

CUBA'S FATE IN BALANCE

General Brooke's Reign Is Almost at an End.

Islanders Will Be Given an Opportunity to Demonstrate Their Ability to Govern Themselves—Amount of Liberty Allowed Will Depend Largely on the Judgment of General Ludlow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—A special to the Times from Washington says: The first task to which the president will address himself now that the election is over is the establishment of civil government in Cuba and Porto Rico. He is displaying considerable impatience to have this work, which has been hanging fire so long, pushed through as soon as possible. The first step toward the establishment of civil government in Cuba is the completion of the census and that, it is now expected, will be finished by the end of the month.

The president's desire is to have Cuban self-government in operation at once, so that congress may be enabled to observe its practical workings and be aided thereby to frame laws for the permanent government of the island.

On the conference with General Ludlow, more than on anything else, will depend the future of Cuba. The president himself is not quite convinced that the islanders are yet ready for self government, but some of the members of the cabinet are, and if General Ludlow supports them in that view the future of Cuba will be assured.

Brooke's Work Almost Done.

In any event the end of Brooke's term as governor general is close at hand. The department commanders will remain for a while, to be ultimately superseded by civil governors, if the plan works well, but the governor general will go. Nor is there any prospect that Brooke will exchange the governor general's position for the position of civil governor. That officer, it is understood, will be either General Ludlow, General Wood or General Wilson. General Fitzhugh Lee is also a candidate for the post.

After the appointment of the civil governor a portion of the army will be withdrawn, but how large a portion has not been decided upon.

If Cuba does get self government it will be mainly due to Secretary Root. He has urged the substitution of civil for military government ever since he entered the cabinet and has been the prime mover of the cause of self government.

Natural Gas Supply Falls.

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 10.—Natural gas is rapidly falling in the north part of the Indiana field. The Dietrich syndicate has given notice that it will abandon its plants in the smaller towns. Five towns in this county and nearly 2,000 families are affected. Coal cannot be had at any price and there is no wood in the market.

The syndicate controls the gas plants in over twenty cities and towns in various parts of the state. The field pressure has fallen from 320 pounds in 1893 to 132 pounds.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—The superior court today, on petition of the city demanding that the Indianapolis Gas company, owned by the Dietrich syndicate of New York, drill twenty-five gas wells and lay another twelve-inch main at once from the gas field to Indianapolis, granted an alternative writ, returnable November 27. The action of the city was to force a better gas supply this winter. The company wants meters introduced and the theory of the city is that it is holding back the full supply.

Lad Meets Horrible Death.

TEREKH, Neb., Nov. 10.—Arthur Bryant, the seventeen-year-old son of E. W. Bryant, a prominent business man of this city, was killed by a train here this evening. The youth boarded the through St. Paul express on the Omaha road as it came into town at 7:12 and rode a short distance as it pulled out. He then attempted to alight, but missed his footing and fell under the wheels. The lad's body was crushed and mangled beyond recognition and strewn along the railroad track for six or seven miles.

Young Bryant was a grandson of Miles Folsom of Omaha, who is largely interested in real estate here. Mrs. Bryant, the unfortunate lad's mother, is an own cousin of Mrs. Crover Cleveland. The Folsoms have been prominent in Omaha and Nebraska for years.

ABOUT THE NEW PLAY.

"Aberdeen" to Be Presented Next Friday and Saturday Evenings.

"Aberdeen," the play that will be produced next week at White's opera house, will prove of special interest to our soldier boys who took part in the recent conflict with Spain. The third act of the play is laid in Cuba, the first scene showing the landing at Baquiri, and the last the hill and blockhouse at San Juan. The finale to this scene is spoken of as being one of the strongest pieces of dramatic construction seen for some time. The opening of the scene shows the Sixth Infantry, regulars, on skirmish action, and the ending the charge up the hill. While not being a war play, the plot hinges around the Spanish-American difficulty and the depictions of life, according to press exchanges, is very true, and lacks the disgusting mock-heroics common to most plays that contain war scenes.

