Enquire of JOHN WATERMAN Mr. and Mrs. Carragher of Union have a new girl, and Grandpa Stoughtenborough accepts the honors as though he had been a grandpa all his life.

The dancing club will give their first ball of the season next Thursday evening. The Mandolin Club is better than ever, and will furnish the music.

James Sopals' little girl complained that Frank Kaloseck's son, Joe, threw stones at her, and the matter was having an airing in police court this afternoon.

F. S. White is getting in a car of the finest potatoes ever brought to this market. They are the same variety, and from the same place as last year.

The Woman's Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Byron Clark, Thursday November 3, at 7:30 o'clock. Program furnished by the Child's Study Department.

In many seemingly hopeless cases, consumption has been averted in stopping a hacking cough, by the use of Dr. Sawyer's Wild Cherry and Tar. A. W. Atwood.

November 23 is the day when George Spurlock will have important business to attend to in Missouri. He ought to be able to enjoy a royal Thanksgiving dinner on the 24th.

The Mozart Club will meet at the home of Miss Gass, corner of Eleventh and Marble streets, Tuesday evening November, 1st. Those having chorus books please bring them.

You will never know how quickly you can be cured of consumption, dyspepsia or liver complaint, until you have tried Dr. Sawyer's Little White-Awake Pills. A. W. Atwood.

We tell only what we positively know when we say "Dr. Sawyer's Arnica and Witch Hazel Salvo will radically cure skin diseases, eczema, piles, burns, scalds, cuts or flesh wounds. A. W. Atwood.

I. PEARLMAN, Plattsmouth, Leading Furniture and Stove Dealer.

Ed. Fitzgerald developed great skill as a marksman out west, and is said to have killed several antelope on the wing. We don't believe, however, that he killed anything, as we have received no proof of it.

WANTED.—Local or traveling salesman to sell our Oils, Greases and Petrolatum on commission exclusively, or as a side line. Goods guaranteed and prices low.

PENN PETROLATUM CO., Coraopolis, Pa. Oil Refiners.

The great exposition closed at midnight last night with an attendance for the day of 61,000 people. From what some of the boys say who were there the midway was a hot place after twelve o'clock, and hundreds of people were there until two or three o'clock this morning.

Let the Journal produce the records about Judge Newell's $1.25 a day statement. The charge is absolutely false in every particular, and we defy them to furnish the proof which they say they can do. The public will soon see who has lied, if they do not come forward with the promised record.

Contractor Sawtelle has twenty teams at work on the bridge fill across the river and a lot more teams arrived today, so that his forces will soon be doubled. The work will doubtless be finished this winter. The last of the work will be performed by a dirt train which will be loaded on this side by a steam shovel.

The county commissioners are in session and will probably conclude whether to pay the Post-Journal tax list claim in full or not, and will decide what to do about the $700 claim of the Cass County Agricultural Society. One thing is certain, one member on the board, in the person of J. C. Hayes, will stand up for taxpayers and against tax eaters.

W. H. Newell pays better wages in his quarry than is paid either at Newhaska, or in Sarpy county, we are informed by a man who works for Mr. Newell, and every man who ever worked for him is his most stalwart supporter. Two democrats now employed here in the B. & M. shops, who used to work for Newell, make no secret of their support of him for the senate.

Hucklen's Arnica Salvo.

The best salve in the world for cuts, burns, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by F. G. Fricke

Uncle Dave McCaig is growing young again, and we advise the gay "widders" to look out for him. He rode over from Wabash to Ashland on his bicycle and came to Plattsmouth on the B. & M. train as gay and chipper as a boy of fourteen. He is all right every way except a clouded imagination when it comes to matters political.

You Can't Afford to Chance It. A heavy cold may lead to pneumonia or consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar taken in time affords perfect security from serious results. F. G. Fricke & Co.

To the Farmers. For the farmers, and townspeople, too, Schipp case will serve a first-class oyster stew on Saturday and Sunday for 15 cents per dish—first class in every particular.

Those wishing hair chains or hair work of any kind done, will please leave their orders with Miss Adams at Dovey's store.

MRS. A. H. KNEE.

AS THEY COME AND GO.

H. N. Dovey was in Omaha this morning.

Dr. J. W. Foster, of Greenwood, was in town today.

R. B. Windham was attending to business in the metropolis today.

Elder Dungan and wife went to Lincoln this morning to attend a district church convention.

John Burns and wife were in from Center precinct today doing some trading and visiting old friends.

Miss Edith Patterson returned home this morning from an extended visit with friends at Chicago and Evanston.

Mrs. W. H. Dearing did not return to Norfolk as stated in last evening's News, but is in the city for a further visit with her many friends here.

Jared Core was in town from Center precinct today and made the News a pleasant call. He reports the republicans out his way very much alive.

Jake Breckenfeld went out to Mave-lock this morning, and expects to locate there in the sweet subsequently if he can get a position in the shops which suits him.

L. J. Mayfield, editor and proprietor of the Louisville Courier, was in the city today on business. He reports his precinct in good shape for the entire republican ticket.

Mrs. F. R. Guthman and Mrs. Jos. Droega returned last evening from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Western Cass and Eastern Lancaster counties.

Dr. Cherry and wife, of Oklahoma, are here on a visit with James Walker and family, of Murray. Mrs. Cherry being a cousin of Mrs. Walker. The doctor is a prominent cattie-man of that territory and brought a bunch of cattle to Kansas City last week.

Try Grain-O! Try Grain-O!

Ask your grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it, like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha and Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. One-fourth the price of coffee. 15c and 25c per package. Sold by all grocers.

Superintendent Lane, of the Nebraska Telephone company, was in the city this morning looking after the local office which has been greatly improved. The central has been removed to the south sample room at the Riley, and Miss Nettie Morgan has been secured as operator. A new switch board has been put in large enough for one hundred subscribers to take the place of the old one that only carried fifty. The central starts out today with fifty-two phones in operation, and Mr. Lane informs us that thirty more have been contracted for and will be put in at once. The company expects to have one hundred subscribers before the first of January.

Delays are Dangerous. Many of your friends, or people whom you know if have contracted consumption, pneumonia or other fatal diseases by neglect of a simple cold or cough. Foley's Honey and Tar, a safe, sure and pleasant cough medicine, would have saved them. It is guaranteed. F. G. Fricke & Co.

A full line of Lisk's anti-rust tin ware, warranted for five years, at Ebinger Hardware Co.

Furnished or unfurnished rooms for rent. Enquire at 1066 Main street.
