What a Pity! Here is one of those who are either so prejudiced against all advertised remedies, or have become discouraged at the failure of other medicines to help them, and who will succumb to the grim destroyer without knowing of the wonderful value of Foley's Honey and Tar for all Throat and Lung troubles.

Men and Women Out of Work Can earn big wages and establish a permanent trade selling "Ironite." Foley's Kidney Cure is a safe, sure remedy for all kinds of kidney and bladder diseases.

A Shadowy Affair. Long after the shades of night had fallen upon the weary and dusty city, and the peaceful citizens had sought repose, and the blue-coated guardians of peace patrolled, with measured tread, the deserted thoroughfares, all the night owls had, (except some who had been detained extremely late,) gone to rest, a stealthy form might have been seen creeping, with cat-like stillness, up the back stairway leading to the photograph gallery of W. J. Koon.

During the past two weeks one Claude Swem, a traveling artist of Chicago, has been taking views about the city, and surrounding towns, and stopping with Mr. Koon. Mr. Swem returned from a trip to Louisville yesterday, and some one who must have been keeping tabs, and suspecting that his trip had been prosperous, thought to secure the records derived from his professional tour, knowing full well that the business places of Mr. Koon had no safe in which their money and other valuables could be deposited.

Mr. Koon arose to open the door when to his surprise and horror a man as large as Old Goliath of biblical fame confronted him. No one would be wrong in supposing that the door was immediately closed and securely bolted, while every hair on his head stood on end. Mr. Swem, hearing the noise and thinking that Walter was sick, rushed into the work room where Mr. Koon slept, and was horror-stricken to find him lying unconscious upon the floor. Whereupon he gave an unceremonious yell, which aroused the night-watch to whom he "told his troubles," and the ever vigilant minion of the law immediately began a search for the burglar. Just at this juncture Chas. Martin, who had been out upon legal business (?) returned and upon entering found Mr. Swem in the middle of the room tearing his hair and asking for protection from supposed danger, while Koon still remained unconscious.

The eastern sky had begun to show a ruddy glow which betokens the breaking of day before Martin was able to get the two thoroughly frightened artists reassured and quiet was again restored. Everybody should be aware of the festive burglar and be prepared to guard his property.

Recruiting at Nebraska City. Lieutenant Henry Wiley and Sergeant Paul Jensen, recruiting officers from company C, are still here at work, gathering up soldiers for company C to fill out the full quota of the company. Up to noon there had been sixteen enlisted, eleven of whom had been sent to join their company and several more had gone to get things in shape so that they could enlist. The recruiting officers need fourteen more men, and desire to take them all from this city and county. If, however, they do not get them, they will go to some other point to secure the same. It is their desire to have all enlisted by Saturday afternoon and leave then for their camp with their recruits. It is thought now that those who have enlisted up to noon tomorrow will be sent to Chattanooga tomorrow afternoon.—News

The National Game. There will be a game of base ball at the Chicago avenue grounds Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m., between the Louisville team and the Nebraska team. The Indian club is on its way east on a balling tour, and has played thus far on its trip thirteen games, winning eleven out of this number. Louisville puts up a good game this year, we understand, as the club is really stronger than last year. The admission will be twenty-five cents. This will be a rare opportunity for lovers of the national game, as this is the only Indian team on the road. In every game they have played the score has been kept down to the minimum.

Nicely Entertained. The friends of Will Carmack, he having enlisted, gave him a very pleasant and very complete surprise Wednesday evening at the home of his parents. Sixty young people were there and a jolly time was had. Nice refreshments were served, and social amusements were indulged in. Will is a member of company B, and the party was a sort of goodbye from his friends.

EXCURSION TO WASHINGTON.

Attractions of the National Educational Association.

The meeting of the national educational association at Washington, July 7 to 12, promises to be one of more than ordinary interest. The general meetings are to be divided and will offer a choice of program. The quality of the program of the general and the special meetings alike has never been surpassed. As to the city itself, it is a place every American should visit and study. As congress will probably be in session, there could be no more favorable time than while it is the center of the great preparations now in progress for the war with Spain. Even if congress should adjourn, there would remain the attraction of the work of the departments which will not relax during the continuance of the war. In addition to the many places of interest in Washington, arrangements have been made for railroad and boat excursions to all points of interest in the east center.

Parties going from Nebraska will take the most convenient route to Chicago, arriving there the morning of July 5. From there the party will go together on a special train over the Pennsylvania route, arriving in Washington the afternoon of July 6. Arrangements have been made for meals for the regular excursion party between Chicago and Washington at 50 cents each. Those not wishing meals can avail themselves of the lunch counters. Those desiring sleeping car arrangements should write the member of the committee of the initial route. Those who desire to join the party whether teachers or not should inform the committee in order to insure arrangements for their accommodation.

Change of Time on the B. & M. The new Kansas City train will change time next Sunday as follows: The train north which passes here now at 12:15 will be earlier and will pass here at 11:33. The train south will leave Omaha at 4:30 arriving here at 5:02 instead of 4:40 as formerly. This gives a little longer stay in Omaha, and will be especially convenient for Plattsmouth visitors to the exposition.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism, and lay in bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved me almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.—A. T. MOREAUX, Luverne, Minn. Sold by all druggists.

Mrs. Lee Faunce, who lost a hat through a forger named Smith, recovered the same, as he left it at one of the stores. This Smith worked the same racket at Plattsmouth and secured $9. Strange to say, he told the same story there as here, that of selling a load of grain. The man does not look to be more than nineteen years old, but he is one of the smartest forgers on the road. The hat of Mrs. Faunce was recovered this morning at D. P. Rolfe's lumber office where he left it.—Nebraska City News.

For reliable news from the seat of war, as well as all parts of the world, it must be admitted that the Omaha Bee is the peer of all newspapers in the west. There is no better time than right now to take a good daily paper, and Lehnoff Bros. the Bee's agent in Plattsmouth will deliver it to you every day in the month for sixty-five cents or one week for fifteen cents. Keep posted. Take the Bee.

Leaguers Attention. The business and social meeting of the Epworth League to be held Friday evening of this week at the home of Miss Birdella Smith, west of the high school, should be largely attended, as the annual election of officers will occur at that time.

Klondyke. What does it cost to get there? When and how should one go? What should one take? Where are the mines? How much have they produced? Is work plentiful? What wages are paid? Is living expensive? What are one's chances of "making a strike"? Complete and satisfactory replies to the above questions will be found in the Burlington route's "Klondyke Folder," now ready for distribution. Sixteen pages of practical information and an up-to-date map of Alaska and the Klondyke. Free at Burlington route ticket offices or sent on receipt of four cents in stamps by J. Francis, Gen. Pst. Agt. Burlington route, Omaha, Neb.

The Chief Burgess of Milesburg, Pa., says DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the best pills he ever used in his family during forty years of house keeping. They cure constipation, sick headache and stomach and liver troubles. Small in size but great in results. F. G. Fricke.