MAN LEAPS FROM A TRAIN.

Insane Passenger Takes a Plunge Which May Prove Fatal.

HASTINGS, Neb., Nov. 10.—F. G. Larned of Poland, N. Y., who was on his way with his wife and little son to Haigler, Neb., jumped from the passenger train between Harvard and Saroville this morning and received injuries that may prove fatal. The train was running at the rate of fifty miles an hour when Larned took the plunge. It is supposed that he had become suddenly insane.

He had arisen from the seat in the car next to his wife and son and started down the aisle. Suddenly he gave a scream and jumped, head foremost, through a window before a hand could be raised to restrain him. The train was stopped and backed to the point at which he was lying at the foot of a fifteen-foot embankment.

The injured man was brought to this city and taken to a local hotel, where he is under the care of the railway company's physician. It was found that he was terribly cut about the head and that his left shoulder was dislocated. He is still unconscious.

Mrs. Larned stated that her husband had been in good health, but during the evening he had complained of pains in the head. The Larneds were enroute to Haigler, where Mr. Larned is interested in sheep raising and is also associated with his brother in the Empire Loan and Trust company.

WEeping WATER NOTES.

From the Weeping Water Republican.

Dr. Humphrey was called out from Plattsmouth Tuesday to consult with Dr. Fate in Grandma Cromwell's case. Her friends are very anxious about her condition.

Mrs. Orlando Teft is lying very low at the sanitarium in Lincoln, with little hopes of her recovery. Mrs. Teft has been in poor health for a number of years, and her condition now is probably caused by the old trouble. Mrs. Teft's many friends here will be sorry to hear of her illness.

Judge Spurlock and Lieutenant Rawls spoke to a large audience on Monday evening at the opera house upon the issues of the day. Judge Spurlock gave a rousing talk, full of good advice to the voters. His thoughts were helpful to young voters and every boy who was to have cast his first vote should have heard him. Lieutenant Rawls is not a ready speaker, but he gave some good thoughts which were of interest to every voter. These gentlemen brought their wives with them.

Tom Parmele of the Plattsmouth Telephone company was in town last Thursday to see what the prospects were for putting in an exchange here. He would like to have a stock company formed here to join with him in the enterprise, but the movement is waiting the action of the city council at their next regular meeting next Monday night, when it is expected that the matter of a franchise will be acted upon. The Nebraska telephone people are also of the opinion that an exchange would pay here and they may conclude to enter the field. Give us an exchange at a reasonable charge and it will be patronized.

Woman's Club Meeting.

From Saturday's Daily.

The usual weekly meeting of the Women's club was held last evening in the parlors of the A. O. U. W. hall. The president called the club to order at 7:30. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary. The election of new members was held and other business transacted.

Mrs. Maudie Newell, Stoutenborough and Streight were appointed as a committee on public improvement. Mrs. Teft, leader in Parliamentary Law, then took charge of the meeting. An interesting discussion on conducting public meetings and the method of permanent organization followed.

Miss Gass, leader in American Literature, occupied the remainder of the evening, her subject being "Biography of Bryant" and study of poem, "To a Waterfall."

Entertained the "J. G. T." Club.

From Saturday's Daily.

Miss Elizabeth Loyd entertained very pleasantly the "J. G. T." club last evening at her home in the western part of the city.

The first part of the evening was occupied with the usual business of the society. Games were then indulged in, after which cake, coffee, olives and safters were served. Those present were:

Misses Minta Maury, Gertrude Beeson, Blanche Sullivan, Alice Sullivan, Anna Pollock, Josie Murphy, Gretta Waugh, Violet Newell and Bertha Richey and Messrs. John Beeson, Joe Rawls, Tom Murphy, Earl Clark, Don D. Spain, Ben Davis, Homer Craig and Frank Kohl.

Not a Surprise.

