CITY AND COUNTY.

SATURDAY.

This morning the Union Depot Co. began grading for the union depot which will be built at Omaha.

Mrs. Purdy and her neice, Miss Wilkinson, and Mr. Wilkinson, were Omaha visitors today.

C. M. Foster and family were in Omaha today. Charley can't dance but he can see all the sights.

Mrs. M. C. Sweeney, of Elk Point, S. D., who has been visiting with Mrs. McCroskey, departed yesterday for her home.

Fred Bates came near getting killed by a fall out at Mrs. Wiles' new house Wednesday, and is in bed nursing his bruises, no bones being broken.

Grant Hackenberg went to Omaha to spend Sunday. He took inner fillings of substantials in a gulp. Evidently he don't intend to starve.

About ten o'clock this forenoon Judge Spurlock united John M. McCullough and Miss Katie Ohlenhausen in marriage. The parties live about four miles south of town.

Miss Edmiston and Mrs. Powell of Stuart, Nebraska, are here visiting their sister, Miss Mary Edmiston. They took in the exposition today.

Jas. Bernfer, who was section foreman on the B. & M. here several years ago, but who is now located at Humboldt, is in the city visiting with B. J. Reynolds.

Ernest and Miss Dora Wigenhorn, after spending the summer in Europe, stopped over here with F. G. Fricke and family on their way home. They had a delightful trip but were glad to get back home again.

Clarence Perry and two sisters, of Onawa, Iowa, passed through here today for Pacific Junction to visit their many friends at that place. He will be remembered as a former resident of this city where he was formerly employed.

Plattsmouth has never been inflicted to any great extent by petty thieves, but several small thefts have been mentioned lately. The other evening Phil Trietsch lost a blanket and whip from his wagon near Waterman's lumber office.

Harry Northcut came up Tuesday evening from Nebraska City to remain over Sunday in this city, which he says is the healthiest town in the United States. Harry seems to enjoy Plattsmouth society and we should not be surprised to have him take up his permanent abode here.

W. F. Primley, a musician in the Third Nebraska regiment, is in the city for a short visit with friends. His home is at Stuart, Nebraska, and is considered to be one of the most expert cornet players the state affords. As he was long associated in the newspaper business, he naturally enough dropped in for a few minutes chat with with his old friend, Will L. Witherow, and the rest of the NEWS force.

Uncle H. G. Spencer who was stricken with paralysis yesterday, as noted in the NEWS, is still in a critical condition, and little hope is entertained for his recovery, though about one o'clock today he seemed unusually strong considering his advanced age. The paralysis seems complete as to his right side and he lays in a semi-conscious state not recognizing his friends. His son, Edwin, who is a soldier at Ft. Omaha, of the Second Nebraska, got permission to come down and see him and is now at his father's bedside. We hope the old gentlemen may soon recover.

MONDAY.

H. R. Neitzel and brother, of Murdock, were in the city over Sunday.

Wyan Tabor is down from Alliance, today visiting H. C. McMaken and family.

The snow storm is far from pleasant today, but then its the making of the fall wheat.

Will Keithley, wife and family from Kansas City, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

George Fred Williams, the free silver apostle, will speak in this city Thursday night.

It is said the Second Nebraska regiment will be mustered out and paid off Thursday of this week.

Snow fell in Chicago and Northern Indiana for over an hour, on October 13, the earliest snow fall in thirty years.

The Glenwood Canning Co. has erected a big apple evaporator which has made a good market over there for windfalls and culls.

Contractor Harvey Holloway has the piling in and is ready to begin work on the A. O. U. W. hall across the street southwest of Richey's lumber office.

The venerable Susan B. Anthony and her co-laborer, Mrs. Carrie Catt, will be in Council Bluffs, Thursday and Friday of this week to take part in a big suffrage meeting.

L. C. Gibberson of Weeping Water, one of the earliest residents of this county, died at his home Friday of old age. He leaves an aged wife and many friend to mourn his demise.

Hon. John F. Polk of Greenwood will accompany his nephews, Joseph Woods and wife, and John Hudsen and wife, back to Indiana tomorrow, where he intends to spend the winter with relatives.

