CITY AND COUNTY.

SATURDAY.

John Group and wife, from near Louisville, were in town trading today.

Charley Clifford, of Louisville, and T. E. Williams, of Glendale, were in today.

The president has proclaimed November 24 as a day of national Thanksgiving.

Twenty dollars to one is the way they bet on Mercer against Hitchcock in Omaha.

Aaron Loder and wife have gone to Colfax, Springs, Ia., to be treated for rheumatism.

Dr. Gilmore, of Murray, was in town today shaking hands with a few of his many friends.

F. A. Cramer, one of the solid farmers of South Bend precinct, was in the city today.

Col. Champion S. Chase is lying very low at his home in Omaha, with no hope for his recovery.

Ben. Bruner and family have moved in from Webster county and will reside down near Rock Bluffs.

John Sutton has the foundation under way for his new farm residence, that promises to be a nice one.

Col. Bryan was reported much better yesterday, his ailment is pronounced a light form of typhoid fever.

The rubber trust may have to come down from its high perch as another rubber trust is being formed to fight it.

Holcomb and Allen will speak in Louisville next week, but they will make no converts among the thinking people of that live burg.

Clarence Forbes, aged nineteen, and Miss Edna Tutt, aged eighteen, both of this city, the Woodmen herald says, were married in Omaha on Thursday.

The postoffice at Valparaiso was blown open by burglars last night, but the inner doors prevented a robbery. The only loss was in the damage to the safe.

Joseph Wildi and wife was at Omaha attending the exposition during the last two days and stopped over in Plattsmouth last night on his way home to Cedar Creek.

George Sheldon, the Vermont capitalist, and Seabury L. Sears, of Ashland, and Mr. Zinar, of South Bend, are here today for the purpose of buying the Holbrooke farm.

Will S. Smith, after a pleasant visit here for a few days, departed this morning for his home at Ong in Clay county. His wife will remain a few days longer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Holmes.

Lawrence, a son of M. B. C. True, of Tecumseh, was murdered for his money at Cincinnati the first of the week, where he was working as proof reader on the Commercial.

District court, Judge Ramsey informs us, will not open for business November 7 as advertised, but will convene on November 10th, as no one could transact any legal business the day, or day before election.

The steel and iron trade is reported booming as another indication of the realization of McKinley times. The orders already in are for work that months will be required to complete, and orders are still rolling in.

L. J. Hall has purchased the M. G. McQuin farm over east of Union. Mr. McQuin will move up near Sioux City in the spring, if he is successful in purchasing the farm that he has been expecting to secure.—Nehawka Register.

Lieut. Al Dorrington, late of company H, Second Nebraska volunteers, hailing from Chadron, has received a commission as first lieutenant in the Second United States volunteers now stationed at Santiago, and will report at that point as soon as he is ordered to the front.

The Journal office printed the posters for the Meiklejohn meeting to be held here November 4. Just why a democratic newspaper should do republican campaign work may not be clear to outsiders, and it reflects no credit on the managers of the campaign, unless they have been imposed upon.

W. I. Walker, of Omaha, who has a large cattle ranch on the Winnebago reservation, twelve miles north of Bancroft, lost thirty-two head of cattle in the storm of Monday and Tuesday. At the beginning of the storm the herd numbering some 600 head, was driven with the storm to the south until a creek was encountered, where by a jam thirty-two head were crowded into the stream and trodden under foot, forming a bridge for the remander of the herd to cross on. Mr. Walker estimates his loss at upwards of $1,000.

MONDAY.

Danl. Burris was down from Omaha today.

Phil Huber is attending probate court today.

August Beins went to the exposition this morning.

John Bauer of Elmwood precinct was in town today.

Jim Holmes and J. C. Marten were exposition visitors today.

W. H. Stout of the Saline county Independent made the NEWS a pleasant call this morning.

John Murray has sent his son, Alva, to school down at Osborn, Kansas, where his grand parents reside.

Mrs. W. H. Dearing after a pleasant visit here returned to Norfolk today. Mrs. Hasse accompanied her as far as Omaha.

The funeral of Miss Pitz, who died of diphtheria, occurred yesterday and was largely attended. Such little precaution is taken that it's a wonder this malady has not been more prevalent than it is.

W. H. Stout, editor of the Saline county Independent, and wife Sundayed with their brother-in-law George K. Staats.

Bennett Chriswelser took another look at the exposition today. He may bring some of the midway attractions home with him.

The fusion managers are said to have declared a dividend last Saturevening, and business was lively in certain quarters.

