Assistant Secretary of War Melick-John will discuss the issues of the campaign at White's opera in this city on the evening of November 4. He will be greeted by a crowded house.

James Skoumal and Miss Fannie Slavick were married yesterday by Rev. Father Borr. Last evening they gave a ball which was attended by the friends of the bride and groom, and a pleasant time was had.

Col. Hubner, the bachelor editor of the Nebraska City News says: "Whenever a girl tells a young man that her dress is made out of material that doesn't crumple, that ought to be sufficient." It probably is.

John Fitzpatrick could not stand the heavy work of truckman at the store house and he is now working for Mr. McGuire on the section. Johnny is not the sort of a fellow to sit on the corner and wait for a good job to come to him, he goes to work at the first opportunity.

The Ottumwa quartette which always draws crowded houses will be here at the Presbyterian church on the evening of October 24. Don't fail to hear the best quartette now traveling if you care for a musical treat. Every member is a star and too much can not be said in praise of the Ottumwas.

The Modern Woodmen lodge in this city is enjoying a McKinley wave of prosperity just now. Seventy-three applications for membership have been acted upon favorably, and that number will be initiated at their first regular meeting night. We doubt if a lodge in the state can make a better showing of rapid growth.

The attendance at the exposition yesterday reached the surprising figures of 14,922. The weather was beautiful and the visitors were nearly all from a distance. Today being A. O. U. W. day and the weather less inclement, there will be more people from Nebraska than yesterday. A large crowd is in attendance from this city today.

Judge Mitchell Quits Bryan.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Oct. 15.—Joseph C. Mitchell, appointed to the judicial bench of the second district by Governor Boies, one of Southern Iowa's leading attorneys and a life-long democrat, tonight made public a letter in which he repudiates "free-silverism, Weaverism and the anti-territorial expansion policy" as favored by the Marshalltown democratic state convention.

Judge Mitchell stamped the district for Bryan in 1896 in good faith, but to quote his words, "in the light of the developments of the past two years and the utter failure of realization of all the doleful prophecies on the effect of continuing the gold standard I have changed my mind in the matter."

He condemns the pledge of the Iowa democrats to Bryan in 1900 and makes a strong plea for the holding of the territory which the fortunes of war have thrown upon this country. He does not outline his future course, but expresses belief that the democratic party "will yet be rescued from populism."

Violently Insane.

Mary Matchillat, the young lady, mention of whose insanity was made in the last issue of the News as being the result of a fright from a boy with a megaphone, grew worse and had to be removed last evening to the poor farm for safety and special care. Today the commission of insanity are out there investigating the case, and no doubt they will find her a fit subject for the asylum at Lincoln. She had been working at George Davey's and there was apparently nothing the matter until she suffered the fright, but it is said that she was in an asylum in Wisconsin once before, and was discharged as cured. We did not learn if she had any relatives in this city.

The Sokol Fair.

The T. J. Sokol Fair closed Saturday night and a most enjoyable time is reported. The society cleared over $150 and distributed numerous prizes. The voting contest as to who was the most popular young lady in the city awakened considerable interest. The chief contestants were Mrs. Antone Bookmeyer and Miss Anna Clyde, the latter by a close margin proving successful.

The Snow Storm.

Telegraphic advices say the snow turned to a cold rain east of Des Moines and that rain and snow fell only a short distance west of Lincoln. The snow, however, extended quite a ways south into Missouri and Kansas, causing much suffering to sheep and cattle.

A Valuable Prescription.

Editor Morrison of Worthington, Indiana, Sun, writes: "You have a valuable prescription in electric bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for constipation and sick headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Stehle, 2025 Cottage Grove Avenue, Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a headache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of electric bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Price 50 cents and $1.00. Get a bottle at F. G. Fricke's drug store.

General Registration Notice.

The electors of the city of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, are hereby notified that the boards of registration for the several wards will sit in their several offices for the registration of votes for the general election to be held November 8, 1898.
