The Evening Post, printed at Lincoln, gave up the ghost yesterday, and numerous creditors who were anxious to help a new venture along mourn the loss of some good money.

Thousands of persons have been cured of piles by using DeWitt's Little Hazel Salve. It heals promptly and cures eczema and all skin diseases. It gives immediate relief. F. G. Frick.

There is more sickness in this city at the present time than ever before, though but few deaths have occurred. Lung trouble is one of the prevailing ailments.

A torpid liver robs you of ambition and ruins your health. DeWitt's Little Early Risers cleanse the liver, cure constipation and all stomach and liver troubles. F. G. Frick & Co.

FOR SALE--A fine residence property for sale cheap for cash. An eight room house, with cistern and city water. Pleasantly located. Enquire at premises, 517 North Sixth street.

The Chicago & Great Western railway is said to be surveying a line in Omaha over the new Council Bluffs bridge. This will be a big thing for the metropolis if completed this fall or even next spring.

Chris. Wohlfarth today completed a neat fence around the north side of the court house square, using red cedar posts, which will last for years. The fence adds much to the appearance of the north lawn.

Col. Thrasher has sold Mrs. B. F. Pearce's residence in the second ward to a Mrs. Emerson, of Glenwood, who will move to Plattsmouth. Mrs. Pearce will spend part of her time with relatives in Connecticut.

John Grubill received a letter from his brother, Ezra, who went to Dakota a short time since. Ezra reports good times up there, with all kinds of work plentiful. He at present is working at the carpenter trade, and is well pleased with the country.

E. H. Frick writes that a box of DeWitt's Little Hazel Salve was worth $50,000 to him. He cured his piles of ten years standing. He advises others to try it. It also cures eczema, skin diseases and obstinate sores. F. G. Frick.

The most elegant line of lamps in all the latest designs have just been received at Bennett & Turner's. So cheap as to be really surprising. They also have a fine line of bed room sets in beautiful patterns. It will pay you to call and see them and get prices.

J. C. Peterson tells about Alaska salmon which crowd up the fresh water streams to spawn being so thick in places as to crowd the outer ones entirely out of the water onto the bank where they may be picked up. This is a pretty big fish story but there is no doubt of its being true. Stories almost as large have come from Oregon.

AS THEY COME AND GO.

Joe Lloyds made their first visit to the exposition today.

W. Willis took in the exposition today and attended to business.

Robert Vass and Charles Martin are in the metropolis on business today.

Phil Coffman of Pacific Junction was here today meeting old friends.

Ed Martin and daughters, Flora and Lou, were exposition visitors this afternoon.

George Shrader and family drove in and took the early train for Omaha this morning.

Dr. Humphrey was called to Weeping Water Sunday in consultation with Dr. Fato.

Miss Fannie King of Jacksonville, Illinois, is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. W. Atwood.

Jo, Shera and family came up from Rock Bluffs to take the train for the exposition today.

Fred Elvinger and family and Mrs. Weidman were in attendance at the exposition today.

Sam Green is in from Geneva accompanied by H. O. McFerron to visit the exposition.

L. A. Moore, his cousin Mrs. Hoppling, and Miss Capitola Black, were exposition visitors today.

Charley Kerr and Mortimer Coleman visited Glenwood Sunday on their wheels and report a good time.

D. K. Barr received a telegram from Buffalo Bill asking him to come to the show tomorrow, so of course he will go.

Judge Archer, after disposing of a muskelon deal in his court, departed today for Omaha, where he will take in Buffalo Bill.

John, Charles and Ferdinand Hennings with their families drove in and boarded the early morning B. & M. train for Omaha today.

Ed Donat and children went up to Schuyler today, where they will enjoy a visit with relatives in the country. When Ed gets back he will be a full-fledged farmer.

Mrs. Jane Kirkham arrived home today from an extended visit with relatives in Pennsylvania. Her son, John, met her in Chicago and returned with her.