Messrs. Pollard, Root and Spurlock had a fine meeting at Cedar Creek Saturday evening, a good crowd being out to hear them.

Ten coaches would not have carried the Plattsmouth crowd which went to Omaha today to bid farewell to the beautiful exposition.

Tom Whitehead, well known in this city, is reported to have married an Omaha girl and taken up a permanent residence in the metropolis.

Manahan has been sued in the federal court. It seems he not only swallowed the pops, but was caught in the act of swallowing the Fitzgerald estate.

D. S. Guild chief of the B. & M. supply department arrived home yesterday from Pittsburgh Pa. and other eastern points where he had been on company business.

This is a queer country. According to the Journal W. H. Neville was to clean and moral a man to be reelected Mayor, but he is too bad a man for Senator. The Journal is full of prunes.

George Dovey arrived home yesterday, after a two weeks' sojourn on business in Chicago. [illegible] one day of success [illegible] two weeks, time well [illegible] disagreeable.

The first issue of the Press is before us. It makes a creditable appearance and the NEWS wishes proprietors success in their new venture. It will be independent in politics and asks no odds of any party.

A. L. Timblin who has built up an enviable reputation as a lawyer in this county has concluded to remove to Nebraska City in a few weeks and enter the practice of law there. We regret very much to lose Mr. Timblin from this county, as he is an A1 citizen.

Will. Carmack, who almost died with typhoid fever is home looking more like a ghost than his former self. The government sent a nurse all the way from the hospital in Florida to look after him. He will return to his company as soon as he is well enough.

Judge Hayward is making the cleanest, clearest set of campaign speeches ever heard in this state. Those who listened to him at Superior during the reunion know just what they are. His campaign is as clean as Crounse's term as governor was.—Hardy Herald.

Uncle Herman Boster is in town today. He has entirely recovered from his fright over the awful things that would happen when the gold standard was adopted. The McCreary bill since George Fred Williams was here, however, is causing him much worry, and he again sees the country on a tobaggan slide headed toward perdition. If he will keep cool until after the election everything will pan out all right.

Thompkins, the fledgeling lawyer who is running for float representative on the fusion ticket, seems to be in hot water. He is reported to have written letters to several ministers in this county, telling them what a good temperance man he was, and the letters leaked out and he then had to go to the Nebraska City saloons and get a certificate that he was not a prohibitionist. He only gets out of one hole to stumble into a worse one, and by election day he will find he is badly done up.

If John Hart mumbles his words a little bit mysteriously this week just accept it as a temporary impidement. He will get over it. Last Monday he was taking honey from the hives, and having a sweet tooth he took a bite of honey, but didn't notice the little bee curled up in it. It didn't take him long, however, to [illegible] his business end at work in the cavity of his mouth, out-rivaled the gesture of a political barker.—Elmwood Review.

Williams-Hyers.

From Tuesday's Daily.

I. N. Williams of Sherman, Harlan county, Nebraska, was married to Miss Rose Hyers at her home in this city at nine o'clock this morning by Rev. J. T. Baird, and at 9:40 the bride and groom departed for Kansas City, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Joy who stood up with them. The groom travels with Mr. Joy for a collection agency, and is highly spoken of as a man of ability and good habits. Mrs. Williams will travel with her husband for a time when they expect to settle in Colorado. The wedding was informal, and only relatives and immediate friends were present.

The New Telephone.

The Plattsmouth company received a car load of poles today and will put a force of men to work at once erecting 200 of them to carry their lines. In a few days the new company expects to be ready for business. The central office has been fixed up and the cable put in to connect with the outside wires.

Died of Diphtheria.

Miss Alma, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Pitz, died last Saturday of diphtheria. The funeral took place from the family residence, south of town, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Get Out the Vote.

"The field is white for a republican harvest," said ex-Congressman Hainer yesterday. "It only remains for republicans to get out their vote. That's the thing to do now. The people are with McKinley this year. All the changes [illegible] in our favor. There [illegible] voted the fusion [illegible] who [illegible] But there is no [illegible] There [illegible] Bryan [illegible] Kansas [illegible] Kansas kept his word [illegible] If ever the people protested [illegible] they believe in McKinley now.—State Journal.

A Lively Chase.

