THE candidacy of Prof. S. A. Morrison for state superintendent of public instruction deserves the earnest support of the better element of the party everywhere.

E. J. BURKETT, the next nominee for congress from this district, is a young man of ability and will make a member who will look after the interests of his constituents.

THE sugar trust crowd, which was opposing Hawaiian annexation with so much vigor, claiming that we would have serious trouble with other nations if we annexed the islands, proved to be false prophets. The kingdom has become a part of the United States, with not even a whisper of protest from any other country, although we have a war on our hands.

JUDGE HAYWARD will be nominated for governor by the republican state convention by acclamation, an honor seldom conferred in this state. His nomination also means an election, for no fusion candidate will be able to overcome his popularity, which is so well deserved. We have insisted for months that Hayward's candidacy was the proper and in every way sensible thing for republicans to recognize, and we note with pleasure that the feeling is growing very rapidly.

INFORMATION AND OPINIONS.

Conroy Hanks, the wealthy farmer who disappeared from his home south of Nebraska City last week, has not been found yet, though vigorous search has been made for him. Foul play is suspected but no clue has thus far been obtainable.

Dave Lee came down from Sheridan last week. He says that on account of so many cowboys going to Cuba, labor out there is scarce and wages high. Ranchmen are paying $40 where formerly they paid $20.—Alliance Grip.

What has become of Paramount Bount? He seems to have been lost from view, and some one should see to it that he is notified of the raising of the stars and stripes at Hawaii at once.

We are not booming or grooming one candidate over another, but with reference to A. J. Graves, the NEWS is willing to say that he is a clean, conscientious official, honest and reliable as an official and as a citizen.

An Atchison woman wasn't satisfied until she had married her daughter in several stations above her, and now the girl's father is heart broken because he has a son-in-law who snubs him.—Atchison Globe.

The barbed wire defenses of San Juan were no joke to the charging Americans. The wires were so close together that the cutters had to spread them apart with their hands to get room enough to insert the cutting instruments. And as one of the men expressed it, "there seemed to be a barbed wire fence every ten feet. When men are in a great hurry and under a hot fire, these obstructions are somewhat discouraging. But the poor Spaniards, after the battle was done, declared that "the Yankees never stopped coming a minute" and they were absolutely paralyzed by the celerity with which they went through those fences.—Ex.

One bad thing about the style of fighting in vogue in the American navy is that there is very little left that is worth picking up.

General Correa, Spanish minister of war, wants a plebiscite taken in Cuba to see whether the people there really want to cut loose from Spain. That is all right enough, but we will take the vote after we have sent Blanco and all his army and camp followers out of the island. Then there will be no monkeying with the returns.

H. M. Boydston of Nebraska City has withdrawn from the race as a democratic aspirant in the First congressional district. A well known democrat said yesterday that Mr. Boydston gave up so early in the game because of the great amount of indignation expressed by his democratic constituents over the appointment of a colored man to a job at the Trans-Mississippi exposition. The appointment is credited to Mr. Boydston, who is a member of the state board in control. The colored man came from Montana and has not long been a resident of this state, so when his appointment was credited to Mr. Boydston there was a storm in old Oteo county democracy.—State Journal.

Some time ago W. C. Mounts advertised for a barber. Charles E. Brown responded and worked until it was discovered that he could not stand the smell of bay rum without getting too full for utterance, when he was allowed to shift. Watching a favorable opportunity he sneaked into the R. R. ticket office and swiped two tickets. On attempting to pass one of them on the conductor he realized that his theft had been discovered. He was given a hearing in Judge L. A. Berry's court on Tuesday and fined $50, in default of which he will spend thirty days in jail, unless sooner released by his skill in jumping through the cracks in the side of the building.—Alliance Grip.

Household Gods.
The ancient Greeks believed that the Penates were the gods who attended to the welfare and prosperity of the family. They were worshipped as household gods. The household god of today is Dr. King's New Discovery. For consumption, coughs, colds and for all affections of throat, chest and lungs, it is invaluable. It has been tried for a quarter of a century and is guaranteed to cure or money returned. No household should be without this good angel. It is pleasant to take and a safe and sure remedy for old and young. Free trial bottles at F. G. Fricke & Co's. Regular size 50c and $1.

The Salem Chautauqua.
The Salem Chautauqua opens in about one week, (Saturday July 30) and many of our people are arranging to attend. There is no better place in the west to spend an outing, presenting as it does a most charming combination of beautiful grounds, splendid program and courteous treatment to all its patrons. Reduced rates on railroads to all wishing to attend.

At this particular season of the year a most delightful outing may be cheaply arranged by camping at the Salem Chautauqua where a jolly crowd and good entertainment awaits all visitors. It opens July 30 and closes August 7. See bills and program.

E. B. Banks, of Lewisville, Texas, writes that one box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve was worth $50,000 to him. It cured his piles of ten years standing. He advises others to try it. It also cures eczema, skin diseases and obstinate sores. F. G. Fricke.

Essays on MILK are Good, but CREAM is better...

We give you the CREAM of the SHOE subject, from the most reliable manufacturers in the United States, where nothing but skilled labor is employed and where doubtful shoes are refused by an expert, and not permitted to pass to the trade.

..... We did NOT receive a paltry consignment of Twenty Cases of STUFF that looks like Shoes, and then swell up and advertise "the Largest Stock" of shoes, to induce you to our place of business, and then compel you to look with chagrin and disgust on the small assortment and make shift with something you did not want. We never have to resort to such misleading statements, for we have...

So, if you cannot be suited in two or three articles, you don't have to stand and scratch your head and wonder what to do, for we have an UNLIMITED RESERVE, and we can spring something this spring—during the beautiful Springtime—that will spring you to your feet and make you say: "I'll take those."

REPAIRING. ROB'T SHERWOOD FOOT MILLINER

I desire to attest to the merits of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as one of the most valuable and efficient preparations on the market. It broke an exceedingly dangerous cough for me in 24 hours, and in gratitude therefor, I desire to inform you that I will never be without it and you should feel proud of the high esteem in which your Remedies are held by people in general. It is the one remedy among ten thousand. Success to it.—O. R. DOWNEY, Editor Democrat, Albion, Ind. For sale by all druggists.

Win your battles against disease by acting promptly. One Minute Cough Cure produces immediate results; when taken early it prevents consumption. And in later stages it furnishes prompt relief. F. G. Fricke.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism, and lay in bed until May 21st, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved me almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.—A. T. MOREAUX, Luverne, Minn. Sold by all druggists.

A man stands no chance of being elected to the mayorship of a city unless he enjoys the confidence and esteem of his neighbors. Geo. W. Humphrey is the popular mayor of Swanton, Ohio, and under date of Jan. 17, 1896, he writes as follows: "This is to certify to our appreciation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. My family and neighbors have tested it, and we know it is an excellent remedy for coughs and colds.—GEORGE W. HUMPHREY." Sold by all druggists.

Bob Moore of LaCayatta, Ind., says that for constipation he has found DeWitt's Little Early Risers to be perfect. They never gripe. Try them for stomachic and liver troubles. F. G. Fricke.
