

IT WAS A DRY SUNDAY.

Saloonkeepers Served With Writing Notice That Their Places Must Be Closed.

Must Close at 11 o'clock Saturday Night and Remain Closed Till Monday Morning.

Sunday was a dry day in Plattsmouth to those who did not lay in their supply of liquid refreshments on Saturday evening. Mayor F. M. Richey concluded that the saloonkeepers were too brave about selling liquor on Sundays, and on Saturday afternoon armed Chief Slater with a notice that all saloonkeepers must close their places of business at 11 o'clock Saturday evening and keep closed until Monday morning. They were accordingly notified Saturday evening and the order was enforced Sunday.

It is not thought that this ruling was made in order to give liquor men a holiday one day out of each week, but out of respect to the law which is supposed to govern the sale of intoxicating liquors. The saloons have been run very quietly since Mr. Richey and William Slater went into office, but it is understood that they have been gradually getting more reckless and the order of the mayor was found necessary. The saloon men object to Sunday closing for the reason, as they state, that the drug stores take up the business and sell as much or more whiskey than they do, and they argue that, as they pay $1,000 per year for the privilege of selling liquor, they ought to have the preference.

E. S. GREUSEL UNDER ARREST.

Found in the Company of a Lincoln Woman in Omaha.

The following, in regard to E. S. Greusel, a former Plattsmouth man, but now master mechanic of the Burlington's Havelock shops, is taken from Sunday's World-Herald:

"E. S. Greusel and Mrs. E. W. Alensby, both of Lincoln, were arrested last night in a Farnam street hotel on complaint of E. W. Alensby, the divorced husband of Mrs. Alensby. The arrest was made shortly after midnight by Detective Jorgensen, who was accompanied by Mr. Alensby.

"Mr. Alensby, who is well known in Lincoln, where he holds a good business position, said last night that he had secured the arrest of his former wife for the purpose of obtaining possession of their child, Floyd Alensby, who is now in the custody of the mother. Early last spring Mrs. Alensby secured a divorce from her husband on the grounds of non-support. Mr. Alensby filed no cross-petition and did not appear in court when the case was called for trial. He did not even strive to gain possession of the child at that time. Of late, however, he has taken steps to get the custody of the child, believing that his wife had ceased to be the proper person to have charge of the welfare of little Floyd.

"Mr. Alensby left Lincoln several days ago and obtained employment in Omaha at a hotel on Sixteenth street. Her former husband followed her to this city and last night, when he found that Greusel and Mrs. Alensby had registered at the same hotel, he called upon the police of this city and acquainted them with the facts. The police called up Lincoln by phone in order to satisfy themselves as to the identity of Mr. Alensby and as to the facts in the case. When the necessary information had been obtained, the detective was detailed to make the arrest."

E. S. Greusel Married.

E. S. Greusel of Havelock and Mrs. E. W. Alensby of Lincoln were married at Council Bluffs and returned to Havelock yesterday morning. This may change the outcome of the proceedings begun by Mr. Alensby to show that his divorced wife was not a proper person to have charge of their child.

Mr. Greusel's friends say that he has been paying attentions to Mrs. Alensby of late and had announced to members of his family that he intended to marry her at the end of the first year after the death of his first wife. This year will be up next March. Edward W. Alensby, recently a defendant in a divorce suit in this county, applied to Judge Frost of the Lancaster county district court yesterday and secured a temporary injunction to prevent his former wife from interfering with his visits to their little son or from taking the child out of the jurisdiction of the court or from removing it from the county. Deputy Sheriff Woodward served notice of the injunction upon the defendant at Havelock yesterday afternoon. The defendant accepted service, but remarked to the officer that her name was no longer Alensby.—Lincoln Journal.

Home Thieves at Large.

The sheriff received notice from Avoca today that a brown mare was stolen from John R. Josephson, residing one mile north of Avoca, last night. Mr. Josephson is of the opinion that the animal was stolen by a man who called at his house for something to eat last evening.

Some of the democrats who have not much to do have circulated the report that Tom Williams has said he would not accept the nomination for sheriff. This is not true. He is willing to leave the matter to the party. If the nomination is tendered him he will accept it. And that is not all—he will be elected.

"CRUM" STEWART IN THE TOILS.

Arrested in Omaha For Passing Counterfeit Money.

The following from the World-Herald refers to "Crum" Stewart, well known in this city:

"Oren Crummel Stewart, arrested by Sergeant Weisenburg and Officer Mitchell in Goldsmith's saloon, Saturday afternoon, on the charge of passing counterfeit money yesterday morning was turned over to the United States marshal.

"Stewart, who is alleged to be one of the confederates of McCarty, passed an "iron" dollar on Goldsmith's bartender for the drinks. The man took the money doubtfully, but Stewart assured him that it was good, and that he had a pocketful of just such wagon wheels. He then attempted to pass the mate to the one that had gone over the bar upon "Blind Tom," the musician, offering him 10 cents to play a tune for him, but Goldsmith, detecting the imposition, demanded that he take the money back. The man again protested that the money was the very best in the land. The officers happened along and carried him to the station.

"Fred Moulder, a Sarpy county farmer, who was in the saloon at the time, informed the police that Stewart was associated with McCarty. This was denied by Stewart, who asserts that he is a farmer, residing in Cass county, near Plattsmouth.

"He told several conflicting stories, however, and the officers thought him a good man to hold.

"The dollars are very poor imitations, and would not have been accepted by the saloon keeper had he not been hurried. They look as though they had been made in a blacksmith's forge and turned down upon a machinist's lathe."