Miss Minnie Westfall, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Westfall, of Weeping Water, died at her home last Saturday of quick consumption. The funeral was held from the M. E. church at that place yesterday.

Thirty-six years ago the 24th day of October, a blizzard struck Nebraska that froze ice on the river so that cattle could cross on the ice, A. M. Holmes tells us. Last year the first snow squall was on October 26, so that the snow fall of today while not the worst is one of the earliest.

The editor of the NEWS had the pleasure of meeting Lieutenant Wells of Deadwood, who was a member of Col. Grigsby's rough riders. He was in the city to see Supt. Hawksworth. He says the bad usage of the soldiers spoken of in the yellow journals did not come under his observation, though he did see plenty of evidence that the boys did not know how to properly cook what was given them.

Continued success can come alone from merit. Dr. Sawyer's Wild Cherry and Tar is steadily increasing in sales because it is the best cough remedy on the market. A. W. Atwood.

M'Ilwraiths Coming Home.

LONDON, Oct. 15.—Dr. Darwin McIlwraith and Mrs. McIlwraith, the Chicago bicyclists who recently completed a tour of the world, covering 30,000 miles, embarked for home today on board the steamer Peanland, after an absence of three and a half years.

They are both in the best of health and spirits and are apparently none the worse for the hardships which they endured. The latter includes Dr. McIlwraith's amputation of his wife's toes, which were frostbitten while crossing Persia.

It is said that the entire cost of their trip was $30,000, and it is claimed that they rode through out on the machines which they had when they left Chicago, and finally, it is asserted, they used only three sets of tires.

Douglas Shinn Returns.

Douglas Shinn and G. V. Lindon who were given up as dead, have returned to life as it were. Shinn arrived to town Saturday evening and reports Lindon very sick with malarial fever at St. Louis, and that he is just recovering from a long siege of it. His wife is at Nebraska City, fully believing that her husband is dead, he not having written her. The boys have been on the river since they left Plattsmouth until they were taken down with the fever. It was supposed by many that their abiding place was a secret of the Missouri river which would not be yielded up, but Shinn's appearance disnels any such allusion.

A Short Sad Story.

A Cold,
Neglect
Pneumonia,
Grief.

Had Foley's Honey and Tar been used, this story would have had a happier ending. F. G. Fricke & Co.

Probably the largest peach orchard in Mills county is that owned by J. C. Davidson living two miles southwest of Glenwood. He is a peach enthusiast and has upward of 2,500 trees, all seedlings, and comprising some ten varieties, being mostly three and four years old. Mr. Davidson believes in planting close together and his trees are set on an average of about eight feet apart—making five or six hundred to the acre. Thus his entire peach orchard occupies a space of between four and five acres and when it comes into full bearing as it will shortly, will be the most productive piece of ground in the state of Iowa. Mr. Davidson has no peaches this season, it being an off year with him.—Glenwood Opinion.

Seven cars and two engines which would ordinarily occupy over 300 feet of space on the track are piled up in a space less than 75 feet in length. Eighteen hundred head of sheep were loaded in the seven double deck cars and 600 of them were killed in the wreck. A CLEVER CAPTURE

Sheriff Wheeler Arrested Eugene Walbridge in Omaha Yesterday.

From Monday's Daily.

Eugene Walbridge, a young man of nineteen years, who lives across the line in Otoe county, it is said, by promise of marriage accomplished the ruin of Miss Pitman who resides in the neighborhood of Nehawka. To rid himself of any responsibility he enlisted with the Second Nebraska and went to Chickamauga. On his returning home with his company he was waited on by friends of the young lady and refused to marry her. A complaint was filed in Judge Archer's court and a warrant was issued for Walbridge's arrest, but he got a furlough and skipped out. Sheriff Wheeler made numerous trips to his home and to Omaha in search of the fugitive but with no success. He finally visited a sister in North Omaha thinking the fellow might be there but he did not find him, and the sister said that he was in Kansas and would be in Omaha on the 15th. The sheriff then came home and on Saturday he went to Omaha and found his man just closing up his affairs with the government preparatory to skipping out again and he very quickly made him a prisoner. He was brought here and landed in jail where he will probably remain, unless his brother secures a bond for his appearance at the next term of court. He went down to Union today to try to get a bond. As Miss Pitman's babe is less than a week old she is not able to come here now, so the preliminary hearing will not be had for a few days.

