

HELP FOR THE NEEDY.

Mercy and Help Department Does Good Work.

Many Destitute Families Provided With Clothing and Other Articles the Day Before Christmas—Furniture and Bedding Donated—Seventeen Pounds of Candy and Nuts.

The Mercy and Help department of the Epworth League did some good work in the way of providing clothing for the destitute families in the city the day before Christmas.

Miss Ada Hay is president of the Mercy and Help department and as such solicited clothing and other necessities from the business men, who responded promptly and one of the most destitute families were cared for. Seventeen pounds of nuts and candy were also donated by them and many children were remembered who would not otherwise have enjoyed any of the pleasures of Christmas. Although not all of the needy families received assistance at the hands of the Mercy and Help department, it is known that the most of them did, which is evidence that Plattsmouth is enjoying an era of prosperity.

RAILROAD NOTES AND PERSONALS

Felix Kennedy departed for his home at Alliance after a few days' visit with friends in this city. He is employed in the boiler shop by the Burlington.

Thomas Whalen returned to his work in the Burlington round house at Lincoln, after spending Christmas in this city.

Hugh Roberts, who is working with the Burlington painting crew, returned to McCook this afternoon. He was accompanied by his wife.

Smith engine No. 154, which has done duty in the yards at this place for so long, has been taken to the Havelock shops for repairs.

Switchman Fred Denson is rejoicing over the arrival of a new girl. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Posey Messersmith is taking a lay-off from his duties in the yards on account of sickness.

Death at Union.

At 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon occurred the death of one of Nebraska's early settlers, Hon. E. W. Barnum, aged 72 years, at Union. He was buried in Cass county in 1857 upon the place where he died. He represented Cass county in the territorial legislature and also in the senate in 1870. He was a member of the Epworth League church and a prominent member of the Ancient Free and Masons.

Real Estate Transfers.

Following are the real estate transfers of the county as recorded in the office of Recorder of Deeds Hoy: A. L. Manger to C. R. Jordan, 456 blk 2, Manger's add. to A. W. W. 2, 100 blk 2, C. A. Prins and wife to B. Olson, lot 6, blk 106, Plattsmouth—add. to 612-100, Amelia Kunz to Matthias Spader, 1-2, blk 2 Horton's add. to Wabash—add. 125 00.

Death From Diphtheria.

Frieda, the twelve-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kiesel, died at 11 o'clock yesterday and the funeral was held from the residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The family resides in Happy Hollow.

List of Letters.

Remaining uncalled for at the post-office at Plattsmouth, Dec. 26, 1899: Alberty, J. W. Boyce, L. L. Brown, Miss F. C. Breidenbacher, Chas. Barton, Mrs. M. R. Cross, M. Casey, Miss Grace Dauther, Mrs. Dennis Graham, Mr. Andrew Hughes, Mrs. Frank Hart, A. McCoy, Clara Rakes, David 2 Raker, Mrs. Nancy Shaffer, Henry Valley, Miss Myrtle Wiley, Rose Wargs, James.

When calling for any of the above letters please say "advertised."

C. H. SMITH, Postmaster.

New Bakery.

Same building, same baker and same prices, but all newly baked bread, cake, pies, etc., at Holloway's.

Policeman P. J. Hansen and Orrin Smith had a lively chase after a fellow by the name of Charles Bates last evening. Bates became loaded with family disturber and fired a revolver in the air in front of the Hotel Riley and then started for his home west of town. Smith had his big dray wagon and was unable to overtake the shootist, who was driving a team of mules hitched to a light wagon.

What do the Children Drink? Don't give them tea or coffee. Have you tried the new food drink called GRAIN-O? It is delicious and nourishing and takes the place of coffee. The more Grain-o you give the children the more health they distribute through their systems. Grain-o is made of pure grains, and when properly prepared tastes like the choice grades of coffee but costs about one-fourth as much. All grocers sell it, 15c and 25c.

