

HOLD AN OPEN MEETING

Members of the Woman's Club Entertain Their Friends.

Many of the "Men Folks" Were Present and Assisted Very Materially to Make the First Meeting of the New Year a Social Event Long to Be Remembered—Other News.

The members of the Plattsmouth Woman's club were "at home" to their friends last night at the residence of Mrs. Nellie P. Agnew, on Third street. The invitations read from 8 to 11, and during that time more than one hundred availed themselves of the privilege of greeting each other in Mrs. Agnew's pleasant home. The New Year receptions of this organization are looked forward to as one of the social events of the city, and the reception last evening was one of the most enjoyable in the history of the Woman's club.

Mrs. Agnew's home is well adapted for entertaining, and the reception hall, the parlors and the dining room were especially pretty in their Christmas greens, while large bouquets of pink roses and white hydrangeas served to nod a pleasant welcome to one and all.

Mrs. Fellows, president of the club, was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Agnew, Mrs. Byron Clark and Mrs. James Herold. Indeed, each member seemed to feel that she was a committee of one to make some one else enjoy the evening. Each guest was presented with a tiny card on which a pen and ink sketch set them to guessing what was missing to make the picture complete. No little merriment followed the matching of the bits of paste-board. The knife was looking for the fork, the cup for the saucer, the thread for the needle, "while the cow jumped over the moon and the little dog laughed at the sport and ran away with the spoon." In this way partners were chosen for the dining room. Mrs. Dr. Elster and Miss Grace Stoutenborough poured coffee, while Misses Gene Marshall, Myrtle Levins, Edith Buzzell and Margaret Mapes assisted in serving refreshments.

Miss Lou Smith at the piano played three or four numbers which were appreciated by all present.

The clock in the court house tolled eleven and there were still a few guests left to "talk it all over." The reflex pleasure must have been a matter of congratulation to all who helped to make a pleasant evening for the visitors who seemingly enjoyed the New Year's hospitality of the Woman's club.

Notes.

How happy Mr. Travis looked when he "matched" his watch.

How many times did Prof. McHugh, R. B. Windham and Byron Clark "take in" the refreshment room?

The question today was not "Have you solved the riddle—when does the twentieth century begin?" but "Did you attend the reception last night?"

Did you see the lady who made the coffee smile when she was informed that her partner refused to eat until she would come to the dining room?

No little credit is due Laura De Fellows, Winifred Ureah and Sallie Agnew for the pen and ink sketches which were so beautifully executed by these young ladies.

Quite a number of out-of-town guests were noticed there—Mrs. Jackson of Lincoln, Mrs. Guild of Omaha, Miss Goodell of Glenwood and Mr. Dana Sleeth of Lincoln were among the number.

We are told that one member of the club was so generous that she staid at home and took care of the children in order that her husband might attend the reception. "Don't say I told you," but he is one of the best speakers on the lecture course this year.

It means a good deal for the women of our city to be helpful friends and when the representative men "confess that they go to their conventions for the social side of it," surely women need not deary the occasions which serve to bring them together on a social basis.

A YOUNG WOMAN'S DEATH.

Mrs. Nelson, Formerly Miss Myrtle Pardy, Passed Away Sunday Morning.

Mrs. Myrtle I. Nelson, wife of Julius Nelson, died at her home in Lincoln Sunday morning after a lingering illness and the body was brought to this city for burial yesterday. The funeral took place from the home of deceased's mother, Mrs. W. S. Purdy, on South Third street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Rev. H. B. Burgess of St. Luke's church officiating. Deceased was born and reared in Plattsmouth. She was twenty-six years of age and was married four years ago to Julius Nelson, a Burlington fireman and, besides the latter and deceased's mother and a brother, a little three-year-old daughter are left to mourn her untimely demise.

She was a graduate of the Plattsmouth high school and taught a number of terms of school in this city. The relatives have the sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank my friends for the many acts of kindness performed at the funeral of my beloved daughter, Mrs. Julius Nelson. Such assistance in an hour of trouble will ever be remembered. Mrs. W. S. PURDY.

The Bible class will meet with Mrs. Hesse next Thursday evening. Subject: the fifth and sixth chapters of Genesis.

THE JURY FAILS TO AGREE

Case of the State vs. Miss Contryman Will Be Tried a Second Time.

