

WILL SUCCEED BATES.

General Fred Grant to Command Bates' Brigade.

The latter will receive the appointment of Military General of the Mohammedan Islands—Three Companies of the Thirty-eighth Regiment Have Two Battles.

MANILA, Oct. 30.—Major Ballance's battalion of the Twenty-second Infantry entered Cabanatuan, meeting with no resistance. The natives welcomed the Americans, shouting, "Vive los Americanos." The insurgent troops fled to the mountains.

General Bates will be appointed military governor of the Mohammedan Islands, with headquarters at Jolo. General Fred Grant will command General Bates' brigade.

Three companies of Colonel Bell's regiment, the Thirty-eighth, have had two encounters with the insurgents near Laban and captured them. The insurgents left four officers and eight men dead on the field and the Americans captured three prisoners and several guns. One of the American side one man was killed and two officers and six men were wounded.

Captain French took a reconnoitering party beyond Laban after he had met the enemy and was reinforced by Major Bishop with two companies. The insurgents brought up cavalry reinforcements and there was a second fight during which their leader, Major Saavedra, was killed and many were wounded and carried away.

Colonel Dees has been given a free hand around Bacolor. He has sixty mounted men scouring the country daily and they are killing many Filipinos in skirmishes.

The Spanish commission which entered the town sent lines some time ago with money to relieve the wants of several thousand military and civil Spanish prisoners returned to Angeles today. The commissioners say they spent the most of the time in Tarlac and vicinity, where there are some 2,700 sick Spaniards in the hospitals. The Filipinos ill-treated and ill-fed them, refusing to surrender them, as well as the other Spanish prisoners, in the hope of compelling Spain to recognize the independence of the island. From Tarlac to Bamban, about two-thirds of the way, the committee traveled by train on the Manila Dagupan railway.

Two remainder of the journey from Bamban to Angeles they made on foot and escorted by handsomely mounted Filipino cavalry. They were received between the outpost by a member of General MacArthur's staff and were brought by train to Manila.

There are fourteen American prisoners, they say, at Tarlac, all of whom are well treated. Lieutenant J. C. Gilmore of the Yorktown, who fell into the hands of the insurgents at Balor, on the east coast of Luzon last April, where the Yorktown has gone on a special mission to relieve the Spanish garrison, is at Bangat.

The commissioners have brought a letter to General Otis from a relative of the murdered Filipino General Luna, who wishes to avenge the assassination by Aguinaldo's officers, and who asks a personal interview with the military governor.

According to the commissioners, Aguinaldo, who is still at Tarlac with 8,000 troops, wishes to continue the war, although he has a high opinion of the American officers and soldiers. General Lawton he calls "El General de la Niche" (the night general), because that general has attacked him so often in the darkness that he never knows when to look for him.

Aguinaldo is said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition and he is able to get plenty of rice from the northern provinces.

With the Spanish commissioners came a large number of women, the families of eight prominent officers of the Filipino army, who recently applied to General Otis for permission to send their families to Manila. Upon the receipt of the military governor's reply, the nature of which has not been disclosed, the women and children started under escort from Tarlac for the American lines. When they arrived today, General MacArthur compelled them to halt a mile beyond our outpost, where they will remain while their credentials are being examined.

OTIS SENDS A REPORT. WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The war department has received the following from General Otis:

MANILA, Oct. 30.—A detachment of Bell's regiment, the thirty-eighth infantry, reconnoitering towards Florida Blanca, west of Guagua, struck a body of insurgents in newly constructed trenches. The infantry attacked and drove out the enemy, who left in the hands of the detachment four insurgent officers and eight enlisted men killed, three prisoners and nine rifles. Casualties: Captain French and Lieutenant Ferguson wounded, not dangerously; one enlisted man killed; six wounded.

