

CITY AND COUNTY.

SATURDAY.

Chris Metzger of Cedar Creek was in town today. Louis Poltz is over from Weeping Water on business. Wm. Lau of South Bend precinct was in the city today. D. M. Lloyd, one of Rock Bluffs' successful farmers, was in the city today. Mrs. Shroyck went to Omaha to spend Sunday with friends and visit the exposition. Jacob Tritsch and M. L. Friedrich, two of the solid farmers of Eight Mile Grove precinct were in town today. Will Gillespie, the Mynard grain dealer, was in town today. He says there is no grain being moved now, and he has gone to farming. Major Scharrman who was crowded out of his regiment by fraud has been reinstated by Holcomb, and will go as major in the third regiment. Chas. Wesley, upon whom an operation was performed a short time ago, is rapidly recovering, and will in all probability be out in a short time. Connie Thrasher, the B. & M. messenger boy, tried to climb a tree on a bicycle last evening and today his face looks like it had run into a meat chopper. The last copy of the San Francisco Wave contains a good picture of Frank Johnson and Charles Searle, of the Nebraska soldiers, in camp there until recently. Murat Halstead, the noted newspaper man, passed through Omaha last evening, on his way to join General Merritt, whom he will accompany to the Philippines. Geo. Meisinger of Pekin, Ill., came here a few days ago for a two weeks' visit with relatives. He brought two children out to live with their uncle, P. P. Meisinger. A ship arrived at San Francisco yesterday which spoke to the American transports in mid-ocean. The Senator which carried the Nebraska boys reported all well on board. It is said that Rev. Frank Campbell, Elder Youtzy and Fred Warren are applicants for the position of Chaplain in the Third regiment. There are doubtless many other applicants. Commissioner Hayes returned to his home at Elmwood by way of Lincoln this afternoon. He will return Wednesday, when the board meets John C. Watson for a tussle over the Union road. Several of the men killed in the Santiago encounter yesterday were from Fort Crook. Some of those whom our people want to see at the M. P. depot as they passed through here are already sleeping under Cuban here. A farmer down in Liberty precinct is said to have saved off bridge supports and let the bridge down into the creek in an effort to close up what is claimed to be a county road. The commissioners will see to it that all damages are paid for. While the Sells-Forepaugh show was on at Sioux City, yesterday, a storm blew down the big tent, killing one man and injuring many others. A panic ensued and many almost died from fright. Fortunately the wild beasts did not get out and quiet was soon restored. The Farmers' Mutual Insurance company held a directors' meeting at the court house in this city today. The company was found to be in a flourishing condition and carries a big line of insurance, the money for which does not go out of the state, but is kept here at home. If the millions which Nebraska annually sends away to enrich foreign insurance companies, were kept at home, the state and all its people would be vastly better off.

MONDAY.

It keeps two men busy unloading farm implements for August Gordon of late. D. W. Foster is up from Union today looking after business in the county court. J. S. Howard and son, Carl, of York, were Sunday guests of S. A. Davis and wife of this city. Mrs. Lillian Carrarer returned to her home yesterday after spending a few days in this city. Miss Amelia Valley departed yesterday for an extended visit in Chicago, and Washington, D. C. Dr. Denning had business in Lincoln yesterday, and came down to Omaha to spend a day at the exposition. After July 1, every bank check will require a two cent revenue stamp. This is a part of the new war tax. Philadelphia's $20,000,000 city hall is to have a clock costing $27,960. It will have four dials twenty-three feet wide. A petition is in circulation here, asking for the appointment of Elder Youtzy as chaplain of the Third regiment. Hez Strong and John Brown of Nebraska came up to see the soldier boys before their departure for Fort Omaha. District court convened this morning and then adjourned to Thursday morning at nine o'clock, when the Clemmons case will be finished. Puck Vennor of Cass county and Miss Nannie B. Anderson of Otoe county have been granted a marriage license by Judge Joyce of Otoe county. A heroic bronze statue of Benjamin Franklin, the gift of Justus Stravbrage, is to be placed in front of the postoffice in Philadelphia. It cost $10,000. Wiley Black went to Omaha this

