THE LARGEST CIRCULATION
 Of any Cass County Paper.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

State.
 For Governor, M. L. HAYWARD.
 For Lieutenant-Governor, GEORGE A. MURPHY.
 For Secretary of State, C. DURAS.
 For Auditor, T. L. MATHEWS.
 For Treasurer, PETER MOITZENSEN.
 For State Superintendent, J. F. SAYLOR.
 For Attorney General, N. D. JACKSON.
 For Com. Public Lands and Buildings, G. R. WILLIAMS.

Congressional.
 For Congressman, First District—E. J. BURKETT.

County.
 For Senator—WM. H. NEWELL.
 For Representatives—T. T. YOUNG, ERNEST POLLARD.
 For Elect Representative—K. A. DITMAR.
 For County Attorney—JESSE L. ROOT.
 For Commissioner, Third District—TURNER ZINK.

The determination of the republicans of New York to make Roosevelt governor ought to be a hint to the democrats of Nebraska to make Lieutenant Hobson governor.—Ex.

JESSE L. ROOT is one of the brightest lawyers in the county. If elected county attorney he will make an able and faithful official. Vote for Mr. Root.—Weeping Water Republican.

The woods do not echo with any challenges from Poynter to Hayward to enter into joint debates before the electors of Nebraska this fall. On the other hand, Judge Hayward continues his gentlemanly, straightforward and aggressive campaign.

THE EX-GOVERNOR reformers of the state house are not talking about corporations giving out passes, or about regulating the South Omaha stock yards this year. They prefer to fight the war all over again and keep the public mind as far from local matters as possible. Great heads these professional reformers have.

HOLCOMB squirms painfully at having been put on the rack by the president with reference to which regiment he will have mustered out. He hesitates, but there is no question about what he will do. The seeming deliberation is for public consumption. Col. Bryan's regiment is the one that will be mustered out.

W. A. POYNTER talks a great deal about his superior honesty and the wonderful honesty of his party. He was fearfully alarmed at the encroachments of corporations, but he said nothing about his connection with the South Omaha stock yards, or about the railway passes which he carried as a foe of railroads and friend of the common people.

NEW YORK republicans who will follow Col. Ted Roosevelt to victory, will do it on a platform stoutly declaring for the retention of the Philippines and every foot of conquered territory. This does not evidence undue conservatism and if it does not get scared at "expansion" down around the money centers what may be expected out here in the face and boundless west? Eh! Mr. Bryan?—Ex.

THE NEW YORK democrats nominated a gold-bug for governor. The silver wing of the party then nominated Henry George, jr. and an effort will be made to keep the white metal issue alive. Mr. George does not want the nomination, and it is said the friends of the gold bug candidate may secure his resignation. In that event a man of less influence will get the place. Roosevelt's majority is certain to be a large one anyway.

"REMEMBER Joe Bartley" screeches the democratic orator. Yes, and remember Holcomb at the same time, who is clearly an accessory. Had Holcomb have done his full duty, and not accepted a bond that no justice of the peace would have taken, this state would not have lost a dollar. The thief, by the grace of a republican county attorney and republican court, is in the penitentiary, but the man who made the thievery possible is still governor of Nebraska, and stands next to Allen at the head of the state house combine.

HITCHCOCK is running for congress up in the Second district on his war record which consists of a continuous criticism from the safe distance of 2,000 miles from the scene of action—Plattsmouth News. How much nearer to the scene of war was the distinguished gentleman who has been representing that district? Is Dave Mercer any braver soldier than Hitchcock? We rather think not, and we are confident that Bert will make a better representative than Dave.—Nebraska City News. Our obtuse friend fails to see the point. Mercer is not claiming to be the hero of Santiago and what is more important, he is not trying to find fault with something or other he nor Hitchcock know anything about. The war was prosecuted to a finish with masterly skill, and if mistakes were made it was not the fault of the administration, and the fool who tries to ride into office on that sort of a hobby will meet the same fate that McClellan did when he ran against Abraham Lincoln for the presidency.

ABOUT THE STATE DEBT.
 The calamity orators, following their customary course, in an effort to deceive the voters talk frantically about the republican party increasing the state debt nearly a million dollars, and how the pepercats are reducing it. The facts are, that the debt was increased by the erection of needed public buildings. Bartley turned more than $300,000 over to his successor, Meserve, and with the better times that have prevailed and the increase in the payment of taxes, what else could the fusion treasurer do but pay the claims against the state if he expected an extension of political life. We find that Iowa's debt two years ago reached over a million and a half dollars, and today it has all been paid but $300,000 and Iowa has had no "reform" state officers either. Nebraska, after all, has not done so well as her sister state across the river.

MR. K. A. DITMAR, the republican nominee for elect representative, was appointed editor at the Journal office this week. We want to say to those who do not know Mr. Ditmar, that no better man for the place could be found in the two counties. He is a bright, wide awake business man who will look after the interests of the people he represents. He will be an honor to the state, working with intelligence and ability for the good of the people, not the too or jumping jack of the political tricksters. Democrats, populists and all others should make it a point to meet Mr. Ditmar, for if you put aside your political prejudices as you would in a business matter, after once knowing him you will give him your hearty support.—Syracuse Journal.

