

ENVOYS ARE LIONIZED.

Feted at Manila, But Are Given No Direct Answer.

General Otis insists that Filipinos must lay down their arms as a condition of peace—General Luna reported as the actual dictator—Rafael Sanja and one American drowned.

MANILA, May 23.—6:15 p. m.—The Filipino commissioners spent the day at the residence of the American commissioners. They discussed every point of the scheme of government and the peace proclamation details, asking for information as to what personal rights would be guaranteed them.

Colonel Charles Denby of the American commission explained that they would be the same as under the United States constitution. The Filipinos also desired information as to the school system to be established and approved of the American policy of the separation of church and state. They chiefly objected to the scheme on the ground that it gave them personal liberty, but did not give them political liberty.

Finally, the Filipinos said they were personally pleased with the plan, but could not endorse it officially.

During the day the Filipino commissioners called upon Major General Otis and they will repeat their call tomorrow.

There is much comment here on the outing the Filipino envoys are enjoying. They are arrayed in blue coats, scarlet trousers and gold lace and drive about the city, reveling in the attentions bestowed on them, which is evidently exceedingly gratifying to them. They are the centers of continual levees at Filipino houses, where they have been entertained and have had every opportunity to advance the interests of the insurrection. Military sentiment disapproves of the Filipinos being lionized by their civilian element.

Otis Stands Pat.

General Otis, from antebellum experience, and owing to the Filipinos' fondness of discussion, has maintained the attitude he assumed with the first commission. He has had no offer to make the Filipinos save that they lay down their arms without terms.

The army believes that if we intend to remain in the Philippine islands it will be cheaper in the long run to whip the insurgents so thoroughly that they will be glad of the opportunity to surrender, rather than parley with them and make terms which they will construe as a compromise. The army is also of the opinion that while the first course may cost more and more money in the beginning than the latter, it will prove an effective damper upon future insurrections, whereas, if the war is ended by a compromise the professional revolutionists among the Tagals may be encouraged to try it again in a few years.

Prof. Schurmann, speaking of the commission's policy, said: "I believe force was necessary, because they thought us weaklings and cowards, but I believe conciliation should accompany force. My endeavor has been ever since I came here to exercise conciliation."

The professor is most optimistic as to the results of the negotiations and believes the scheme of government proposed by the United States commission will be ultimately adopted.

Rostario, a Filipino congressman, a wealthy resident of Manila and formerly Aginaldo's commissary general, accompanied by an insurgent captain, called upon Major General Otis today and announced that "we desire to surrender our persons and property into the hands of the Americans."

The surrender was arranged by Chaplain Pierce of the Fourteenth regiment, who knew Rostario before the war. Rostario corresponded in cipher with Chaplain Pierce, so he has been closely watched by the officials at Tarlac since the insurrection has been weakening. Rostario only escaped by persuading General Luna to send him on a secret mission to Manila for the purpose of collecting funds. With the captain, ten men and their families, Rostario traveled at night through the swamps and mountains, passed the lines of both armies and entered Manila last evening. He has been liberated on parole.

Luna Now the Dictator.

According to the story told by Rostario, General Luna is absolute dictator and Aginaldo fears him. Every Filipino leader, it is added, suspects the others of treachery.

The recent meeting of the Filipino congress was to secure a new cabinet and the question of peace was not formally considered, as the members feared General Luna's displeasure. The Filipino government was unable to secure a secretary of the treasury. All those who were offered a portfolio declined to accept it.

Major Bell, with two companies of the Fourth cavalry, has been reconnoitering in the direction of Santa Arita. He found 100 Filipinos there and was driving them away when large reinforcements of rebels arrived and he was obliged to withdraw with four men wounded.

A raft carrying soldiers of the Fourteenth regiment has been sunk at the Pasig ferry. One man was drowned.

WERE HAPPILY WEDDED

Miss Mabel Unruh and Mr. Orville Butler Made Man and Wife.

Rev. Burgess of the Episcopal Church Performs the Beautiful and Impressive Ceremony—A Large Number of Relatives and Friends in Attendance at the Church.

About the prettiest wedding Plattsmouth people have ever been permitted to attend was solemnized at St. Luke's Episcopal church at high noon today by Rev. Burgess, when Miss Mabel Unruh and Mr. Orville Butler were made man and wife. The beautiful ring service was used according to the ritual of the Episcopal church, and the bride was given away by her father.

The bride was beautifully gowned in white Swiss muslin, while the bridesmaid, Miss Florence White, wore yellow organdy. The groom was dressed in black, as was also the groomsmen, France Ballance. The ushers were Miss Hallie Atwood, Miss Gene Marshall, Casper Tygeson and Lee Atwood. Miss Atwood was gowned in blue figured organdy and Miss Marshall in white Swiss. Each usher carried a bouquet. The bride entered the church from the south entrance and was supported by her father and bridesmaid, followed by the little Miss Carew Unruh and Helen Clark as flower girls, who carried lilies of the valley. The groom and groomsmen came in from the rear entrance, during which time a choir sang very beautifully the bridal chorus and the party met at the altar.

The church was beautifully decorated with snow-balls and lilies and there was a large crowd in attendance—every seat being occupied.

