THE LARGEST GIRGULATION of any Cass County Paper.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1899.

THE ticket is an easy winner. Stick a pin here.

THE drubbing which Bryanarchy will get in Nebraska this fall will pretty effectually settle the colonel's hash.

A THREE hundred and fifty million dollar corn crop will give the corn huskers of Nebraska all the work they will want up to Christmas.

POPULISTS are being urged to stay by Holcomb for Bryan's sake.

W. V. ALLEN has been nominated for judge in the Ninth judicial district by the fusionists.

IT is quite amusing to see how the democratic newspapers are lining up for Holcomb since he received the nomination for supreme judge.

THE ticket placed in the field by the republican convention at Weeping Water Saturday is composed of men who are deserving of and will receive the hearty support of every republican in the county.

HOLCOMB will be defeated this fall and then he will be a back number the same as Kom and some of the other innocuous pop statesmen.

THE Journal editor devotes a large portion of the paper to his sheep playing horse, rather than printing the news.

NEARLY every town in the state of any size is arranging to hold some sort of fall festival.

"COMRADE MCKINLEY stands for our people, for our flag; he stands before all the world and desires to be sustained by our people.

"WE ARE once more and forever, one people. One in faith, one in purpose, one in willingness to sacrifice for the honor of our country and the glory of our flag.

THE people who are criticizing the fact that the administration has seen fit to make a treaty with the reigning head of the Sulu government by which the details of the government of his people are administered by him, overlook the fact that this system has been, after long experiment, adopted by the most successful colonizing countries of the world.

THE English walnut is said to be the most profitable of all nut-bearing trees. When in full bearing they will yield about 300 pounds of nuts to the tree.

THE German emperor likes to study the characters of his group of small sons, and to that end has given them a room next to the one used for business purposes for himself.

GOVERNOR POYNTER was awfully anxious to get the boys of the First Nebraska into a meeting and tell them how he had been standing up for them, says the Opinion. To bring this about he had an exclusive program arranged at the exposition grounds the day the boys reached Omaha.

great scientific man, having on one occasion an interview with the emperor, left his hat in the adjoining vestibule.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION. The republican electors of the state of Nebraska are requested to send delegates to meet in convention in the city of Omaha on Thursday, the 21st day of September, 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m.

INFORMATION AND OPINION. Two Belgian Roman Catholic priests recently decided to visit some friends in England.

"Every ship in the North Atlantic squadron," says the Philadelphia Record, "can boast of a ball nine, and these different nines have formed a league known as the North Atlantic games are played, and there is great rivalry shown to gain the championship of the league.

THE sultan of Turkey rises at 6 o'clock every morning, and at 7:30 he is in the seclusion of the Yild palace and gardens, to personal toilet affairs of state.

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention and that the delegates present be authorized to cast the entire vote of the delegation of the county which it represents.

It is further recommended that wherever two county conventions be held the selection of a county committee shall take place at the first convention and then in every case the secretary be required to promptly advise the state committee of the organization of such new committee with the names of officers, members, post-office address and name of precinct represented by each.

OMAHA, Nebraska, June 23, 1899. R. B. SCHNEIDER, Chairman. P. O. HEDLUND, Secretary.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Aug. 18.—The republican judicial convention for the Second judicial district in Nebraska is hereby called to meet at Nebraska City September 22, 1899, at 1 o'clock p. m.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—General Oils has called the war department request for additional staff officers for service in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Commissary General Weston says the soldier of the Colorado regiment who has found so much to criticize at Manila evidently was misinformed about the exorbitant prices being paid for supplies in the Philippines.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Commissary General Weston says there is no possibility of loss to the government upon them.

TO CONSULT PRESIDENT

Philippine Commissioners Denby and Worcester Enroute to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—It is said at the war department that the return of the two members of the Philippine commission remaining in Manila, Messrs. Denby and Worcester, has been ordered that they may advise the president respecting the very latest aspect of affairs, so he may use the information in his message to congress.

GEN. BROOKE A NIMROD.

After Big Game with Packs" is the title of a paper by Capt. James Cooper Ayres, U. S. A., in the "Century." The hunting expedition was made in 1893, and Gen. Brooke took part in it.

Our hunter and guide par excellence was Baptiste Garalar, or "Little Bat," as he was generally called. He was five feet six inches tall; his frame was well knit; every muscle was developed; his lungs were as sound as an antelope's; his eye had the power of a microscope; and a rifle had been his plaything since childhood.

Doctors Can't Cure It!

Contagious blood poison is absolutely beyond the skill of the doctors. They may drain a patient for years on their mercurial and potash remedies, but he will never be rid of the disease; on the other hand, his condition will grow steadily worse.

It is like self-destruction to continue to take potash and mercury, besides totally destroying the digestion, and dry up the marrow in the bones, producing a stiffness and swelling of the joints, causing the hair to fall out, and completely wrecking the system.