It was a large crowd of people that assembled in Judge Gess' court Tuesday to listen to the case wherein Miss Margaret Contryman, teacher of a district school near Weeping Water, was charged with assault and battery on the person of one of her pupils, Agnes Carper, the fifteen-year-old daughter of James Carper. There were a number of witnesses summoned on both sides and the evidence disclosed the following:

The Carper girl and a daughter of Ed Tighe were caught whispering and kept in at noon for a short time. They were then excused and when school was called after noon the two girls went out with the remark that they would stay out as long as they had been kept in. On again entering the room, instead of taking their seats, they remained standing by the stove until the teacher had told them the second or third time to take their seats. In attempting to punish the Carper girl for her disobedience the switch was broken, the scholar grabbing it as she was being struck across the shoulders. With her weapon destroyed the teacher then proceeded to thump the disobedient scholar between the shoulders with her fists. The girl ran over near the stove, when the teacher went to the other end of the room, picking up a loose slat from a seat and struck the girl with it. Just where the blow fell seemed to be a matter of a great deal of difference of opinion—the teacher testifying that it was on the skirts and did not hurt the girl, while the girl and other witnesses testified that the blow was across the hips. Here you have the testimony in a nut shell. The attorney for the state claimed that inasmuch as a hard wood slat was used upon the girl and that she was struck in the back with the clinched fist of the teacher that the evidence was sufficient to convict the teacher of the charge of assault and battery. A. M. Russell appeared for the state. The defendant's attorney, J. E. Douglas, asked for a verdict of acquittal on the ground that the teacher was using the only instrument at hand to put down the rebellion in her school. Both attorneys sighted law touching on the case and it was given to the jury a little after 9 o'clock Tuesday evening, and after being out until 7 o'clock Wednesday morning and failing to agree the jury was discharged.

The case will come up again January 13.—Louisville Courier.

HAVELOCK NOTES.

From the Havelock Times.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Williams of Kansas City, Mo., brother-in-law and sister of Gus Hyers, spent the Christmas holidays with the family of the latter. Mrs. Williams was formerly Miss Rose Hyers of Plattsmouth.

The ladies who went to call on Mrs. Travis of Plattsmouth were charmingly entertained and served with tea and cake, but the lady had not yet arrived and so in a manner some disappointment was felt. Mrs. Hempel expected her a day later.

Charles T. Langston, a pioneer Havelock boy who has been inspector in one of the pit gangs for some time, left the employ of the company last Tuesday to go to Cheyenne, Wyo., for the Union Pacific. He expects to locate somewhere in the west for the benefit of his health.

George L. Prentiss, who has been at work at Sheridan, Wyo. for some time, returned to work in the Havelock shops the first of the week, and with his wife has taken rooms in the Layman block on Indiana avenue. They will take up their residence in the dwelling now being vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Langston.

Pool-Colbert.

The words that bound in holy matrimony the lives of Clarence E. Pool and Miss Luetta Colbert, were pronounced by Elder Root on Wednesday noon, December 27, 1899, at the home of the bride's parents near Wabash.

The bride and groom were both born and raised in Cass county, coming from well connected families. They enter upon their new voyage under very promising and congenial circumstances. They will at once take up their abode on the William Pool farm and start into life right. The groom is the oldest son of Wm. Pool.

The marriage ceremony was witnessed by only the immediate relatives, after which a sumptuous repast was served.—Weeping Water Advocate.

"The News" New Quarters. The employees of THE NEWS will tomorrow morning enter upon the unpleasant task of moving the plant to a new location. It will be removed to 316 Main street, in the Wetenkamp block opposite the court house. The increasing business has made it necessary to seek a larger room and this one will fill the bill very nicely. It is hoped that within a week the office will be settled in its new location, after which THE NEWS' friends are invited to call.

Do you want to fix your rooms up this season? Of course you do, and it is probably high time for it. You intend to buy wall paper? And buy another paper in two or three years? Now, let me talk to you about having a nice decorated house, stylish and up-to-date and save much money on it. Get your rooms painted and decorated in a modern style and you are through with your house for many years. Don't paper every two years and ruin your plaster with it. Call on Louis Ottat for full explanation of the economy of frescoed rooms. He has the experience of many years and a great many references in town. Plattsmouth telephone 268.

RECENT SOCIAL EVENTS

Plattsmouth Club Gives Its Initial Dancing Party.

Was Attended By a Large Number of Young People and Was Highly Enjoyed—Miss White Gives a Five O'clock Dinner—T. J. Sokol's Rabbit Supper and Dance—Other News.

The Plattsmouth club gave its first dancing party at Waterman's hall last evening. It is sure that it was the most enjoyable social function of the year 1900, and it is doubtful if there was one of a like nature given during the year 1899 which was more highly enjoyed. This club was organized last June, the object of which is for social and literary advancement, but it has been so quiet (unlike most clubs) that little has been heard of it. However, THE NEWS intends giving it some publicity in a few days.

The music for the ball was furnished by the Mandolin club and the boys did themselves proud. The committee on arrangements was H. B. Groves, F. R. Ballance, F. A. White, L. L. Atwood and T. F. Whelan.

