

TERMS OF SURRENDER.

They Are Agreed To By Both Blanco and Miles.

WATSON'S FLEET OFF FOR SPAIN

The Caroline Islands To Be Gobbled Up at Once By the Monterey On Her Way to the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 16, 9:20 a. m.—The terms of the surrender of Santiago are, briefly stated, as follows. Guns and defenses to be turned over in good condition; Spaniards to clear harbor of mines and to be transported to Spain at once. These terms have been agreed to by Blanco and Miles, but must be approved by Washington and Madrid.

New York, July 16.—A special to the Tribune from Washington says:

The "raiding squadron" is expected to start for the coast of Spain Saturday. The navy department understands that Commodore Watson has ships coaled to the limit of their bunker capacity, and nothing should keep him another day at Guantanamo. He ought to pass off St. Thomas next Wednesday, upon the 2,600 miles straight away course for the Canaries, where his formidable force should appear about August 1.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—Advises from Honolulu indicate that the coast defense vessel Monterey, will take possession of the Caroline islands before reaching Manila. While in Honolulu harbor, Commander Lenz of the Monterey borrowed charts of the Carolines from Captain Bray of the missionary bark, Morning Star, and also consulted with that navigator regarding the harbors of the islands. Commander Lenz promised to return the charts when he reached the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 18.—Miles goes to Porto Rico on the Yale today with the First Division of Sampson's fleet.

General Brooke had another conference today with Secretary Alger with reference to preparations for the Porto Rico expedition. The general reported that his army is now ready and it is believed that they can be embarked within a fortnight. Newport News will be the port of departure of the larger part of the expedition. The army of occupation is expected to consist of about 25,000 men, and it has been decided to take no chances of repeating the mistake made in Shafter's case of landing with an insufficient force and then being obliged to lie idle at a critical moment awaiting reinforcements. The employment of an overpowering force is also expected to save bloodshed.

A Queer Conviction.

Four (hundred) silver republicans met in solemn convocation Saturday, and called their primaries and convention.
Of course there was no design in it, as by accident the convention is called to meet at Louisville, July 30, the same time and place designated by the pope a week ago.

But this is not all, the soft-shell democratic central committee, or a few members of it, got together here and accidentally called their primaries for July 26, and convention July 30, at Louisville.

Mat Gering has been very busy guiding the machine, keeping it out of deep water, and the coincident spoken of will not likely interfere with his plans, but it may do so. There was the smallest turnout of the faithful we ever saw, and not much confidence was shown in the chances for electing any part of the ticket to be named.

As Others See Us.

It is reported that Matt Gering, the insignificant Plattsmouth lawyer, who defends Bethlehem people in the Mills county court, is a candidate for the fusion nomination for congress over in his Nebraska district. Mr.
Gering would make an ideal Nebraska populist congressman. He is small in physique and in manner. He should be nominated.—Glenwood Opinion.

Teacher's Examination.

The following is a list of those being examined Saturday by Superintendent Farley for certificates as teachers:

mouth; Ella Rivett and Etta Gordon, Elmwood; Margaret Countryman, Nebraska; Mamie Snyder, Louisville; Annetta Woods, Weeping Water; Claire Drummond, Plattsmouth, and Mr. Lewis Sawyer, Ashland.

A New Improvement.

James W. Sago has purchased the Despain corner, at the corner of Pearl and Seventh street, and will begin the erection of a new lively barn at once to be 44x140 feet in dimensions. It will have all the modern conveniences and will be one of the best barns in the county. Mr. Sago's losses have not discouraged him, and he proposes to go ahead with renewed energy.

the bogs of Killarney, may be seen at the News office.

Some zephyrs too warm for comfort are reported in Kansas, but no damage to crops has yet resulted.

a visit from his brother, Allen of Malvern, accompanied him to the exposition this morning.

Nebraska City has a man down there named Mutton. It would be bad for him to live in Havana just now, as they are short on mutton.

The report of a damaging frost in Michigan which ruined the corn in two counties last night, has had no visible effect on the weather here.

An esteemed (?) Spanish contemporary remarks: "The Yankee President Magglin is a naturalized Chinaman, having been born in Canton." That won't wash.—Ex.

night, while his family will visit durof New York City, left for home today after a pleasant visit with his cousin, Byron Clark. He was accompanied by Mr. Clark Bartlett, a successful newspaper man of Washington, Pennsylvania.

W. D. Jones returned home last evening from Maywood. He says in all his thirty-five years residence in Nebraska he never saw such universal bad crops. The burnt district this year is in the heart of the wheat and corn belt.

Miss Clara Street is entertaining a company of young lady friends this afternoon in honor of her guests, Miss Innocence Clinton of Lincoln, Miss Margaret Farley of Durango, Colorado, and her sister, Miss Mae Street, who is home for the summer.

W. J. White and Louis Ottant, the decorator, went to Omaha to look at some church decorations, in order to select designs for decorating the interior of St. Luke's church, in this city. St. Luke's is one of the oldest churches here, and is in need of interior decorations very much. The ladies raised the necessary funds to pay for it some time ago.

