tions this evening. The Q. Z. supper, the chrysanthemum show and musicals and Fannigan's Flats at the opera house.

The Foresters of Cass Camp No. 372, M. W. A. will give a select dancing party on the evening of November 23.
All members of M. W. A. are cordinally invited.

If you wish to spend a delightful evening, and enjoy the best music you ever listened to in Plattsmouth go the Presbyterian church tonight.
Admission 25 cents.

You will never know how quickly you can be cured of consumption, dyspepsia or liver complaint, until you have tried Dr. Sawyer's Little Wide-Awake Pills. A. W. Atwood.

Per centage from City Steam Lau-dry for the benefit of the Presbyterian church debt, for week ending November 19, 79 cents. If you desire to increase this amount patronize them.

L. A. Moore's chrysanthemum sale and musical Tuesday night at Presbyterian church will be the best entertainment in the city for many months. The musical talent will be the best in the state. Don't miss it.

Chinese Lily bulbs, and other bulbs for sale cheap right now at L. A.
Moore's green house. His fine chrisanthemums are coming on nicely, and will be worth going miles to see.

A regiment of hunters went across on the Iowa bottoms to reap the cotton-tail crop which is ripe for the harvest. One hunter from the Junction claims to have killed twenty-four rabbits in a little over an hour.

If you have sore throat, soreness across the back or side, or your lungs feel sore or tender, or you are threatened with diphtheria or pneumonia, apply Ballard's Snow Liniment externally, and use Ballard's Horehound Syrup. F. G. Fricke & Co.

The meeting of the Mozart club will be held at the home of Miss Guthman Tuesday evening, November 22. The meeting will be called to order at a quarter of seven so that those persons desiring to attend the concert that evening may do so.

A. H. Weckbach & Co. have a complete line of fresh vegetables for Thanksgiving dinner, also a dozen varieties of cheese, rare fish such as Milchen Herring, Lingens and Stock fish, and everything that eastern markets afford in the way of good things to eat.

Miss Lansing will sing two numbers and Miss Kellogg, of Omaha, three.
A ladies quartette and a gentlemen quartette will also take part at the chrysanthemum sale and musical Tuesday evening of this week at the Presbyterian church. Admits on 25 cents.

If you want to curtail expenses and save a dollar or more, go to L. A.
Moore's and buy their new "Match It" cigar, five for ten cents, made of the same tobacco as many ten cent cigars. Try them, save money and have a enjoyable smoke. Call for "Match It."

Don't forget the Chrysanthemum show and musical at the Presbyterian church this (to-day) evening.
The flowers will be the finest ever shown in this state—some of the new varieties which would sell for $1.00 in Chicago can be had here for 25 and 50 cents each.

Thanksgiving day will be observed by a united service in the Presbyterian church at 11 a. m. Thursday. R. V.
Campbell of the M. E. church will preach; Rev. Dungan and other ministers present will conduct the devotional services. All are cordially invited to attend.

The Fannigan's Flats company arrived in town today and presented a fine appearance. They have a fine cornet band which paraded the street at one o'clock. Seats are on sale at Lehnhoffs, and theatre goers should encourage the bringing of first class companies to this city by extending liberal patronage.

The chrysanthemum sale and musical at the Presbyterian church tonight will be a swell affair. No lover of this most beautiful flower can afford to miss seeing some of the finest ever grown in the west, or in this country in fact. Mr. Moore has had remarkable success as a grower, and many surprises are in store for those who have not seen the new varieties.

The blizzard has ceased to bliz, but the gentle zephyrs which fan the big snow drifts left over from yesterday, cut ones face like a razor, this morning. The thermometer registered two at six o'clock a. m., and all trains were from one to two hours late, as a result of piling up the beautiful by the high wind last night. The wind settle blows harder than it did last night, and some of the country roads are reported impassible on account of the immense drifts.

The jolly jurors are on deck again ready for business. Sile Green-lane entertains nearly half of them at the Perkins House with stories of daring and prowess, and early adventures in editorial days when Elmwood was a escort for back bear and blo dthirty-Ludians, and Sile was in his prime.
He used to like nothing better to fore breakfast than a buck that he could ear lye with a searching look of his wuchester, which was a ways loaded with "buck shot." E. N. Bobbit pins a few yeres along with John Hart and Andy Christenson and o he memie s of the crowd.

For an Elegant Dinner.

August Bacon has a store full of good things for the table. The grocery department is full of the best goods obtainable and his meat market contains all that the most exacting taste could desire. A choice roast of beef, mutton, veal or pork good enough for anybody, also turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens and all kinds of game. Mr.
Bach caters to the the best trade and those who buy their requisites for a Thanksgiving dinner there will be more than pleased.