Those present were: Messrs. F. H. Haller, Ironwood, Mich.; C. G. Fricke, Otto Wurl, L. L. Atwood, F. R. Ballance, H. B. Groves, H. F. Goss, F. A. White, T. F. Whelan, Emmons Richey, P. W. Agnew, Jacob Koch, Everett Eaton, Edward Tutt, Charles Patterson, Ernest Wiggenbom, Ashland; Misses Florence White, Mathilde Valley, Mayne Sullivan, Maude Mason, Louise White, Catherine Agnew, Gene McLennan, Lincoln; Bertha Richey, Baker, Anna Keppel, Jesse Linsing, Molly Ballance, Dora Fricke, Della Tartsch, — Graves, Omaha; Maude Eaton, Claire Drummond and Messrs. and Mesdames W. J. Straight, Fred Murphey, H. H. Tartsch, McCook; James Newell.

Pleasant Dinner Party.

Miss Louise White gave a New Year's dinner at her pleasant home on Fourteenth street at 5 o'clock yesterday. It was a very pleasant affair and was attended by the following:

Misses Edith Patterson, Mathilde Valley, Claire Drummond, Bertha White, Elizabeth Waugh, Louise White, Mesdames T. P. Livingston, W. J. Straight and Messrs. Frank H. Haller, Ironwood, Mich.; Charles King, Chicago; H. B. Groves, W. J. Straight.

Sokol Rabbit Supper.

The T. J. Sokol society gave its annual rabbit supper at the hall in West Plattsmouth Saturday evening and it was a success from every point of view. There was the largest crowd in attendance that ever congregated at a social gathering in the hall.

Several members of the society went over the river a few days ago and succeeded in bagging about eighty of the festive cottontails and these were prepared for the supper. Dancing was indulged in, the music being furnished by the Sokol band. It was a pleasant affair throughout.

Will Face the Music.

The sheriff from Clark county, Missouri, arrived in the city last evening, this morning departed for Kohok, Mo., having in charge Prof. Blair, who is charged with forgery and embezzlement. I talking with a NEWS reporter Mr. Blair did not seem to be at all concerned as to the outcome, stating that it would take him but a few moments to straighten the matter up and that he would return to this city next Tuesday. The sheriff did not seem to know much about the case.

HE ONLY REPEATS WHAT HAS BEEN SAID AROUND THE WORLD. It has been demonstrated repeatedly in every state in the union and in many foreign countries that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain preventive and cure for croup. It has become the universal remedy for that disease. M. V. Fisher of Liberty, W. Va., only repeats what has been said around the globe when he writes: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for several years and always with perfect success. We believe that it is not only the best cough remedy, but that it is a sure cure for croup. It has saved the lives of our children a number of times." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Kipping to Julia Marlowe.

Rudyard Kipling sent as a Christmas present to Julia Marlowe a copy of his latest book, "The Day's Work," with this verse in autograph on the flyleaf:

When skies are gray instead of blue,
With clouds that come to dishearten;
When things go wrong as they sometimes do,
In life's little kindergarten;
I beg you, my child, don't weep and wail,
And don't, don't take to tipping;
But cheer your soul with a little tale
By Neighbor Rudyard Kipling.

HAVING A GREAT RUN ON CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. Manager Martin, of the Pierson drug store, informs us that he is having a great run on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sells five bottles of that medicine to one of any other kind, and it gives great satisfaction. In these days of a gripe there is nothing like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the cough, heal up the sore throat and lungs and give relief within a very short time. The sales are growing, and all who try it are pleased with its prompt action.—South Chicago Daily Calumet. For sale by all druggists.

Frank Johnson, the Burlington fireman, was in the city New Year's day visiting his parents, J. W. Johnson and wife.

BRIEFLY TOLD.

THE WAY TO GO TO CALIFORNIA

Is in a tourist sleeper, personally conducted, via the Burlington route. You don't change cars. You make fast time. You see the finest scenery on the globe.

Your car is not so expensively furnished as a palace sleeper, but it is just as clean, just as comfortable, just as good to ride in—and nearly $20 cheaper. It has wide vestibules; Pintsch gas; high back seats; a uniformed Pullman porter; clean bedding; spacious toilet rooms; tables and a heating range. Being strongly and heavily built, it rides smoothly; is warm in winter and cool in summer.

In charge of each excursion party is an experienced excursion conductor who accompanies it right through to Los Angeles.

Cars leave Omaha, St. Joseph, Lincoln and Hastings every Thursday, arriving at San Francisco the following Sunday, Los Angeles Monday. Only three days from the Missouri river to the Pacific coast, including a stop-over of one and one-half hours at Denver and two and one-half hours at Salt Lake City—two of the most interesting cities on the continent.

For folder giving full information, call at any Burlington route ticket office, or write to J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha Neb.