MONDAY.

Father Carney departed for York bridge inspecting tour this afternoon.

Mascot, on a visit with relatives.
Jack is looking finer than silk, and reports everything looking fine out west.

The death of Mrs. Hillary, formerly Miss Gertrude Kearney, will be read with sincere regret by a large number of friends in this city, where she was greatly beloved.

John Doyle in a letter to friends received here today, says six troops of the Fourth cavalry, he being a part of the crowd of 688 men, sailed for Manila on the Peru. John may get to see a warm time yet.

Dr. Cook left last evening for Lincoln to enter the sanitarium. He will take a course of treatment for rheumatism. He has been ailing for some time and his many friends here hope to learn of his complete recovery very soon.

A man was in town last night looking for a crippled boy that had been stolen by a tramp. The boy lived with his parents at Des Moines and the two had been traced this way. The tramp used the boy for begging purposes.

A suffering public has been enquiring what to do for chiggers, the little pests which burrow in the flesh, creating much discomfort. We have a sure remedy, safe and easily obtainable; it is none other than common alcohol. Rubbed on Mr. Chigger it kills him instantly.

Engineer Phelps of the B. & M. is setting the stakes today for the track work a mile west of Oreadopolis where the track for the distance of a mile will be raised from four to five feet.
This will give employment to a large number of men for several weeks and, work we are informed is to begin at once.

A MAN BREAKS JAIL.

John Stettler Picks His Way Through the Brick Wall Sunday Evening.

John Stettler, the tramp who claims New York as his residence, and who was bound over to the district court some time ago on the charge of attempting to assault a little girl, has been a quiet prisoner and during the day the jailer, out of humanity, had allowed the fellow the freedom of the corridor, the cell being stifling hot.

On Sunday evening Jailer Mc-Bride went out for a drive and returned home about nine o'clock, expecting to lock his prisoner in the cell, as usual. He had not reached the jail, however, until he learned that Stettler had punched a hole through the wall and escaped.

It seems he had used a stove poker to tear out a hole on the east side large enough to admit his body. On the outside he was favored by having a piano box against the wall, so that the hole which he had cut in the wall was not visible. In this manner he was enabled to have the place of egress all ready and watch for an opportune time to fly. From all accounts, he must have gotten out about 8:15 and taken the fast freight across the river, as it slows up before crossing the bridge so a man could get on. The bridge watchman said a man was on the train, standing down between the cars on the bumpers. This is the only clue obtainable. Mr. McBride went to Oreadopolis and John Murray went to Pacific Junction, but so far Mr. Stettler stays out of sight.

The fellow has probably been several days taking out the brick, as he had them hidden under a blanket in another part of the jail. George Hall was in jail with him and claims to know nothing about the fellow breaking a hole in the wall. Hall did not get out, as his time is up tomorrow.

The sheriff has offered $50.00 reward for the capture of Stettler and thinks he will get him.

Company B Delighted.

Henry McKeen was happy as a clam at high tide this morning, his schemes to get all the boys of company B fixed out with what he calls "handy household" having been accomplished.

The articles consist of a neat little sack of calico or gingham and in that is a morocco case with pockets containing needles, pins and several skeins of thread and some cordons.

Mrs. Wescott and her Sunday school class made a large number of them. Mrs. Wescott's efforts go far to bring about their successful completion.

Miss May Bates and Mrs. Asher Clark rendered valuable service also, and completed a large number. On Sunday H. C. McKeen, Mrs. Wescott, Misses Ella and Rotta Clark, Mabel Eaton, Sadie Black Dora Fricke, Lillian Shryock and a few others whose names we did not learn, went to Fort Omaha and presented company B with the articles they had prepared for them. The boys were delighted beyond measure. Mrs. Wescott made them a neat speech, which was roundly applauded, and other companies in the regiment regretted that they too had not enlisted from Cass county and Plattsmouth in particular. The act of presenting such useful articles was a most graceful one, and too much cannot be said in praise of the ladies who assisted in the work.

The soldier boys will think of the incident with pleasure a thousand times before they return home, and feel thankful that they had such thoughtful friends in Plattsmouth.

A Sad Case.

Many people here became acquainted with First Sergeant Finney, one of the soldier boys from Weeping Water, where he had occupied the position of assistant cashier of the First National Bank. Mr. Finney was much devoted to the manual of arms, and was anxious to go to the front, but the physical examination was too rigid, and he failed to pass. He was deeply disappointed and soon after went violently insane, and is now at the state hospital at Lincoln, where a constant attendant is required. He will be remembered here as the officer who always called the roll in front of the court house.

Death of Mrs. Hillary.

Miss Gertrude Kearney, well known here, where she resided the greater part of her life, was married over a year ago to H. F. Hillary, and were living at Terry, South Dakota. Sunday a brief telegram from Rochford, South Dakota, was received here by friends saying she had died there Sunday morning very suddenly. No details of her illness were given. The funeral took place at Council Bluffs today.