THE ADMIRAL WILL MARRY

Hero of Manila Bay Announces to His Friends That He Will Wed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Admiral Dewey announced to some of his more intimate friends tonight the fact of his engagement to Mrs. W. B. Hazen of this city. Mrs. Hazen is the widow of General Hazen, formerly chief signal officer of the navy, who died about ten years ago, and is a sister of John R. McLan, democratic candidate for governor of Ohio.

Mrs. Hazen, since her husband's death, has made her home with her mother. She is a woman of large means, about forty years of age and popular in the best social circles of Washington.

The news of the admiral's engagement first became known tonight when the admiral announced the fact to a few of his friends. Later in the evening he visited the Lafayette Square theater and while there also communicated the news to some of his near friends and to Secretary Long, who occupies one of the boxes.

While the date of the wedding is not definitely known the understanding is that it will take place sometime during November.

Rumor has connected the names of the admiral and Mrs. Hazen for some time, but little attention was paid to the matter. It was at the home of Mrs. McLan, the mother of Mrs. Hazen, that the admiral stopped when he came to Washington after his return from Manila.

Previous to his departure to take charge of the Asiatic squadron, two years ago, he had been a visitor at the house. The admiral's first wife died in 1872. She was the daughter of a former governor of Vermont. One child from that marriage, a son, is now living in New York. General Hazen, the former husband of Mrs. Hazen, died on January 16, 1887, a son from their union died last year.

DAYLIGHT HOLD-UP IN ST. LOUIS. ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—It is reported that Robert B. Jennings, secretary and general manager of the Broadway Cable company, was held up this afternoon on the corner of Washington avenue and Broadway and robbed of a large sum of money, said to be in the neighborhood of $8,000. The robbery occurred on a crowded downtown corner. The thieves escaped with their booty.

Mr. Jennings was coming from the Boatman's bank, where he had drawn the money to pay off his men. When boarding a car to go to the company's office three men pushed him into a corner and took the money.

It was later stated that the robbers got $600 in cash and about $7,500 in negotiable paper. The police report on the robbery states that the men got away with $1,043 in cash and $48,275 in negotiable paper. A man who saw the robbery got a good look at one of the robbers, of whom he gave a description to the police. Several years ago Mr. Jennings, who is an elderly man, was robbed in a similar manner. His assailants were captured and are now serving terms in the penitentiary.

Thought It an Enchanted Stone. To the department of minerals in the Natural History museum at South Kensington have just been added some meteoric stones picked up in British Central Africa. At one of the villages natives were found by the scientific officer sent to make an investigation squatting around the stone, discussing the "miracle," as they called it. No one would touch or approach it, and it was still lying where it fell when the official arrived. He was told that the stone was enchanted, and each of the natives who sat at a distance round it gave a version of its probable origin and meaning. The largest of the fragments sent to London weighs twenty-nine ounces, but one of the stones which was picked up near Chiprapa village weighs three pounds five ounces.

ACCOUNT OF THE DUNDEE FIGHT

British Estimate Boer Losses at Talaui Hill at Five Hundred Killed and Wounded.

General Bates Recalled—Ordered to Return From San Fernando.

CAPETOWN, Oct. 29.—The following official data are made public regarding the fighting near Dundee: "The Boer losses during Friday's engagement at Talaui hill are estimated at 500 in killed and wounded. "Yesterday the divisional staff was reconstituted. The country was clear of the enemy, but as big forces were reported closing in on Dundee from the north and west it was considered advisable to move the British forces across the railway to a new position south of the camp. During the afternoon the infantry moved out and began entrenching a new position. All available transport facilities were utilized to carry stores.

"At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the enemy opened fire on the entrenchments and camp from the shoulder of Impati mountain with two six-inch guns, getting a fairly accurate aim over a range of 7,000 yards. The soft ground rendered the percussion shells useless. In spite of the falling shells the wagons were loaded with stores. Lieutenant Hannah and an artillery sergeant were killed.

