is better for hearing.

Miss Lulu Liest sang beautifully as she always does and with the benediction by Rev. Campbell the exercises were at an end, and the class of '98 were full bodied alumni.

BEATEN AND LEFT FOR DEAD.

Murderous Footpads Assault Henry Rathman of Plattsmouth.

Because he refused to accede to the demands of four hold-up men for his money, Henry Rathman of Plattsmouth was terribly beaten about the head with a coupling pin this morning at 2:30 at the foot of Twelfth street and left for dead. His friend James Campbell, also of Plattsmouth, to save himself from the fate of his companion, rendered his valuable aid in the demand of the robbers. Eight dollars was taken from Rathman and six from Campbell. The former is now lying on a cot at the central station delirious.

Three of the four men are locked up at the station. They were positively identified by Campbell. They gave the names of Edward Porter, Frank Deidridge and William Johnson. Campbell and Rathman, who had just reached the city, were decoyed to the place they were assaulted and robbed by their associates. They met the men on Farnham and Tenth street and asked to be directed to a cheap lodging place. The men took them to the foot of Twelfth street.

Arriving there one of the men suddenly demanded of Rathman his money. Instead of complying Rathman started to run away. One of the men picked up a coupling pin and beat him into insensibility and then robbed him. Meanwhile the other three were searching Campbell for valuables. After the robbery the men ran south on Twelfth street. Rathman was removed to the central station in the patrol wagon, where his wounds were dressed.

The three prisoners were arrested an hour later.—Bee

A fellow went to a saloon this afternoon, and after investing to the amount of 45c in refreshments, he coolly refused to pay, and said the proprietor could not help himself. It took the proprietor about 2 minutes to polish the fellow off and put a face on him that looked like he had fallen in a stone crusher. He will be more careful next time who he tries to run a bluff on.

Number 11 a neat coach built at the shops here, was turned out this morning for superintendent Phelan of the Northern Division with headquarters at Alliance. Wash Smith and John Ledgeway accompanied the new car to Omaha this morning to inspect it thoroughly and see how it works before it is sent to its destination. The car is of usual style with kitchen, dining room, two bed rooms and the observation parlor at the rear of the car where end windows reach almost from the ceiling to the floor. The coach was nicely finished and looked very pretty in its coat of paint.

JOHN SCHAEFEGASSE.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism, and lay in bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved me almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.—A. T. MOREAUX, Laverne, Minn. You Are Not So Warm

As you will be during the next few weeks.

Why not be one of the comfortable people who wear our cool clothes?

Prices are at zero mark, while the quality is ninety in the shade.

For instance, the Summer Suits we are selling are marvels of excellence and coolness.

Linen Crashes--natural and sea grass.

Wool Crashes--very latest production.

Serges--blue is the proper shade.

English Worsteds--in greys and steel blues.

This kind of clothing is our greatest specialty in summer. We show more crash suits than all the rest of the town. Our success this year and in past years are our proofs that our SKELETON CLOTHING is superior to any other product. We've studied it for years and have mastered the art.

To get at the intrinsic worth--the real bargains you must appreciate that Skeleton Clothing is the most difficult to make. Its the most stylish and comfortable in hot weather--if properly made.

No garments are worn under more severe conditions that make them look like rags in a day or two--unless they are made to withstand these hardships.

We shall be pleased to show you a line that is full of beauty and merit.

Wiley Black's Experience.

Wiley Black and wife were at the exposition Wednesday and had a little experience that was not down on the program. In order to avoid the crowd they started home a little early from the grounds and as Wiley with a bundle in either hand was about to board a street car several men crowded on to him very rudely. Wiley told them to stand back or he would smash somebody. Just about that time he felt his pocketbook being lifted out of his pocket by a clever hand and he caught the fellow by bearing his arm down tight on him, and the fellow jerked away. Wiley dropped his bundles and says he made for the fellow who ran, and he gave him a hot chase for over a block before he lost him in the crowd. It happened that he did not lose any money or pocket book on account of detecting the thief in the act. The look belonged to Mr. Black's wife and was large for the pocket, is probably the reason he noticed its being taken out. Pickpockets are thick in the metropolis and it is said they did a thriving business on the opening day of the exposition, many an uncle Reuben got his eyes opened and his pocket relieved at the same time.