This afternoon Walbridge was arraigned and Judge Archer fixed his bond at $1000 and set the preliminary hearing for next Saturday morning, October 22. Up to the time of going to press no bonds had been furnished and Walbridge was remanded to jail.

Matrimonial.

A quiet wedding was solemnized in this city Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Morgan, corner of Seventh and Granite streets, where Miss Georgianna Oliver was married to Mr. Morgan Schrack, late of Omaha, Nebraska, surrounded only by the relatives of the family, including a sister, Mrs. Aylesworth of Kansas City, Missouri, and Mr. Musselwhite of Lincoln, Nebraska. Rev. Dr. Baird of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony in his impressive manner.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Kate Oliver, and is well and favorably known in this city, having resided here for a number of years and was among the society going young people. The groom is an estimable young man of good moral habits, is, and has been for some time past, employed on the Omaha Bee operating a linotype.

The young couple expect to make their home in Omaha for the present and will board with the bride's mother at 131 South 25th street.

Their reason for having the ceremony performed here was that they might be married by the minister who had married both of the bride's sisters, Mrs. D. C. Morgan and Mrs. C. D. Eade who reside here.

The NEWS in common with hosts of friends in this city extends congratulations and best wishes.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes, Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with amunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moins, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

Cass County For Burkett.

ELMWOOD, Neb., Oct. 14.—Hon. E. J. Burkett, republican nominee for congress from the First district, addressed one of the largest political meetings ever held at the Hobbs opera house last night. Every seat was filled and many people stood up, over four hundred being present. Besides Mr. Burkett there were on the stage T. T. Young and E. M. Pollard, candidates for states representatives, R. A. Dittmar, nominee for float representative and Turner Zink, nominee for county commissioner. Mr. Pollard spoke for half an hour in an interesting and convincing manner. Chairman N. R. Hobbs, amid the rousing cheers of hundreds, then introduced Mr. Burkett, who held the rapt attention of the entire audience for an hour and a half, and when he was through speaking no one had any doubt as to where he stood. Enthusiasm was at a high pitch and Mr. Burkett was continually interrupted by applause.

The meeting was a great contrast to the one that was to have been held at this place one week ago last night by Mr. Monahan, when not a person could be got out to hear him speak, and the lights were put out about 9 o'clock, after waiting in vain for a crowd. Mr. Burkett will receive a splendid vote in this part of his district, one that he need not be ashamed of when he goes to Washington.

You and each of you are hereby notified that on the 14th day of September, A. D. 1898, Anselmo B. Smith commenced an action in the district court of Cass county, Nebraska, against you, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose a certain mortgage executed on the 8th of February, A. D. 1895, by John F. Stull, under the name of J. F. Stull, and on the northwest quarter of section two (2), and the north half of the southwest quarter of section two (2), and the west half of the northeast quarter of section two (2), and the north half of the northwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section two (2), all in township twelve (12), range fourteen (14), in Cass county, Nebraska. Said mortgage being to secure the payment of a note for $3,021.20 due on or before February 4th, 1894, and bearing 10 per cent. interest from its date; there is due on said note the sum of $3,663.50 Sept. 14th, 1898, and it is asked that the defendant's interest in said land be held junior and inferior to said mortgage claim and the said land sold to satisfy the same. The further object and prayer of said petition is to foreclose a certain land contract dated April 1, 1894, on all that part of government lot numbered three (3), of section one (1), in township twelve (12), range fourteen (14), in Cass county, Nebraska, lying west of the right of way of the B. & M. Railroad, together with that part of said lot on the east side of said right of way lying north west of the culvert on the curve at or near the sand point, or bluff commonly described as "Swallow Hill." It is alleged there is due on said contract and because of default paid said land to the day the sum of $[illegible] and said land is asked to be sold to pay the same. Plaintiff claims to own all the rights, property and personal of said Oreapolis Company and to be entitled to foreclose said contract. Plaintiff asked that each and all of the defendants in said action be adjudged to have no interest in any part of said land, except subject to said mortgage and contract.

You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 7th day of October, A. D. 1898, or your default will be entered and judgment entered accordingly against you and said Land.