It will not be a surprise to any who are at all familiar with the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to know that people everywhere take pleasure in relating their experience in the use of that splendid medicine, and in telling of the benefit they have received from it, of bad colds it has cured, of threatened attacks of pneumonia it has averted and of the children it has saved from attacks of croup and whooping cough. It is a grand, good medicine. For sale by all druggists.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.

Frederick Latham Passes Away After a Long Illness.

Had Been Suffering For the Past Year With Cancer of the Throat—An Employee of the Burlington Railroad For Twenty-nine Years—Other Local Happenings.

Frederick Latham died at his home on North Sixth street at 7 o'clock last evening. He had been ill for over a year with cancer of the throat, but attended to his duties at the Burlington station until four weeks ago, when he was obliged to give up his work. During all of the year's illness no word of complaint was ever uttered by him, although he had known for some time that death was near at hand. He was conscious to the last and despite his intense suffering passed away with a smile upon his face, his wife and daughter, Mrs. Harriett Wellington, Mrs. O'Dell, a niece of Leavenworth, Kan., and Master Reginald Latham being at his side when the final summons came.

Deceased was born in Lancaster-shire, England, July 27, 1837, and was, therefore, a little more than sixty-two years of age at the time of his death. In the year 1863, with his family, he left England and moved to Canada. On May 24, 1866, he was united in marriage at Rice Lake, Ont., with Miss Elizabeth S. Bird, and to whom three children have been born—Frederick William, Harriett and Frances Jane—the first named and the latter having died in infancy. The relations surviving him are his wife and daughter, Mrs. Harriett Wellington and three sisters, Miss Fannie Latham, who has always made her home with the family, one residing in Ireland and one in Canada.

Leaving Canada in 1868 the family removed to Osceola, Iowa, where they resided until 1870, when they removed to this city where they have since lived.

Mr. Latham entered the employ of the Burlington and Missouri River railroad twenty-nine years ago last May, sixteen years of which time he was the agent for the company. As a result of his methodical ways and the attentive manner in which he applied himself to business, he was regarded as one of the company's most valued employees, which resulted in his always holding a position of trust.

He was kind and considerate, not only to his family, but to all with whom he associated, and since he has been unable to perform his duties at the depot he has been greatly missed.

There is a strange coincidence in the fact that his father died just thirty-one years ago yesterday.

The funeral will be held tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2:30 from the Episcopal church, Rev. Burgess conducting the services. Friends who desire to view the deceased are requested to call at the house before 2:30.

The Late Mr. Latham Laid at Rest.

From Monday's Daily.

The funeral of the late Frederick Latham occurred at 2:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon—a large number of sympathizing friends of the family being in attendance. The body was taken from the residence to St. Luke's Episcopal church, where the usual services for the dead were performed, Rev. Burgess officiating. A sermon of rare power and effectiveness was preached. The casket was beautifully draped with flowers and covered with roses and chrysanthemums. The pall bearers were Messrs. A. W. White, L. D. Bennett, M. Waybright, John R. Cox, William Ballance and W. L. Pickett.

The services concluded, the body was borne to its last resting place in Oak Hill cemetery and interred amid many expressions of sorrow for the departed.

ORIGIN OF ONE GREAT PLAY.

Beautiful Scenes Which Inspired the Author to Write "Aberdeen."

Away down on the extreme southern border of Ohio, sheltered from the outer world by towering hills, lies a little village; to the east and to the west, like a path of tarnished gold, stretch away the sluggish waters of the murky old Ohio; from the opposite shores reach out the blue grass meadows of Kentucky, until the blue of the fields is blended in the gray of the horizon. Over this little hamlet, day in and day out, dwells a peaceful calm, broken only by the sonorous snort of an occasional steamboat as it swings in or out of the landing.

Into this place one day drifted a man traveling about in search of health—the man was a playwright. The little village interested him, its quaint characters, its odd architecture, its legends and folklore aroused within him a desire to paint a word picture of the simple people about him. The result was gratifying. In a few months he had completed a play—the play was "Aberdeen." It will be produced at White's opera house Friday and Saturday, November 17 and 18, under the auspices of the Imperial Mystic Legion.
