REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from their respective counties to meet in convention in the city of Lincoln, on Wednesday, August 10, 1898, at ten o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices:

1. Governor.
2. Lieutenant governor.
3. Secretary of state.
4. Auditor of public accounts.
5. Treasurer.
6. Superintendent of public instruction.
7. Attorney-general.
8. Commissioner of public land and buildings.

And to transact such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows: The apportionment being based upon the vote cast for Hon. Albert J. Burnham, for presidential elector in 1896, giving each county one delegate at large and one for each 125 votes and a major fraction thereof:

CALL FOR COUNTY CONVENTION.

The republicans of Cass county are hereby called to meet in convention at Weeping Water, Nebraska, on Saturday, July 30, 1898, at one o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination candidates for the following offices, to-wit: County attorney, two members of the legislature, one senator, one member of the board of county commissioners from the third district; also to select 24 delegates to the state convention at Lincoln, August 10, at 10 o'clock a. m.; also 26 delegates to the first congressional convention at Lincoln, on August 3, at 8 p. m., and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

The committee recommended that there be no proxies recognized, but that the delegates present from each precinct or ward cast its full vote. The primaries to select delegates to said convention will be held on Saturday, July 23. Representation is based on the vote cast for C. W. Kaley, (represent for the state university in 1897,) being one delegate for each 15 votes or major fraction thereof, and one delegate at large for each precinct or ward:

An exchange has wisely concluded that the Lord is on the side of the army that can shoot straight.

George Blackwell of Omaha will not amuse himself choking the breath out of his wife any more. She had concealed a pistol under her pillow and when George thought he had her where she couldn't squeal she reached around for it and ventilated his lung with a bullet hole. The new woman declines to be monkeyed with.—State Journal.

The exploit of the little yacht Gloucester in pursuing, ridding and sinking the two Spanish torpedo destroyers, the Furor and the Pluton, and then rescuing the crews that had thrown themselves into the water, and also helping Cervera get away from his sinking flagship, will long be remembered. Not a shot hit her when she was, single-headed, engaging these two modern terrors of the sea. It was simply a question of gunnery for the Gloucester seems to have placed her shots just where she wanted them.—Ex.