RINGS are coming to a pretty pass. In 1896 Joe Bartley and his whole set of demerits were about to go with the fact that there was too little gold with which to transact the business of the country. Now we have it on the authority of a most distinguished democratic orator that Joe Bartley has if that there is enough gold in the treasury to pay the expense of whipping Spain. For this good reason Mr. Bartley is now having one-pound projectiles at President McKinley for the crime of issuing bonds to raise war revenues. It seems, after all, that there is really too much gold in the country to suit the fabled financiers of the Bailey ilk.—Fremont Tribune.

WHERE was Manahan when the fight went out? He was advertised for Plattsmouth and more than one-half of Poynter's audience came to see the man "who swallowed the pops." This very remarkable man, now before the people, ought not to keep his light under a bushel. Those who have not seen Manahan do not understand how a man could make a solemn pledge to abide by the vote of his convention open the ballot about to be taken, when the pledge was given and then, within twenty minutes, ignore that promise, and proceed to take into his capacious maw the separate and distinct entities of the democrats, pops and free silver republicans. One glance at the man will furnish all information desired. Trot him out Mr. Tibbets, trot him out.

THE active, venomous warfare waged by the Bee against John L. Webster is entirely out of place at this date, and can have but one effect, that is, to embarrass the successful prosecution of the republican campaign in Douglas county this fall. With a republican legislature elected, then senatorial candidates will be proper subjects for legitimate criticism. Just now it is the height of folly to repel the friendly aid of any good republican just because he may hope to profit from the election of a republican legislature. The impudence of the Omaha editor in assuming that republican outside of Omaha would permit Omaha to have both senators, is just as sublimely as John L. Webster's claim to the seat.

THE report of Judge Hayward's speech as it appears in many papers of the state contains a typographic error. Judge Hayward said that "Douglas county pays one-eighth of the taxes of the state," and some of the reports have him say "one-half." The state treasurer takes issue with Judge Hayward on the statement of the amount of money turned over by Bartley. Mr. Meserve says the amount that was available January 7, 1897, and not yet in suspended banks, was $864,662.13. The republicans of the state are willing to accept this statement as correct, it being the first time any popocratic official has admitted that Bartley left any money in the treasury.

If the statements of the NEWS and Courier are correct, Mr. Young has very indiscreetly played into the hands of the enemy, and by his vote furnishes the Journal with money to carry on its lying mudslinging campaign. We are surprised and disappointed to think that Mr. Young would allow himself to be a party to a transaction of this kind. It is safe to say that if he were serving his first term with a desire to receive a second nomination he would not have done this. As for the Post, it shows up in no enviable position as a demagogic side-hew.—Weeping Water Republican.

INFORMATION AND OPINION.
 In Senator Allen's audience last week were farmers who in 1872 lived in dugouts with dirt roofs and bare floors, whose furniture was made of rough boards and beds of sapling poles, who then lived on corn bread, sorghum, sorghum and rye coffee and were mighty glad to get that who came in town in a rattletap wagon behind a yoke of oxen or a span of plug horses. Now these same men have fine frame houses and barns, good implements to work with, fine furniture, carpets on the floor and an organ or piano for the kids to play on, and come to town in fine top buggies behind spanking teams and are surrounded by all the comforts of life any reasonable man ought to expect. They would never know what a terrible crime was perpetrated on them in their 1873 dugout days if such fellows as Allen and his ilk did not tell them. With such illustrations in front of him it is no wonder Allen's talk was disappointing to friends and foes alike. The democratic party has nothing to gain by the dissemination of such "rot."—Wilder Democrat.

New York democrats cheered Bryan's name, but ignored the Chicago platform and turned their backs upon his free silver hobby, on which he hopes to ride into the presidential campaign of 1900. Altogether Bryan gets no more notice than in the New York municipal campaign when Tammanyites not only slaughtered Henry George, the free silver candidate, but refused to let Bryan put in even a word for his friend.

The Van Wyck family seems to be pretty well settled on public office. With one brother on the bench and another in the mayor's chair, with still others holding minor lucrative offices, they ought to be willing to draw the line on the governorship of the Empire state.—Omaha Bee.

It will be comforting to the people of the United States to know that the quartet of the American People Commission in Paris open upon a fine view of Rue de Rivoli and the royal gardens. Had the rooms of the peace commission been taken down to Paris and back again, the people to an early agreement on terms to be included in the final treaty of peace might be seriously jeopardized.

The Indianapolis Journal makes a pertinent enquiry which we would like to see answered. It says that the 181st Indiana regiment is located near the Second Nebraska, and while the latter has 141 sick men the Indiana regiment has but five. The Indianapolis paper says strict discipline is enforced in the hoosier camp and the men are looked after by the officers who are not politicians. This may have something to do with it.

M. F. Healey, of Fort Dodge, one of the democratic leaders in Iowa for years, has resigned from the state central committee because he can't stand the latest brand of democracy. The country is full of honest men, who have been identified with the democratic party, that are coming into the progressive ranks of the republican party where they will be accorded a royal welcome. It's that class of men who help to keep the integrity of a party above par. We have some of the same right here in Cass county, and their fearless devotion to principle and refusal to loger work with a party which fails to carry out their convictions, is deserving of a stiletted commendation.

The True Remedy.
 W. M. R. pine, editor "Herald," "Chief" says, says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as it is what we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, etc." It is a little to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Try it in bottles free at P. G. Fricke's drug store.

Dr. Marshall's addition to his new residence, on E. street, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for the painters.

A CRITICAL TIME
 During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the heroic savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrades and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.