Quince Connelly unbitched his team from the plow this morning and drove up to town with his family where they boarded the early train for Omaha. They will take in Buffalo Bill's show and other wonders of the exposition.

Miss Clara Street left yesterday in company with her sister, Mae, for Durango, Colorado where she will teach vocal music. Miss Street has been an apt pupil of Miss Lillian Terry, of Omaha, who has few equals in the country she having studied under Mme. Colini of London and Sim Reerses of Paris. Durango is fortunate in securing a resident a young lady of such high musical accomplishments and the people here very much regret her departure. She is a hard student and we expect to hear more good reports from her work.

I think DeWitt's Little Hazel Salve is the finest preparation for piles. I have used it for years. It cures all kinds of piles, hemorrhoids, and all skin diseases. F. G. Frick.

A MASTERLESS MAID.

A masterless maid, with my heart in my keeping.
I wander the world, and I'll wander again,
With gladness my portion where others know
weeping.
And mirth for my songbook where others
read pain.
With not speeding onward, as does the clover,
God's world in its fairness his bright light to me.
Twist me and the sunshine the eyes of no
lover.
All soft tones evading I laugh and go free.
Adown purple hills steal the mists of the coming.
But few are my thoughts what that future
may be.
The lark's sky born anthem, the velvet bee's
humming.
Kind sweetest than love word or loving
to me.
Yet sometimes I linger and hush in my singing.
And wait for the passing of unsteady feet,
And sigh when I hear baby laughter soft ringing.
And wonder awhile if my freedom be sweet
and Yet sometimes comes wanting, unexpected and sudden.
When cold falls God's sunlight athwart the pale grass.
And down in the daisies I kneel, face hidden,
And kiss the kind earth baby footsteps will pass.

The Chinaman's Horses.
The Chinese are not usually credited with merciful qualities, but if the man is merciful who is merciful to his beast the quality must be natural to many Chinese in America.
The few Chinese in our great cities
who deliver goods to their countrymen or have other uses for horses
often possess good and well fed animals whose care shows great fondness and generosity.

The Oregonian says that there is a Chinese vegetable peddler in Port land whose two horses have long been admired by his customers. He feeds them on the street, and one day lately some passersby, who saw that the man always seemed to be concocting some special dish for the team, watched him prepare their luncheon.

First he led the horses into the shade, loosened the traces and took off the bridles. Then he took a pouch for each, and into each bag poured a good measure of rolled barley. Next he cut up some carrots small, put them into the nose bags and mixed them up with the barley. Finally he went to his wagon and got four eggs, two of which he broke into each measure, and stirred them up with the barley and carrots.

The horses watched all these preparations with great interest and were "correspondingly elated," as the election dispatches say, when the bags containing the appetizing mixture were hung on their noses.

They proceeded to eat with gusto, and the Chinaman turned to a few gal lons of his own, which apparently consisted of an onion and a piece of dry bread.

White drivers who give their horses a nicer lunch than they themselves eat are probably rare,
east or west.

About Trousers..

AS A RULE, Trousers beat

the Coat and Vest to a finish by several months. That's what makes this Extra-Trousers season. It's considered quite the thing, too. Coat and Vest alike, Trousers different.

A NEW PAIR OF TROUS-ERS, with that old Coat and Vest, which are yet too good to throw away, would make the whole look almost like a new suit. An extra pair of Trousers is a good thing to have around the house, for Trousers need rest as well as a man, and then, do you ever think what would happen
if the pair in use should get lost or stolen? We sell the DUTCH-ESS TROUSERS that fit and hang well,
and never lose their identity; $1.50, $2.00 and up to $3.00, and the best
trousers you ever saw for the money.

Most everybody wants DUTCH-ESS TROUSERS because they are warranted.

We pay money for Buttons that don't stick and for Stays that rip.

We are on the threshold of a new season. Goods are arriving.
Shall be pleased to show you the new styles.