W. D. Jones' pall bearer wagon had a bit of experience Sunday that was new, at least to that sort of vehicle. Otto Metzka, Joe Oshenbringer, Frank Burion with a woman and five children occupied the wagon, and the men being hilarious from too much beer, they went down Main street yelling like Indians, and the team was going a 2:10 clip. The outlook for a serious smashup was imminent, and Policeman Murray got into a spring wagon with Young Marspeaker, and away they went after them. They overhauled the lively crowd out near Bach's store, and a battle royal ensued. Link Huffer came along just in time to save the officers from getting hurt, and the men were landed in jail after much difficulty.

Today they appeared before Judge Archer, who assessed the following fines, Joe Oshenbringer, $2.50; Otto Metka, $2.50; Frank Burion, $1.00; all of which were either paid or secured.

War on the Buds.

From Saturday's Daily.

E. M. Bartlette, an Omaha attorney, with his Chicago client swooped down on Julius Pepperberg yesterday and demanded that he turn over $400 worth of lithograped Bud labels that he had purchased. They claimed that he had bought them of a house which had infringed on their copyright. Julius refused to be bluffed and they then got out a writ of replevin, but the sheriff could not find the coveted property, and the Omaha lawyer returned home in company with his client, promising to renew the battle next week or get the lithographes. Mr. Pepperberg secured an attorney and proposes to give the "furriners" a fight they want and more too.

What do the Children Drink?

Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-O you give the children the more health you distribute through their systems. Grain-O is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about one-fourth as much. All grocers sell it. 15c and 25c.

The Famous "Buds" Cigar.

The well known "Buds" cigar, manufactured by Julius Pepperberg, owing to litigation about the label, will be sold under "The Boss" label until further notice. The stock is of the same high grade under the new name, as it is the genuine "Buds," sold from another box.

White Cream Vermifuge is perfectly harmless and will remove every worm. It is also a tonic, and by its strengthening properties will restore to pale cheeks the rosy hue of health. Price 25 cents. F. G. Fricke.

J. I. Unruh has just made a purchase of 100 iron bedsteads with woven wire spring mattresses, matresses and pillows which he will offer at the low price of $5.00 each. The entire outfit for the price has never before been offered at such a low price. A complete bed can be seen in his store window. All who are needing anything in this line can save money by seeing these bargains before you buy.

You may bridle the appetite, but you cannot bribe the liver to do its work well. You must be honest with it, help it along a little now and then with a dose of Herbine, the best liver regulator. Price 50 cents. F. G. Fricke.

A CRITICAL TIME

During the Battle of Santiago.

SICK OR WELL, A RUSH NIGHT AND DAY.

The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes, Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack-train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with amunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health; in fact, I sincerly believe that at one critical time this medicine was the indirect savior of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could use. My comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack-train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moins, Iowa. For sale by all druggists.

That Democratic Meeting.

The fusionists failed to get out much of a crowd at their meeting Saturday evening, although Oldham, the Kearney joker, Ed. Smith, the high-roller, and Treasurer Meserve were the drawing cards. Smith made his usual abusive speech, and reiterated his stale stories about the Ebright prosecution, which have been proven absolutely false.

Oldham is a talker from talkville and always has something to say. If Meserve is no better officer than he is a speaker, he couldn't be elected constable down in Rock Bluffs. The meeting was a flat affair.

He Will Vote.

CANTON, O., Oct. 28.—An affidavit for registration has been receive from President McKinley by the city board of elections.

The president swears it is impossible for him to be in Canton on any registration day.

License Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I will apply at the next regular meeting of the board of county commissioners, in and for Cass county for a license to sell vinous malt and spirituous liquors in the village of Cedar Creek, Cass county, Nebraska, for the period of one year. ANDREW ANDERSON.

Dated this 18th day of October, 1898.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for resting the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at F. G. Fricke's drug store. 2

I KNOW I LOVE MY LOVE.

[AIR—"Meeting of the Waters."]

As I walked through the garden, where oft I had been,
But now, without my love, I wandered unseen.
Forget-me-nots for me he had, I could see,
For I know that I love my love, and I know he loves me.

As I walked through the halls of the great and the gay,
Fair belles all around me had something to say;
But I heeded them not, and my love's with me,
For I know that I love my love, and I know he loves me.

Wherever I travel, they all seem to say:
"She appears quite happy, contented and gay,"
But they know not how happy with my lover I be,
For I know that I love my love, and I know he loves me.

We are now happily joined, with the proud married crowd,
And we hope to remain so till the day of our shroud.
I know I feel happy, and he so with me,
For I know that I love my love, and I know he loves me.

—THE ANCIENT.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our son and brother. We wish especially to thank the firemen and members of the C. E. Society of the Christian church who showed such thoughtful attention and care.