There are few ailments so uncomfortable as piles, but they can easily be cured by using Tabler's Buckeye Pile Ointment. Relief follows its use, and any one suffering from piles cannot afford to neglect to give it a trial. Price, 50 cents in bottles, tubes 75 cts. F. F. Fricke & Co.

Sold Out.

Not by the sheriff, but by the ex-deputy, but a fresh supply of every thing baked at Holloway's today.

BRIEFLY TOLD.

C. A. Marshall, Dentist.

C. L. Clapp of Elmwood was a court house visitor today. Inquire in the German American and Edinger, Agent. S. H. Patterson returned to his work today this morning. Mrs. Charles Wedley has been quite ill for the last five days. J. H. W. made a business trip to Omaha this afternoon.

W. W. Benson, the liveryman, made a business trip to Omaha today.

Alvin J. John A. Davies attended a business Council Bluffs today.

A. B. Beckbach made a business trip to metropolitan this afternoon. Miss Emma Treshum, one of the city teachers, is reported on the sick list.

Mrs. Charles Edis went to Omaha this afternoon for a short visit with her mother.

Mrs. R. E. Livingston and daughter, Mrs. Anna Britt, were Omaha visitors this afternoon.

Chief of Police Morrissey is enjoying a visit from his brother, who resides in Lincoln.

Now is the time to go to A. W. Atwood, the druggist, and get medicine that will cure you.

Banker N. H. Meeker of Greenwood was looking after business in the county seat today.

The dolls that were left from the carnival are on sale at Miss Tucker's store on Sixth street.

Jake Denson and wife returned this morning from a visit of several days with friends in Denver.

Mrs. W. L. Brown returned to her home in Lincoln last evening after visiting relatives in this city.

Choice cigars for the holiday trade now ready, put up in neat boxes of 12 and 25. JULIUS PEPPERBERG.

The court house officials and their deputies are again at their posts today after a Christmas holiday yesterday.

Ernest and Della Wells returned this morning from a visit over Christmas with their sister at South Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lehmann's little baby has been quite ill for several days, but is now considerably better.

A. J. Jackson returned to Lincoln this morning, but Mrs. Jackson will remain for a longer visit with her parents.

Toller & Sheppard have added 'possum and sweet potatoes to their bill of fare for Saturday evenings. Watch for them.

Miss Dora Swearingen, sister of Mrs. L. H. Hasse, is suffering from an attack of rheumatism at the home of her mother in Omaha.

A. B. Reed departed this afternoon for a business trip to McCook. He will be back in this city on Monday.

B. Springer Hardware company is selling for sale all of its heating equipment at cost. Now is your opportunity to get a bargain.

The Knights and Ladies of Security have postponed their public social dancing from Tuesday evening of this week to a later date.

Tray or Stolen—A bay horse, nine years old, weight 1300, had a deep cut on top of neck. Please leave information at this office.

Lost—A diamond earring, between residences of O. C. Dorey and the postoffice. Finder will be liberally rewarded by notifying this office.

Mrs. R. Budick and Mrs. V. Doney of Lincoln, cousins of D. M. Johnson, spent Christmas in the city, the former returning to her home this afternoon.

Dr. Sawyer's Wild Cherry and Tar does not disagree with the stomach, but is the safest and most effective of any cough medicine known. A. W. Atwood.

For all kinds of fancy groceries call at F. S. White's. Raisins, currants, cranberries, all kinds of fruits, and in fact everything for your Christmas dinner.

There will be an oyster supper at the Rock Bluffs Methodist church New Year's eve, Dec. 31, for the benefit of the Sunday school. Everybody invited.

Superintendent Farley, Miss Myrtle Levings, Miss Olive Gass, Miss Florence Richardson, Miss Edna Adams and Miss Smith departed this morning to attend the meeting of the state teachers.

There's no better flour made than Heisel's "Plains'ker," manufactured in this city. Ask your grocer for it, and thereby get the best and support a home industry at the same time, which builds up the town.

