THE LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY CASS COUNTY PAPER.

Table with 2 columns: Position and Name. Includes Republican Ticket, State, County, and Congressional representatives.

The late Thomas A. Bayard, who Democrats have delighted to honor for half a century, was an ardent sound money man who looked upon the 16 to 1 theory as nothing more than an outright repudiation.

AFTER all the talk about finding an empty treasury, Mr. Meserve comes out with a statement to the effect that he received $844,662.13 from Bartley.

PHIL ARMOUR has signified his purposes to invest another coal million at South Omaha, which is a burning shame. These blasted plutocrats should be kept out of Nebraska.

NO REPUBLICAN in this county can afford to cast a vote in favor of business distrust and hard times, which is what has always followed the silver throat.

GENERAL JOE WHEELER, a democrat of democrats, gives the yellow journals a hard row in his testimony before the commission of investigation.

HOLCOMB, up to the time of going to press, had not stiffened his spinal column sufficiently to let Bryan and the Third regiment out of the service.

THE World-Herald denied the butternut story too soon. A statement is out now giving the date and number of the vouchers which say on their face that they were in payment of butternut for the insane hospital.

It is said that Hawaii will be governed the same as the District of Columbia, and not as a territory. This will deprive the islanders of a chance to vote for president, or to elect their chief officers.

JOHN F. CORNELL, the "pass master reformer" of the state auditors office, is not riding in a private car furnished him by the corporations since the campaign opened.

HITCHCOCK'S campaign speeches are said to be a monologue on the conduct of the war. If the intelligent voters can extract any reason from that theory why the people of the Second district should send him to congress, they are welcome to do so.

do his duty to the state. Democratic logic, however, is one of the things that an average intellect can not comprehend.

In 1895 the legislature passed laws in the interest of the farmers and dairymen, making a boom in the industry. The creamery industry of the state is an important one, destined to have a wonderful growth in the immediate future.

THE losses by death of the American army in the war with Spain have been officially stated up to August 31. At Porto Rico three were killed and forty wounded.

JUDGE NEWELL'S friends all over the county recognizing his fitness for the office are doing good work in his behalf.

THE shipbuilding firm of Cramps, Philadelphia, have purchased a big paper mill at Rockford, Ill., and begun working paper and card board from corn stalks.

GENERAL WINTER is the chemist who discovered and patented the process which will make a profitable demand for heretofore worthless corn stalks.

THE election is not far off now and the glad hand of the candidate is met everywhere.

If Holcomb names Bryan out of the service and President Sagor hears of it, war will not break out again with all its attendant horrors.

A big shortage in the apple crop of Europe is reported, which will require large consignments from this country.

When the republicans of New York nominated Colonel Roosevelt for governor, the New York Journal suddenly discovered that its previous estimate of the gentleman's character and ability was subject to revision.

Ex-Congressman Hainer, speaking of politics in the Fourth district, says E. H. Hinshaw will defeat Stark, and that he is a better man in every way than his opponent.

Captain A. H. Lee, British military attaché, describing in Scribner's the assault and capture of El Caney, relates that in the height of the excitement of victory, "Private Abel, of the Twelfth Infantry, scrambled up on the roof of the fort with the colors of his regiment and waved it amidst a wild burst of cheering and enthusiasm.

by letters of the day under the name of a lady writing to the editor. It is a very interesting and well-considered article.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Pack-train at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes, Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition, and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the pack-train had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front.

An Auburn farmer missed eleven dollars one morning last week and he hastened to town in time to find them loaded for shipment.