The new store in the Fitzgerald block is one of the most complete in the city—where all orders are promptly filled, and it will certainly pay you to give the Bach grocery house a trial order.

A positive guarantee with every sack of Elk Ham and La Cream flour.
F. T. Davis Co., Union Block.

AS THEY COME AND GO.

H. R. Gering, E. A. Oliver and A.
H. Weckbach were in Omaha today on business.

George M. Spu-lock departed last evening by way of Omaha for Marysville, Missouri where he will marry Miss Maybird Smith tomorrow. He has a neat residence on Pearl street nicely furnished where they will reside.

Fred Gorder came over from Weeping Water Saturday evening and is still in town visiting his mother and looking after business matters. His defeat for the legislature along with the rest of the popocrats does not seem to worry him much or cause him to lose flesh perceptibly.

The Place to Go.

The turkey was not the early bird, but Ed. Oliver was, and he got the turkeys together with the nicest lot of meats ever brought to Plattsmouth.
The firm has spared nothing in securing a complete assortment of good things suitable for the table of royalty, or what is better still, for the table of native born or adopted Americans.
Look at the list: Durham beef, pork, mutton, veal, lamb, prairie chicken, quail, rabbits, squirrels, ducks, geese, chickens, turkeys, a dozen varieties of fresh and salt fish, oysters, antelope and venison if it can be obtained.

The firm of E. A. Oliver & Co. is located in the room on the north side of Main street, formerly occupied by the Tucker sisters, and the way business is coming their way proves that they carry the best of everything in the line of meats and relishes. If you want to see one of the nicest meat markets in the state call at E. A. Oliver & Co's, and if you buy once you will remain a customer. Your patronage is solicited and we will try to merit a continuance of your trade.

E. A. OLIVER & Co.

The Gold Medal Settled.

OMAHA, Nov.—There has been considerable controversy here ever the gold medal which has been claimed by others, but it has finally turned out that the Pied Krug Brewing Co., of this city did receive the gold medal for Cabinet beer over all other beers for purity, strength and excellence of quality, at the Trans-Mississippi exposition, and Krug, not only has the gold medal in his possession, but has also received a diploma signed by members of the executive committee of the exposition on saying the gold medal was awarded to Krug Cabinet beer.

No School.

The city schools will all close on Thursday, Thanksgiving day, and also on the Friday following.

Col. Huebner, the bachelor editor of the Nebraska City News, is responsible for the following: "Her fingers are so soft and warm, her little hands so tender, and all the beauties of her form so eloquent of her gender, that when the curtains to my eye in all her charm reveal her, 'ah, 'tis a wonder,' so I sigh, 'that some one doesn't steal her!' I cannot help but view the charms which gracious nature gave her; the beauty of her neck and arms she couldn't change to save her. And so I think, for none can shake my fervor, fond and true; 'what a dainty morsel she would make for a cannibal barbecue!'"

A First Class Dinner.

Thursday will be Thanksgiving and only two more days in which to prepare for it. Bennett & Tuit are on hand with about everything you want to complete a first class dinner. They will have:

Lettuce and Celery,
Oranges and Lemons,
Figs and Raisins,
Dates and Bananas,
Olives and Pickles, Candies and Nuts.

And in fact everything to make you feel thankful, if you will only call up on them.

Wanted—A good girl to work in private family. Enquire at resident of Samuel Paterson on Vine street.

Notice to the Public.

In connection with the raising of the Presbyterian church debt, the City Steam laundry, unsolicited, have made the following liberal offer: They agree to donate a certain per cent of their net receipts to aid in carrying out this work, their per cent to be based on the receipts over and above their second week's business, which receipts were equal to their running expenses. The proposition has been investigated and found to have been made in good faith, their work has also been investigated and passed up on as first-class and those interested in the church work are called on to assist in increasing their receipts and not forget that while the laundry people are making a dollar, the church is benefitted by a portion of it.

Administrator's Sale.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of the county court I will on the 18th day of December, 1898, at one o'clock p. m. on said day, at the late residence of Isabelle Emory, deceased, in the city of Plattsmouth, Cass county, Nebraska, sell at public auction all of the household furniture, carpets, cooking utensils, pictures, etc., being all of the personal property of said deceased.
Terms of sale, cash or half cash and balance on time. Secured notes for six months.
H. J. STRAIGHT,
Special Administrator.

"A Cold Hand-Out"

Is what you gave the tramp who came to your back door the other day. But how about yourself? Possibly you have TWO COLD HANDS OUT. If so, bring them into our store and we will put them into a good warm pair of gloves or mittens. We are very "handy" when it come to this line of goods. Our stock embraces all the "hand-some" things for the hands that have ever been thought of. We "handle" only the reliable grades in gloves and mittens, as in EVERYTHING ELSE.
"Glovery" has been ransacked to give us the very best things for "cold hands out."