"During the night of October 22 a fresh position was occupied about 7,300 yards from the enemy's guns. News was received at 8 o'clock Monday morning of the victory at Elands-laagte and a division was moved toward Glencoe Junction for the purpose of cutting off the retreating enemy should they use Glencoe pass. Two fugitives were captured.

"We moved our guns down the ridge to the west of Impati mountain and our artillery exchanged shots with the enemy, who brought six-inch guns to bear on the transports. Rain and mist coming on it was deemed advisable to concentrate on the position occupied that morning. The movement was completed at noon. The British troops having marched ten miles.

"The column was enroute for Lady-smith at 11 o'clock that night, passing from Dundee into the Heilmakker road without attracting the attention of the Boers. Major Wickham of the Indian commissariat service joined the column with fifty-three wagons from the old camp.

"Moving eastward through Elands-laagte pass Beit was reached and here the column rested, after which the night march was resumed and Waschbank river reached the following morning at 9 o'clock.

"At 11 o'clock two batteries, two squadrons and all the available infantry were moved toward Elands-laagte in the hope of co-operating with the Ladysmith force, whose guns could be heard, but as the firing moved in the direction of the Orange Free State territory the troops returned from a six-mile tramp in a heavy rain.

"At 10 o'clock Wednesday morning the force was on the Ladysmith side of Sunday river. All that day and the night following the column plodded along muddy roads until Ladysmith was reached at 6 a. m. Thursday.

"The whole transport was utilized for stores, which just suffices for this purpose, and only at the cost of the kit of the entire officers and men. The troops behave splendidly, though practically under arms continuously for six days."

General Bates Recalled. MANILA, Oct. 30.—8:30 a. m.—General Bates has been recalled from San Fernando and ordered to sail for the southern islands as soon as possible.

General Young, with the infantry, is advancing upon Cabanatuan under difficulties. The country is furrowed with rivers and deep ravines, the bridges over which have been destroyed. The mud is deep, rations are short and the transportation of supplies have been delayed by low water and the poor condition of the roads. There are sufficient stores, however, to keep the brigade. The insurgents or a long time have lived off the country, unmolested. The American horses are not yet accustomed to the native grass and a long bullock train has left San Fernando, carrying hay for the cavalry.

The Spaniards report that there are no insurgents at Cabanatuan. The guerrilla force of de Bay dispersed a force of rebels who were engaged in constructing trenches behind Santa Rosa.

Numbers of Chinese are coming to Angeles from Tarlac, paying the insurgents for the privilege. It is reported that Aguinaldo and the Filipino congress are still at Tarlac.

There are about 500 insurgents before Angeles. They have been quiet for the past week. Two thousand rebels are at Bamban, five miles to the north.

THE PARSEES IN BOMBAY.

They Are the Money-makers of the East.

To the nervelessness of the Bombay native one race furnishes an exception—the Parsee, says G. W. Stevens in the London Mail. The Parsee, as his name tells you, comes from Persia whence he was educated in the worshiping fire. Persecuted races develop their own virtues and their own faculties; and now, under British peace, the Parsee flourishes exceedingly. He is the Jew of the east; leaves other people to make commodities while he makes money. Banking agency, commission, brokerage, middleman's profits are the Parsee's gold-mines. He has perceived the advantages wherewith a European education equips him for these pursuits, and he has taken to it with a representative of the most European of all Asiatics.