After the ceremony the relatives and a number of intimate friends went to the home of the bride's parents, where an elegant wedding breakfast was served. The house was also nicely decorated. The young couple were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful presents.

The bridal chorus was under the direction of C. F. Tucker and was composed of the following young people: H. B. Groves, Wayne Twitchell, B. A. McElwain, L. D. Hiatt and the Misses Minna White, Matilda Valley, Jessie Lansing, Lou Smith, Edith Patterson and Dora Fricke.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Unruh, has been reared from childhood in this city and is a young lady of most pleasing manners. She has endeared herself to all who are favored with her acquaintance. She is a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school, has been a successful teacher and is a young lady of many accomplishments.

The groom is a popular young man, whose home is in Galien, Mich., at which place the happy young couple will reside after a short wedding tour to Kirwin, Kan., to which place they will go tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler enter upon married life under the most favorable circumstances and with the best wishes of a host of Plattsmouth friends.

Through Tourist Sleepers to the Northwest The Burlington route has established a twice-a-week tourist line from Kansas City to Butte, Spokane, Tacoma and Seattle.

Cars leave Kansas City, Lincoln and Grand Island every Tuesday and Thursday, arriving at Seattle following Friday and Sunday. They are upholstered in rattan. The bed linen and furnishings are clean and of good quality. The heating, ventilating and toilet arrangements are all that can be desired and each car is in charge of a uniformed Pullman porter, whose sole duty is to attend to the wants of passengers.

Cars run through without change of any kind and the berth rate from Lincoln to Tacoma or Seattle is only $5. To intermediate points, it is proportionately low.

Montana and the Puget Sound country are now enjoying a period of unexampled prosperity. As a consequence, travel to the northwest is rapidly attaining large proportions. This new tourist car line has been established with a view of caring for the Burlington's share of it in the best possible manner.

Berths, tickets and full information can be had on application to any Burlington Route ticket agent or addressing J. Francis, G. P. A., Omaha, Neb.

Made in Germany. Just why the imprint "Made in Germany" is particularly effective in international competition and of special concern to the British and American manufacturers is explained by the training of the average German mechanic. He is tactful and resourceful, and his government sees to it that he is equipped with a good education. The study of modern tongues and methods is a prominent feature of his curriculum. The growth of technical education has developed wonderfully in Germany, and German artisans work with their heads as well as with their hands as a consequence. That is why the legend, "Made in Germany," has become so universal.

A Gallant Small Boy.

A heroic rescue was performed lately in San Francisco by a boy only eight years old. The San Bruno Hotel had taken fire, and the flames were not discovered until it was too late to save the building, or, as it afterwards turned out, to get out of it all its inmates. While the fire was raging little Theodore Steiner, eight years old, the son of the proprietor of the hotel, learned that a baby, a year old, the child of one of the guests, had been left in an upper room. Theodore did not wait to apprise some older person of this fact; he acted instantly on his own responsibility. Rushing up the stairs in the midst of fire and smoke, he disappeared from the view of the bystanders. At that very moment the walls began to totter, those who had seen the boy enter gave him up for lost. He was, indeed, gone a surprisingly long time, but finally, at the very last moment when it would have been possible for any one to come out of the building alive, he emerged, bearing the baby in his arms. He had rescued it from what in a moment more would have been death.

A SMALL SPOT MAY BE CANCER.

MOST VIOLENT CASES HAVE APPEARED AT FIRST AS MERE PIMPLES.

The greatest care should be given to any little sore, pimple or scratch which shows no disposition to heal under ordinary treatment. No one can tell how soon these will develop into Cancer of the worst type. So many people die from Cancer simply because they do not know just what the disease is; they naturally turn themselves over to the doctors, and are forced to submit to a cruel and dangerous operation—the only treatment which the doctors know for Cancer. The disease promptly returns, however, and is even more violent and destructive than before. Cancer is a deadly poison in the blood, and an operation, plaster, or other external treatment can have no effect whatever upon it. The cure must come from within—the last vestige of poison must be eradicated.

Mr. Wm. Walpole, of Washdowntown, S. D., says: "A little blotch about the size of a pea came under my left eye, gradually growing larger, from which shooting pains at intervals ran in all directions. I became greatly alarmed and consulted a doctor, who pronounced it Cancer, and advised that it be cut out, but this I could not consent to. I read in my local paper of a cure effected by S. S. S., and decided to try it. It acted like a charm, the Cancer becoming at first irritated, and then discharging very freely. This gradually grew less and then discontinued altogether, leaving a small scar which soon dropped off, and now only a healthy little scar remains where what threatened to destroy my life once held full sway."

Positively the only cure for Cancer is Swift's Specific—

S. S. S. FOR THE BLOOD

—because it is the only remedy which can go deep enough to reach the root of the disease and force it out of the system permanently. A surgical operation does not reach the blood—the real seat of the disease—because the blood can not be cut away. Insist upon S. S. S.; nothing can take its place. S. S. S. cures also any case of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatism, Contagious Blood Poison, Ulcers, Sores, or any other form of blood disease. Valuable books on Cancer and Blood Diseases will be mailed free to any address by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.