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

David Kime of Nebraska Writes a Good Letter from Chickamauga. We are indebted to the Nebraska Register for the following: CAMP GEORGE H. THOMAS, CHICKAMAUGA PARK, Ga., June 10, 1898.—We are still in Georgia, but if any one thinks we are lounging around and idling away our time they are greatly mistaken. For never was a great army of men working harder or more faithfully preparing for a future that is so full of good intentions and noble purposes, viz: the freeing of a suffering and oppressed people. It is a wonderful sight here every day after the cheerful notes of the bugle have called the men for miles around to form in companies, and companies into battalions, and battalions into divisions, and divisions into brigades and so on, until thousands and tens of thousands of men are formed in battle array with their bright uniforms, shining buttons and bristling bayonets glittering in the sun, until one imagines they are looking at a great show, a grand panorama, into which in the end the price of admission will be human lives, and the men all seem to realize this. They look so stern and solemn, obeying blindly and implicitly every command of their officers, acting as if one man, a part of one great piece of machinery, and they must do this or all would be confusion and disorder, and in a battle all would be lost. So it behooves us in action, for our own safety, no matter how thick and hot the balls and shells may be flying around us, to execute the orders given to us. I write this to convince you that we know now, if not before, we are engaged in no child's play. And yet the duties of a soldier are not disagreeable, in fact they are of a pleasant nature to those who have taken the right kind of interest in the cause they have espoused. This national park of the south is an interesting place, and is a lively place just now. A great city of white tents, its boulevards and roads lined with immense trains of four and six mule teams and an immense army of ambulances and horseback riders, all hurrying and scurrying on errands for Uncle Sam. The bands are playing continuously, and there are regiments coming in from some part of the country every day, and those that have been there longest and are best equipped are ordered to the front. Don't know what day or hour our turn will come, but hope it will be soon. The boys all seem anxious to go forward. I visited Lookout mountain yesterday. There is a street railway and a trolley that elevates you to the top of that famous mountain. They have made a delightful summer resort out of that staid, solemn monarch, and now all is pleasure and merriment, where once the very air was rent with groans and sighs. It seems now, towering there aloft, to be looking down with contempt upon everything that surrounds it; as if nothing in the present, or the future, could possibly interest or compare with the awful scenes of carnage and tragedies that were enacted upon its very growing summit, and which made its name familiar to every man, woman and child who knows the letters of the alphabet all over the civilized world. And right at its feet, as if conscious of protection from so grand a sentinel is that lovely southern city, Chattanooga, with its clean, shady streets and avenues, its beautiful lawns and pretty residences. Just on the other side of the city from Lookout mountain, and a close competitor, is Missionary Ridge, which also has an interesting history for the tourist or pilgrim. Battle Near Santiago. Friday 1,600 American cavalrymen attacked 2,000 Spaniards who were hidden in the brush and timber, and a fierce conflict ensued, in which the Spaniards were put to flight. Fifty of our soldiers were wounded, and nearly half of that number will die. Hamilton Fish, a grandson of Grant's famous secretary of state, was one of the killed. He was a graduate of Columbia and came of a wealthy and prominent family. The zeal and bravery of the American troops will cause unnecessary loss of life unless the men are held in check. Rough Riders are Wrecked. St. Joseph, Mo., June 24.—As the second section of the Burlington train carrying the Tolly Cowboy regiment of cavalry from Fort D. A. Russell to Jacksonville, Florida, was pulling into the St. Joseph Union station at 9:30 this morning the engine jumped the track and after plowing through the earth for thirty feet toppled over on its side. Engineer W. Fuller of this city, who bravely remained at his post, was caught beneath the tender and killed. Fireman George Christian, who also lives here, was so badly scalded that he will die. Three cars of horses were also derailed, but not one of the animals was scratched. The engine was badly wrecked. Bob Moore of Lafayette, Ind., says that for constipation he has found DeWitt's Little Early Risers to be perfect. They never gripe. Try them for stomach and liver troubles. F. G. Fricke. Write to J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Burlington Route, Omaha, for handsome thirty-two page pamphlet, descriptive of the Trans-Mississippi exposition. Free. The editor of the Evans City, Pa., Globe, writes: "One Minute Cough Cure is rightly named. It cured my children after all other remedies failed." It cures coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. F. G. Fricke. Old papers for sale at this office.

Of Interest to Volunteers.