Miss Josie Fogarty held the number which drew the watch at Mrs. Utterback's millinery store Saturday evening. J. H. Thrasher held the box which contained the numbers and J. M. Patterson drew the number.

A boy by the name of Jimmie Hart was drowned in the Missouri river at Omaha yesterday while skating. His body was not recovered. This is a warning to Plattsmouth boys to watch for air holes in the ice while skating.

Henry Herold, Emil Wurl and James Donnelly have finished the work of invoicing the stock in the Department store, and find that it amounts to $3,490.95. Ravitzer, the new proprietor, is here, and it is said he will contest the right of the parties to attach the stock.

The T. J. Sokol society will give its annual mask ball at their hall in West Plattsmouth on January 14. A grand time was had at their ball last winter, there being about 200 in attendance.

WHITEWASH A BOSS.

SENSATIONAL ACTION OF THE ANGRY WIVES.

Refused to Quit Work—Would Not Join the Strikers, but Gave Aid to Imported Negro Workmen—His Clothes Almost Torn Off.

Boston (Pa.) women bid fair to become as famous as the women of Marblehead, whose act of flogging and feathering and riding in a cart an objectionable character of that village has been celebrated in song and story. The women of Boston laid violent hands on an objectionable mine boss, and after beating him and almost tearing his clothes off they whitewashed him from head to foot, and, as one of them remarked, "made a white sheep of the black sheep." The Boston in this case is not the classic town of Massachusetts. It is a little coal town on the banks of the Youngholgheny river, about four miles above McKeesport. The men in the mines of W. H. Brown's Sons have been on a strike for four weeks. They claim the firm has been violating a number of sections of the Chicago agreement. The principal difference is that the firm will not pay the price agreed upon in that convention and refuses to put the coal dug by the men over a 1 1/2-inch screen. All along the strike has been most orderly and quiet affair. For the last four days the strikers have been parading about the openings of the mines in an effort to induce the few men still at work to come out and join them. Until yesterday the effort was unsuccessful. A number of negroes from Lovedale Hollow were working regularly and refused to quit. The strikers marched up to the mines each morning and stood on the town-ship road, watching the workers take their jobs. They were careful at all times not to set foot on the coal company's property. Each evening when the men came out of the mine they were met by the strikers and escorted to their homes with all the tin horns, brass bands and other noise-producing instruments of Boston coal mines. The mine boss, Andrew Borland, was on his way to the mine when he was met by a party of eight women, wives of some of the striking miners. He was asked by the women why he would not quit and help the strikers. He gave an abusive answer and was at once assaulted by the women. He was knocked down, and after they had all taken a turn pummeling him, one of them shouted: "Let's make a white sheep of the black sheep!" The proposition was at once agreed to. While seven of the women held him the eighth hurried home and got a bucket of whitewash and a brush. Running back, she applied the whitewash in a vigorous manner and soon had Borland dressed in a suit of dazzling whiteness from top to bottom. This done, they allowed him to depart. Borland threatened prosecution for assault and battery, riot and several other charges.

IT'S PREFERABLE.

Why the Barber Wants to Become a Convict.

"Yes, sir," exclaimed the barber, as he gave the razor a final slap on the stop. "I'm going out one of these nights and commit murder or arson or something." "What for?" asked the second chair, according to the Detroit Free Press. "So the court will sentence me to the penitentiary and I can be a convict." "For heaven's sake, what do you want to be a convict for?" "It is preferable to barbering." "How so?" And the second chair tried the edge of his razor on his thumb-nail. "In a lot of ways. For instance, the convict never has to worry about closing his shop nights. A fellow always comes along and closes it for him. He doesn't get half way home on the last day and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no one comes to his door to get him out to give a haircut and then jump off to run back for the purpose of finding out if he has locked the door. Then there's lunch. Oftentimes the barber can't take the time to go out for a cup of coffee and a sinker. It's different with the convict. He has to eat and he's never troubled with indigestion, either. And he quits work at 4 o'clock, top, and after that hour no