Will Welcome the Boys Home.

The members of the Grand Army of the Republic and all ex soldiers are requested to meet at G. A. R. hall at least one-half hour prior to the arrival of the train which returns Plattsmouth's four Manila soldier boys—Frank Johnson, Merritt Kerr, Charles Searle and Clarence Fry—for the purpose of marching in a body to the depot.

On their arrival, the soldier boys will be placed in an open back, and, headed by the B. & M. band, they will be escorted to the front of the Hotel Riley. The Grand Army will escort the carriage in single file on either side. Arriving at the Hotel Riley, Hon. R. B. Windham will give a short address of welcome. All civic societies which can be requested to join the procession and help to make the reception as impressive as possible.

It is desired that all buildings on Main street be appropriately decorated with flags, etc., and a spirit of patriotism be everywhere manifest. The signal for the arrival of the train will be four long continued whistles from the B. & M. shops, which will be sounded at least one hour before its arrival, which will perhaps be on Wednesday afternoon, August 30.

Cider and Apples Free.

Isaac Pollard of Nehawka has promised to send twelve barrels of cider and a lot of apples for the First Nebraska regiment. The gift is to be used during the regimental reception at Lincoln, September 13 to 15. This liberality has been acknowledged by the entertainment committee. Mr. Pollard has written as follows to the entertainment committee:

NEHAWKA, Aug. 25.—Mrs. Rehaender, Secretary Entertainment Committee, Lincoln.—Madam: Your letter of 22d inst. received. I will have the apples and cider in Lincoln at the time you may request, and perhaps each company will want a barrel of cider, and I will send twelve instead of ten barrels. Perhaps you will want some good vinegar for the tables, if you would like some, I will send a keg of pure cider vinegar with the other goods. You can depend on everything promised by the Nehawka fruit farm.

IN JUDGE ARCHER'S COURT.

The replevin suit of M. E. Mac-speaker vs. Frank Bonfer was tried to a jury in Archer's court yesterday afternoon, resulting in a verdict for the plaintiff. The case will be appealed.

On complaint of George Craig, Mrs. A. Hedlund was arrested yesterday for disturbing the peace and happiness of her neighbors. The trial is set for Thursday.

Mrs. Jake Miller and two sons were arrested by Chief Slater yesterday for disturbing the peace. They reside in the south part of town and have been having a neighborhood row. The hearing is set for Thursday, also.

Jimmie Moore, the "blue hen's chicken," is in jail. He was drunk!

Robbery at the Missouri Pacific Depot. A robbery occurred last Friday night at the Missouri Pacific depot, but the newspapers did not get hold of it until last evening. S. G. Sprague, the auditor, and Detective DeLong were in the city yesterday looking after the matter, but they have no clue to the thieves.

A VERY WARM MEETING.

Members of the City Council Hold a Lagging Session.

Do Not Perform a Great Amount of Business. But Continue the Session Until After 9—A Great of Bills Against the City—Other News.

The city council held a meeting last evening, notwithstanding the fact that the heat was almost unbearable in the council chamber. The meeting "was not so warm," however, the business being performed with a drag all the way through and not of much interest.

A petition, signed by a large number of residents of the Third ward, was read by the clerk, asking that an arc light be placed at the corner of Third and Oak streets. On motion the matter was referred to the councilmen of that ward with power to act.

The matter of supplying city water to the Columbian school was brought up by Lutz of the Fifth, and it was decided to tap the water main at Eighth and Rock streets for the purpose of furnishing water to that building.

The bids for doing the city printing for the ensuing year were read. The four offices of the city had filed bids and they were pretty near the same except that of the Journal, which was about twice as much on job work as the others. The matter was referred to the judiciary committee.

There was one bid filed for the construction of sidewalks, G. W. Osborn bidding 14 cents per foot. It was referred to the proper committee with power to act.

The bill of Herman Streitweiser of $84 for making some repairs on the engine at the power house brought out a spirited discussion, but it was finally decided to pay it at that meeting.

The claims committee returned the following bills and upon motion of Lutz of the Fifth the clerk was instructed to draw warrants for the payment of the same:

Buttery requested that a ditch in front of Kopla's store on main street be made to prevent the water from running over the sidewalk and that some grading be done on North Eighth street in order that Fred Lehnhoff could build a sidewalk. The work was ordered done.

Sattler called the committee's attention to some needed work on Fifth street, near Main, and also on Rock.

Messersmith said that the council should see that the men who were hired to cut weeds do more work and less sitting in the shade.

On motion of Sattler the clerk was instructed to make out an itemized bill of the Nebraska Telephone company's indebtedness for allowing the poles to stand on Main street, for which there was a fine of $1 per day. The motion carried.

Buttery asked that the bridge at the foot of the Tenth street hill be repaired and it was so ordered.

There being no further business the council adjourned.

Kites and Thunderstorms.

Mr. William A. Eddy, of Bayonne, New Jersey, finds that he can predict the approach of thunderstorms when they are yet so distant that their attendant clouds have not come into view by means of high-flying kites. The kites inform him of the electrical condition of the atmosphere, which assume a recognizable character in advance of such storms. Thunderstorms have the peculiarity of advancing in lines hundreds of miles in length, the storms composing such an array, keeping in a general way, abreast of one another, like skirmishers leading a line of battle.

Abernethy, the celebrated surgeon, was no respecter of persons, and for plain speaking was a terror to many a purse-proud man.