Mayor Richey is in receipt of the following letter which no doubt may be of personal interest to many readers of the NEWS. Recruiting Office United States Volunteer Engineers, Park Hotel, Omaha, Nebraska. For the information of those desiring to enlist in my company of Volunteer Engineers. A brigade of Volunteer Engineers is to be organized from the whole United States, and I am commissioned to form one company from North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa and Nebraska. The duties of engineer soldiers are first duties of infantry soldiers and in addition thereto to perform the various kinds of engineering work that may become necessary, such as building bridges, railroads, intrenchments, canals, pontoons, corduroy roads, surveys, maps, telegraph lines etc., and to demolish similar work of the enemy. For this work we want machinists, steam engineers, blacksmiths, foremen, carpenters, telegraphers, linemen, photographers, draftsmen, topographers, trackmen, riggers, boatmen, good all round laborers, and those skilled in the use of explosives. While it is desired to have the above trades and professions represented, all members are enlisted as soldiers, and are armed and equipped as such. When occasion requires the services of any particular calling, those having it will be detailed for the duty, and will be assisted by the others. All will be expected to work at anything they may be called upon to do. The company will be officered by three commissioned officers appointed by the president of the United States. There will be eight sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, forty-five first-class privates and twenty-eight second-class privates. The non-commissioned officers are appointed by the captain with the approval of the colonel and major of the regiment and from the ranks. These places will be filled by those who are not only skilled in their trade or profession, but who have special capacity for handling men. The pay is—sergeants, $40.80; corporals, $24.00; first-class privates, $20.40, and second-class, $15.60 per month; also rations, clothing, bedding and medicine. The term of enlistment is two years. It is to be understood that no one will be accepted on account of being skilled in anyone particular calling, if he is not bodily able and willing to help with the labor pertaining to the other branches of the work. The physical qualifications are—age eighteen to forty-five years; weight, 120 to 190 pounds; height, not less than five feet four inches; sound, able bodied and free from disease. They will have to pass the usual medical examination. Married men are not eligible. Those who enlist will be fed and lodged at government expense from time of enlistment until mustered in which will be as soon as the organization is completed, about July 1st. Pay to begin as soon as mustered in. Applicants will have to pay fare to Omaha. The above information is in answer to the many questions asked by applicants, and may be considered as a personal communication. If, after carefully considering it, you desire to enlist you will please report at my office by July 1, with reference as to ability and character. A. H. WEBER, Capt. U. S. Volunteer Engineers. Household Gods. The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's. Regular size 50c and $1. The trade in binding twine has been brisk so far and our local dealer, H. E. Pankonin, tells the Courier that up to Thursday of this week his sales reached the seemingly wonderful sum of $9,800. This amount includes the sales at his branch store at Gretna. Mr. Pankonin purchased a large amount of twine when the price was down and those who took his advice bought early and saved money by it, but others who waited for a decline in prices are now compelled to pay double former prices with prospects for a still further advance.—Louisville Courier. M. L. Yeum, Cameron, Pa., says "I was a sufferer for ten years, trying all kinds of pile remedies, but without success. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure." A permanent cure for piles DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has no equal. F. G. Fricke & Co. Burlington Inn. Six blocks from exposition. A. D. Touzalin, manager; E. B. Mooney, clerk. Rooms $1.00 per day—special rates by week or month. Everything first class. Take Dodge street car from Union depot to 20th and Burdette streets. Write us for particulars. COMPANY B NOTES.

From Monday's Daily. Lower Main street will miss company B very much, as the boys have made their headquarters at the Parkins and at Hotel Plattsmouth. The boys make a fine appearance now and we doubt if a single company in the entire regiment will make as good an appearance as company B. The fastest man on foot in the company is S. A. Morrison, who weighs 240 pounds. He is also a favorite with the ladies and receives more bouquets than anybody. Several new recruits have come in during the last few days who will be held here to take the places of those who fail to pass. A son of Ed Stophor was examined today. Orders have been received by Captain Sheldon to report with his company at Omaha Wednesday of this week. They expect to take the first train on the B & M at 7:32 A. M. The company attended the special services at the M. E. church last evening, where in addition to an able sermon, they listened to a pretty solo by Miss Street, entitled, "The Vacant Chair," and a nice solo by W. C. Willetts. It is, or should be, the highest aim of every merchant to please his customers; and that the wide-awake drug firm of Meyers & Eschleman, St. Louis, Ill., is doing so, is proven by the following, from Mr. Eschleman: "It my sixteen years, experience in the drug business I have never seen or sold or tried a medicine that gave as good satisfaction as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy." Sold by all druggists. Subscribe for THE NEWS—the best paper in the city. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. Probate Notice. In county court, Cass county, Nebraska.
