TO BRING GILLETT BACK

Kansas Cattle Plunger Will Have to Face the Music.

Governor of Mexico Favors His Return to Kansas Regardless of the Extradition Laws—Death of a Recluse at St. Joe Who Is Thought to Have Resided Here at One Time—Other News.

DENVER, Dec. 8.—A special to the News from Las Vegas, N. M., says: D. H. Howard, a cattle dealer of Abilene, Kan., who is $40,000 short on Gillett, the Kansas plunger, passed through Las Vegas this morning en route from Mexico to Topeka, where he will ask the governor to issue requisition papers for the transfer of Gillett into the custody of the Kansas state authorities. Howard and two detectives have been on Gillett's trail for ten days. They discovered his whereabouts in Chihuahua City. With him is the Fort Worth attorney, Troxall, who helped him in his flight. Gillett would have been promptly arrested but for the defective extradition laws. It was considered best to leave the two detectives to shadow them until such time as matters could be arranged to capture and extradite him without the possibility of a hitch in the proceedings. Governor Ahumada was called upon. Howard says the governor treated him most kindly and after hearing his statement and the story of Gillett's conduct very strongly intimated that, notwithstanding the extradition laws, properly executed legal documents on behalf of the American authorities would fetch Gillett back to Kansas.

Lonely Death of Recluse.
ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Dec. 8.—William Owens, who came here from Omaha three years ago, lies dead at the morgue in this city, and if his body is not claimed soon it will be given to a medical college for dissection. He had a large sum of money at the time of his death, but it cannot be found. Owens was 50 years old and a recluse. He lived alone in a lodging house while he was in this city and was found dying there by the city physician. He said he had sold a farm in Nebraska before he came here and had several thousand dollars at the same time. Since he died the banks have been searched but the money cannot be found. Owen said he had two brothers in this state and one in Iowa, but would not give their address.

A man by the name of William Owens at one time resided out on the Platte bottom, leaving here about ten years ago and those who remember him think it probable that he is the man whose death is mentioned in the above telegram. He had a brother in the employ of the Burlington as engineer at the same time.

First Special Pension Bills.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—The first of the special pension bills growing out of the Spanish-American war to be introduced at the present session is that of Representative Gillett of Massachusetts to pension the widow of Captain Dickinson, Seventeenth United States infantry, mortally wounded during the fight at El Caney on July 1 last.

Other bills of this character coming over from last session are those to pension the mother of Worth Bagley, the naval ensign, who lost his life on the torpedo boat Winslow during the bombardment of Cardenas, and to pension the widow of Captain Gridley, commanding Admiral Dowe's flagship Olympia, during the battle of Manila.

All bills relating to the Spanish-American war goes to the pensions committee, as the committee on invalid pensions which handles the great bulk of pension affairs, is restricted to the civil war. Chairman Ray of the committee on invalid pensions said today that he did not look for any general pension legislation growing out of the recent war.

Flour Trust Not Complete.
NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—The Times tomorrow will say: Thomas McIntyre of the firm of McIntyre & Wardwell returned from Europe by the steamship Majestic yesterday. Mr. McIntyre tacitly admitted that his mission abroad was to endeavor to effect a consolidation of the milling interests. He declined positively to make a statement as to his success or failure or to endorse assertions made in this regard by friends or others. Some insisted that if Mr. McIntyre had gained his point with the English shareholders of the Pillsbury-Washburn company he would hasten to announce it. Others said that it was a significant fact that members of Mr. McIntyre's firm said on Wednesday that he had not by cable informed them if he had been successful and that no word had come from the Pillsbury-Washburn people.

If he carries his plan through he will unite interests which have a daily output of 95,000 barrels of flour and which in the twenty-four hours use up 600,000 bushels of grain. The capitalization of the concerns is over $50,000,000.

Health of Troops Improves.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—A most gratifying improvement in the health of the troops stationed in Cuba and Porto Rico is exhibited by the reports to the war department from the commanding officers. The long daily lists of sick and deceased soldiers have shrunk and are sometimes entirely missing. It is reported today from General Henry at San Juan that there have been no deaths on either December 6 or December 7 among the United States troops at Porto Rico. Reports from the troops at Santiago are almost as encouraging and even in the Philippines the conditions have materially improved.

Will Not Discuss the War.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—Democratic leaders in the house of representatives said today that the urgency deficiency bill, which comes up tomorrow, would not be the text for any concerted discussion of the war. Representative Sayers of Texas, the ranking democratic member of the appropriations committee, says he framed the bill and will help to pass it. Representative Bailey says any discussion on the conduct of the war would more properly come later on the proposition to increase the regular army.

A Complete Surprise.
From Wednesday's Daily
One of the most complete surprises of the season was that given Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Johnson at their pleasant home on North Seventh street last evening. A party was planned by Mrs. Johnson's lady friends for her birthday, which occurred about two weeks ago, but owing to the severe snow storm was deferred until last evening. The crowd met at the home of Mrs. McElwain's and went to Mrs. Johnson's in a body. They carried well-filled baskets and during the evening an elegant lunch was spread. Mrs. Johnson was the recipient of a beautiful jardineer as a token of the esteem in which she is held. Rev. R. M. Dungan presented it to her in a nice speech and Mrs. Johnson accepted in a few well chosen words.

The evening was most pleasantly spent in social conversation, there being in attendance a large number of pioneer citizens. The following were among those in attendance: Messrs. and Mesdames J. W. Bridge, H. J. Streight, R. M. Dungan, A. B. Todd, Lonzenhagen, D. E. Weltman, Frank Boyd, Chas. Hiatt, R. D. Hunt, Mesdames McElwain, W. M. Turner, A. Stultz, Schultz, Vermilyea, Schildknecht, Lloyd, Lake, Thrasher, McMakee, Morrow, Melvin, Dodge, L. B. Egenberger, Grey, M. A. Dickson, Barstow, Forbes and Buzzell.

Chinese Lily bulbs, and other bulbs for sale cheap right now at L. A. Moore's green house. His fine Christmas anthems are coming on nicely, and will be worth going miles to see.

In biliousness, Herbine, by expelling from the body the excess of bile and acids, improves the assimilative processes, purifies the blood, and tones up and strengthens the entire system. Price 50 cts. F. G. Fricke & Co.

There's no better flour made than Heisel's "Plainsifter," manufactured in this city. Ask your grocer for it, and thereby get the best and support a home industry at the same time, which builds up the town.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church are working a tively to make their "Christmas Market" to be held on the 12 and 13 of December a success. A program will be given each evening in connection with the "Market."

Have you a cold? A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup at bed time will remove it. Price 25 cts and 50 cts. F. G. Fricke & Co.

For Hoarseness.
Bunj. Ingerson, of Hatton, Ind., says he had not spoken above a whisper for months, and one bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar restored his voice. It is used very largely by speakers and singers.

The Q. Z. society will hold their regular business and social meeting with Capitola Black at Curtis Moore's Saturday evening December 10. A full attendance is desired.