When a young Parsee speaks of "going home" he means not Persia—here he would hardly be received with enthusiasm—but England. You can see it in the dress of two generations. The elderly Parsee wears his hair oiled and his beard trimmed and an old-fashioned top hat. The young Parsee wears, as a rule, a short frock coat buttoned over white duck trousers and on his head a Prussian grenadier and a fly-paper man. He is shocked at our denial of representative institutions to India, conceiving that if representative government were granted to India a representative would forget that the Mussulmans would straightway push him into the sea and take his rupees into themselves. For the Parsee's rupees are very many. Sir Jamshiji Jijibhoj, the richest, is worth about 5,000,000 pounds. There are many others. So greenly flourish the Parsees that they have nearly filled up all the eligible sites on the ridge, the best part of Bombay, and soon there will be no place for the Briton. While the rich Parsee lives in an airy bungalow, English women have to hire land and live in tents. It must be said that if the Parsee knows how to get he also knows how to give. Every Parsee educational institution or charity, for men or women, is endowed beyond the dreams of London hospitals. Gun cotton-spinners is said to have given 150,000 pounds to the University of Bombay; many others are hardly less munificent. To them, to the Bagdad-Jewish Sassoons, and—last, but not least essential to the prosperity of the others—the British government, Bombay owes the stately public buildings, the spacious open places that give her the grand air above almost every city of the west.

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by restoring the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running ear, or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are cured, but only by a method which is not advertised by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

A. W. Atwood sells stationary. A Fitting Toast. Lord Clyde, one day after dinner, asked a chaplain of one of the regiments in India for a toast, who, after considering for some time, at length exclaimed with great simplicity: "Alas and alack-a-day! What can I give?" "Nothing better," replied his lordship. "Come, gentlemen, we'll give a bumper to the parson's toast. A lass and a lac a day." A lac means 100,000 rupees, or $25,000, which is certainly an income to make one happy.

A True Princess. The following pretty little story of England's future queen is vouched for. During the late visit of her royal highness the princess of Wales to her country home she called at the house of one of the most valued members of her household, with whom was then staying an aged relative, whom the princess had known for many years. This lady, being at present badly crippled by rheumatism, apologized to the princess, saying: "I hope you will excuse me, ma'am, I can't curtsy, but may I kiss your hand?" "No, indeed," was the gracious princess' answer. "You shan't do that. I will kiss your hand." And so, in very deed, she did.

Revival of the Minuet. New York Tribune: It is reported that the waltz has lost its hold on fashion's votaries, and that the sprightly two-step is its successor. The graceful gavotte is steadily growing in favor, and bids fair to have resumed its olden popularity by the time the season has reached its height. There are several variations of the gavotte that are to be introduced during the coming winter. The stately old minuet, too, is to be revived. There is a marked tendency in the fashion of today toward the dress of the colonial period, when the "grave and gallant gentlemen," and the "stately ladies with fair faces" danced the minuet.

FILLING UP SIBERIA. By This Method Russia Cuts Down Her Great Surplus. Since the commencement of the Trans-Siberian railway immigration to Siberia has developed with enormous strides, says the London Leader. Between 1882 and 1885 only 650,000 persons entered the country, viz., 60,909 every year. In 1896 the numbers suddenly sprang up to 203,000; in 1898 they reached 205,000. The immigration is conducted by a committee of officials, whose members portion out the land through which the new railway runs. Up to the present moment 15,000,000 acres have been occupied, and this comprises all the available agricultural land. But notwithstanding, the Russian government allows thousands of immigrants still to swarm into Siberia, and to go to ruin in the barren and miserable marsh lands. The reason of the government's apathy is due to the fact that the officials wish thus to get rid of the starving thousands in European Russia. There is no civilizing influence with these fresh immigrants. The majority are beggars with scarcely more intelligence than the Asiatics already in Siberia. The filling up of Siberia by the present-day process is nothing less than the useless sacrifice of thousands of hapless beings.

The World's Largest Accounting-Room. Uncle Sam has the largest accounting room in the world. It is the office of the Sixth Auditor at Washington, where every single transaction of the entire postal service finds final examination. The magnitude of the work, the infinity of detail, the mastery of system is appalling. Five hundred clerks constitute the working corps. In 1898 they passed accounts and claims involving $600,000,000, or over $1,500,000 for each working day. Every one of the 73,570 postmasters submits a quarterly report. Every item, every figure, every memorandum in each of these accounts must be subjected to microscopic scrutiny; every report passes through the hands of nine sets of clerks. Letters by the thousands and vouchers by the million must be checked and classified.
