ARE you satisfied with the primaries?

Who could have the temerity to kick on Nebraska's September weather?

LINCOLN'S reception to the First regiment is going to be a hummer from all appearances.

OOM PAUL is making desperate efforts for a peaceful settlement of the difficulties and the outlook is that he will be successful.

WHEN a week rolls around without a new sensation coming to light in Hastings there is something radically wrong. She is a fast town.

THE merchants of Plattsmouth should not allow the opportunity of giving a street fair to go by without notice. It is not the case of things to do.

OWING to the condition of Mrs. McKinley's health the president has abandoned his western trip. This is a great disappointment to the people.

It is pretty certain that the fusionists will put up a nasty ticket, but it will only be a matter of form. The republican ticket will be an easy winner this fall.

THERE is one thing lacking in the new law governing candidates' expenditures and that is the amount they should pay for the campaign cigars. The campaign stinker ought to go.

THE latest discovery in Iowa is said to have been made at Marshalltown, where some men who were digging a well struck a vein of the fluid that made Milwaukee famous. The resources of the prohibition state are something wonderful.

THE buildings of the Greater America exposition have been sold to a Chicago firm for $50,000 and the work of tearing them down will begin immediately after the close of the show, November 1. This settles the exposition industry in Omaha.

A LEADING democrat was heard to say the other day that the republicans were going to carry the day in Cass county at the coming election. "We cannot hope to elect but one of the county officers," said the d. d., "and I have my doubts if we do that well." THE NEWS can see where this democrat is right. This is a republican year.

HERE is an opinion from the Weeping Water Republican as to who can be elected sheriff: "The field is now open to Tom Williams to receive the republican nomination for sheriff, and he can be elected, too. This talk one sometimes hears about Billy Wheeler making such a good sheriff is more wind than fact. What has Wheeler done, any more than any other man could do? His greatest achievements have been taking unfortunates to the insane asylum.

THE people who protest against the war in the Philippines because it has caused the death of quite a number of soldiers ought to endeavor to have all railroads abolished. In the course of a year American railroads kill hundreds of people. Why not abolish the president, and the government, because these hideous man-slayers are permitted to exist? And think of the sailors who go to the bottom of the sea every year, because heartless governments permitted evil minded ship owners to send their vessels to sea! It is really frightful. It is of course outrageous that the war in the Philippines results in many fatalities, but war generally has results of that kind.

The most valuable natural bridge in the world is to be found at Arizona, lying across a deep chasm forty feet in width. It is a petrified tree about four feet in diameter and about 100 feet in length. It is pure agate all through, and therefore is much more valuable as regards material than any bridge of marble or granite would be.

To effect a combination of trusts in the scheme of a Cleveland, O., man, who has taken out papers of incorporation for the central company. By this means he proposes to use all industrial power in reach, with a consequent increase in wealth so rapid as to change the whole condition of society.
